

SEMI-WEEKLY VOLUME LX

Est. As The Regulator February 2, 1876

PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

Changed To The Courier September 13, 1879

$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Oldest Paper Published In Randolph County

ASHEBORO, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1936.

PUBLISHED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

NUMBER 18

Late News

State, National and International Happenings Briefly Told

TOBACCO BILL GOES TO WHITE HOUSE

Washington.—A bill permitting southern states to make contracts for control of tobacco production was White House bound Thursday.

SKILLED WORKERS SCANT IN HIGH POINT

High Point.—A shortage of skilled workmen was reported Wednesday by the local re-employment office.

CONSTANTINE WARNS HOSIERY MAKERS

Philadelphia.—Earl Constantine of New York, speaking to the 32nd annual convention of the National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers, declared Wednesday that the industry must "set its own house in order if it wishes to prevent ultimate government supervision."

STUDENTS DEMONSTRATE AGAINST WAR

Greensboro.—Thousands of college graduates and high school students all over the nation left their classrooms Wednesday to participate in the third annual demonstration against war, sponsored by the American Student's Union.

ETHIOPIAN EMPEROR RALLIES ARMY FOR FINAL STAND

Addis Ababa.—A serious insurrection among the northern Ethiopian armies was reported unofficially in Addis Ababa Wednesday, as the youthful Crown Prince Asfa Wosan returned to the ramshackled old palace to resume his place as his father's deputy in the capital.

STATE GENERAL FUND CASH SHOWS GAIN

Raleigh.—The state general fund of cash balance shows a balance of $4,429,684.29 as against $2,745.42 for March 1, 1936. The state was shy March 1, and was flush April 1.

TWO-YEAR-OLD BOY DIES OF EXPOSURE

Sawanna, N. Y.—Two-year-old Thomas Woodworth was found dead of exposure late Wednesday less than a mile from his home. He was lying face down on the ground in an open space at the foot of an embankment.

MINERS RESCUE PAIR FROM TUNNEL CAVE-IN

Moore River, N. S.—Dr. D. Edwin Robertson and Alfred Scadding, entombed since April 12 in a partially water filled pit of the Moore river gold mine, were rescued early Thursday and brought to the surface.

FIRE SWEEPS OVER 2,000 ACRES TIMBER

Randleman.—Heavy damage resulted from a forest fire which swept across almost 2,000 acres of the wooded section three miles south of Randleman from Monday afternoon until Wednesday of this week.

RECORD NUMBER ENTER IN MUSIC CONTEST

Greensboro.—Approximately 3,000 boys and girls representing schools from all sections of North Carolina were in Greensboro this week taking part in the 17th annual state high school music contest.

Officers Named In Trinity P. T. A. For The Coming Year

Grady Owen, High Point Schools Superintendent, On Use Of Leisure Time

Week's Local Items

Debating Teams Of High Schools Stand Up In State Finals At University

Trinity, April 23.—The P. T. A. of the Trinity school held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening in the high school auditorium.

Following the business session, Henry Grady Owen, principal of High Point high school talked on "The Wise Use of Leisure Time."

Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Parker and family of Charlotte have been visiting Mrs. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Payne.

Cletus Cook who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is improving. The debating teams of the Trinity high school accompanied by A. R. Bullock, principal, attended the finals at Chapel Hill last week.

Sophia Farmers Are Busy With Planting Corn & Other Crops

Sunday School Attendance At Marlboro Is Increasing As Spring Weather Comes

Neighborhood Visits

Garner Family Move From High Point To This Community; Other News Items

Sophia, April 22.—Work on the new consolidated school building near Sophia is progressing nicely.

Rev. B. B. Bulla has purchased a new car.

Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Harris of near Siler City and Byron Hayworth of High Point were dinner guests of Mrs. Eliza and Miss Cora Edwards Sunday.

Miss Emma Ridge and Miss Beulah Rich of the Glensola school faculty were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ridge.

Mrs. Sybil Farlow of Randleman route 2 and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Nance and daughter, Rachel Lee, of Asheboro visited Mrs. Eliza Edwards Saturday.

Miss Lillie Bulla of New Jersey spent the past week in this section visiting relatives.

Harry Farlow has purchased a new car.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hoover of near Asheboro visited at Mrs. Eliza Edwards Thursday.

Mrs. H. C. Auman visited Mrs. P. S. Boles Tuesday afternoon.

Mountain Missionary Will Speak Tuesday At Friends Church

Announcement is made by Rev. H. A. Parker, pastor of the Asheboro Friends church that J. Edward Ransome, missionary in the Tennessee mountains, who is making a tour of North Carolina mountains yearly, is scheduled to speak at the local Friends church Tuesday night, April 28th, at 7:30.

TWO MEN ARRESTED IN RANDOLPH ARE SENTENCED

Officer Lee Moore of the Asheboro night police force, returned Thursday from Salisbury where he attended federal court. On March 1st officer Moore and Lloyd Cagle arrested two men, Cleveland Peace and Earl O. Carter, in Asheboro for passing counterfeit money.

Babe 'Benched' at Opening Game

BABE RUTH AND WIFE

An enthusiastic ovation from the crowd greeted Babe Ruth and his wife, above, when they attended the opening game between the Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers at New York Polo Grounds, the first opener in 20 years which the Bambino has attended as a spectator.

Franklinville Citizen Receives National Honor And Prize In Hunter-Trader-Trapper Contest

Trappers From United States And Canada Compete In Contest Won By County Man; R. D. Garrison Suffers Injured Foot In Building Accident Thursday

Franklinville, April 23.—W. B. Moon of Franklinville received notice this week that he had won first prize, and $60 in a contest sponsored by the "Hunter-Trader-Trapper" magazine, published in Dayton, Ohio.

Evelyn Jones of this section is under doctor treatments for the bruises he received when the bicycle which he was riding was struck by a car.

R. D. Garrison suffered a badly bruised foot Thursday afternoon when a falling beam struck him as he was working on the Ramseyer theatre.

Asheboro Merchants Give McCrary Eagles Boost For First Game

Merchants and various places of business in and serving Asheboro have joined in a hearty send-off for the initial game of the season slated for Saturday afternoon at the Lindley field in Asheboro.

The superlatives of the seniors of Franklinville high school for 1936 are: most talented, Rachel Burrows; best sport, Frances Phillips; best dressed girl, Ava Curtis; best dressed boy, Leslie Thomas; prettiest girl, Ava Curtis; most handsome boy, John Bue; most popular girl, Frances Phillips; most popular boy, Dink Coward; neatest, Hilda Brady; most dignified, Vivian Wrenn; dumbest, John Bue; cutest girl, Joyce Hudson; cutest boy, Harold Paris; most pessimistic, John Bue; loudest, Hilda Brady; quietest, Leslie Thomas; funniest, Frances Phillips; most musical, Rachel Burrows; most daring, Harold Paris; politest girl, Lucille Ingold; politest boy, Leslie Thomas; biggest pest, Harold Paris; most athletic girl, Ava Curtis; most athletic boy, Dink Coward; teacher's pet, Rachel Burrows; most studious, Hilda Brady.

Beginners Day To Be Observed Today In Asheboro School

Summer Round-Up Of Local Children Who Will Enter School In The Fall

Entertainment Slated

Forms Have Been Sent Out To Many Children; Parents Urged To Cooperate

The Asheboro school is looking forward to its Beginners' Day program on Friday, April 24, at which time the school will have as its guests the pre-school children who will enter school next September.

In order to handle the crowds, the program for the day will be divided into two parts, and the pre-school children will be entertained in two groups which will be determined according to place of residence.

The program will consist of plays to be given at nine o'clock and one o'clock respectively. Ice cream will be served and the beginners will have the opportunity to visit in the first grade rooms.

WILSON MOTOR COMPANY MOVED TO NEW LOCATION

The Wilson Motor Company, agency for Oldsmobiles and Plymouth automobiles, has moved from the Ingram building on South Fayetteville street to the building on the old fair grounds on North Fayetteville street.

M SYSTEM UNDERGOES CHANGES THIS WEEK

The M System Store and Market building on Sunset avenue is undergoing renovations this week, with the market being taken from the east side of the building and placed in the main store for the greater convenience of the customers.

ROTARIANS TO ELECT NEW OFFICERS TODAY

Annual election of officers will take place at the weekly meeting of the Rotary club Friday at noon in the dining hall of the M. P. church. No program has been planned for the occasion.

Excitement At Ramseyer Of Varied Types Results In Death And Near Tragedy

Royal War Nurse

PRINCESS MARIE This first portrait of the wife of Italy's crown prince, the former Princess Marie Jose of Belgium, sister of the present king of Belgium, was taken in Rome just before she departed for the Italo-Ethiopian front for hospital duty.

Andy Marley, Young Colored Man, Is Victim Of Cave-In Accident On Streets

Suicide Occurs In Barn Near Ramseyer

Riggs Up Shotgun With String To Make Certain Of Death When Trigger Snaps

Ramseyer, April 23.—Excitement reigned for a half hour on Liberty street Wednesday afternoon when Andy Marley, young colored man of the community, was buried in the ditch now being dug for the local waterworks project.

Other workmen came to his rescue immediately and extra help worked as rapidly as possible but it caused considerable excitement in the town while the recovery process was in motion.

Excitement flared again in Ramseyer Wednesday afternoon when Ernest Godfrey, 18, shot himself in a barn some two miles east of Ramseyer. Godfrey has not been well, but was at work and his act was entirely unexpected.

Randolph Women Included In Plans For Resettlement

Mrs. Huskins Spends Full Time With Rural Women Giving Every Consideration

Many Phases Touched

Home Management, Food, Clothing, Housing And Other Points Worked Out

(By MRS. MILDRED A. HUSKINS) The rural resettlement work in Randolph county does not exclude the women.

The Wilson Motor Company, agency for Oldsmobiles and Plymouth automobiles, has moved from the Ingram building on South Fayetteville street to the building on the old fair grounds on North Fayetteville street.

The home management plans are divided into four parts and are made in detail. The first consideration is given to preparing a balanced food budget. We base this on the average requirements which have been worked out by the state extension division in Raleigh.

Six-Year-Old Tots Need Attention To Tonsils And Teeth

Pre-school clinics were held Tuesday and Wednesday of this week in Franklinville and Balfour schools by Dr. George Sumner, county health doctor, and his assistant.

The examinations showed that most of the children were of normal weight, and had good vision, but that a good half needed their tonsils and teeth attended.

Of the twenty-two examined at Franklinville, only six were 10% or more overweight, but 14 had infected tonsils, and 11 had defective teeth.

At Balfour, of the ten examined, 5 needed to have their tonsils out, and 6 needed dental attention. Only 20% were underweight.

Attend P. T. A. Meeting Mrs. E. L. Hedrick and Mrs. L. F. Ross of Asheboro, and Mrs. J. T. Bue of Franklinville, returned Thursday from the state P. T. A. convention in Raleigh.

Delegates To Presbyterial

Among the Asheboro people who attended the Orange Presbyterial held at Chapel Hill Tuesday and Wednesday of this week were Mrs. Charles Fox, Mrs. Kemp Alexander, Mrs. L. E. Mills, Mrs. Harris Burkhead and Mrs. James Neely.

ROTARY MINSTREL-MELODRAMA NOW IN ACTIVE REHEARSAL

The minstrel-melodrama which will be presented by the Asheboro Rotary club the first week in May, is now in active rehearsal. The play will be entirely staged by home talent and was written and will be presented for the benefit of the crippled children's clinic, sponsored by the Rotarians.

Excitement flared again in Ramseyer Wednesday afternoon when Ernest Godfrey, 18, shot himself in a barn some two miles east of Ramseyer. Godfrey has not been well, but was at work and his act was entirely unexpected.

The waterworks project continues to go forward, but slowly, due to weather conditions at intervals. The work on Liberty street, that was hoped to have been completed by this time, will not be finished for another week.

Dr. C. S. Tate continues very ill at his home on Liberty street.

Dr. S. G. Gordon Is Speaker At Kiwanis Meeting Tuesday Eve

A number of preachers of the county were guests of the Kiwanis club at a dinner Tuesday evening in the dining hall of the First Methodist church.

The main feature of the program was a short talk by Dr. S. T. Gordon, who used as his subject the life of A. J. Cashatt, one time president of the Pennsylvania railroad system. Dr. Gordon was introduced by Dr. C. G. Smith.

Besides Rev. H. P. Powell, Rev. N. M. Harrison and Rev. L. R. O'Brian, who are members of the club, there were present Rev. Odell Brown, Asheboro circuit, M. E.; Rev. T. W. Williams, Trinity, M. E.; Dr. S. W. Taylor, Asheboro M. P.; Dr. C. G. Smith, Asheboro, Presbyterian; Rev. O. P. Dix, Balfour, Baptist; and Rev. H. A. Parker, Asheboro, Friends. The club plans to entertain the preachers of the county annually.

I. C. Moser and Dr. R. P. Sikes introduced their wives as their guests, and Rufus Hill presented Will Lamb as his guest. Mrs. L. R. O'Brian was guest of her husband, and played the piano for the Kiwanis songs.

On motion of I. C. Moser, it was decided that the Kiwanis Club would meet in joint session with the Funeral Directors who are to be in convention here May 19th and 20th. After I. C. Moser had made a short talk to the visitors concerning the ideals and aims of the Kiwanis Club, the meeting was closed.

ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE AT UNION CHURCH

Annual memorial service will be observed at Union Baptist church Sunday, May 3rd. A number of people from Asheboro, High Point and Greensboro return every year for these services. Several outstanding speakers will appear on the program arranged by Rev. J. C. Kidd, and dinner will be served on the grounds. All who have relatives and friends buried there are invited to attend the all day services.

UNUSUAL WEATHER CALLS FOR WINTER COATS

Some of the coldest April weather Asheboro has felt in a number of years has called forth top coats here this week. Saturday morning, April 18 there was a heavy frost, and the thermometer read 33 degrees. It was equally cold Sunday, and there was a light frost Monday and Tuesday morning. Wednesday at 11 o'clock it was down to 45 degrees, with a low reading for the day of 42 degrees. Rain Wednesday registered .08 inches.

Greensboro College Glee Club Will Appear In Sacred Concert Locally

The widely known Greensboro college Glee Club, under the direction of Walter E. Vassar, noted baritone and head of the voice department at the college, will appear here in a concert Sunday, April 26, at the First Methodist church at Asheboro.

The personnel of the glee club is as follows: sopranos—Misses Bess Breedlove, of Durham; Polly Brewster, of Cedar town, Ga.; Mary Lucille Pegram, Winston-Salem; Dorothy Livengood, Greensboro; Nancy Gregson, Siler City; Kathleen McIver, Burlington; Polly Moser, Winston-Salem; Cornelia Edens, Rowland; Mary Louise Thacker, Greensboro; Fattie Sue Hipps, High Point; Dorothy Dees, Fremont; Nellie Alexander, Colesmead, Adams; Virginia North Wilkesboro; Virginia Smith, Greensboro; and Martha Martin, Greensboro.

Second sopranos—Misses Margaret Godwin, New Bern; Helen Hicky, Burlington; Eleanor Hearson, Marshville; Jerry Foy, Scotts Hill; Sallie Cahill, Winston-Salem; Eileen Singleton, Red Springs; Elizabeth Dollinger, Stanley; Vivian Branson, Canton; Mary Ruth Yelton, Gold Hill; Nancy Phipps, Independence, Va.; and June Parker Wren, Siler City.

Altos—Misses Mary Lois Moser, Winston-Salem; Martha Moores, Glen Alpine; Jane Whicker, North Wilkesboro; Elizabeth Mendenhall, Winston-Salem; Nancy Byrd Miles, Greensboro; Carolyn Melton, Hamptonville; Nancy Page, Trenton; Pearl Lautares, Greenville; Louise Parry, Rocky Mount; Evelyn Troxier, Greensboro; Alma Cade, Wilmington; Mary Frances Moore, Greensboro; and Nancy Pugh, also of Greensboro.