The Bravest Battle

JOAQUIN MILLER

The bravest battle that ever was fought!
Shall I tell you where and when?
On the maps of the world you will find it not—
'Twas fought by the mothers of men.

Nay, not with the cannon or battle shot,
With a sword or nobler pen;
Nay, not with eloquent words or thought
From mouths of wonderful men!

But deep in a welled-up woman's heart—
A woman that would not yield;
But bravely, silently her heart—
Lo, there is that battlefield!

No marshaling troop, no bivouac song,
No banner to gleam and wave;
But, O! these battles they lasted so long—
From babyhood to the grave.

Yet faithful, still as a bridge of stars,
She fights in her walled-up town—
Fights on and on in the endless wars,
Then silent, unseen, goes down.

O ye with banners and battle-shot,
And soldiers to shout and praise,
I tell you the kinliest victories fought
Are fought in these silent ways.

O spotless woman in a world of shame,
With splendid and silent scorn,
Go back to God as white as you came—
The kinliest warrior born.
