Lady Took Cardui When Weak, Nervous

"I can't say enough for Cardui if I talked all day," enthusiastically writes Mrs. L. H. Caldwell, of Statesville, N. C. "I have used Cardui at intervals for twenty-five years," she adds. "My trouble in the beginning was weakness and nervousness. I read of Cardui in a newspaper and decided right then to try it. It seemed before I had taken half a bottle of Cardui I was stronger and was soon up and around."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Celebrates Birthday

KATE SMITH, WITH FAN MAIL

Fan mail has piled high since Kate Smith announced that she would celebrate her birthday on May 4th. A & P managers, for whom she sings on a "Coffee-Time" program every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 7:30 o'clock, will be her hosts. Ted Collins, her announcer-manager and Jack Miller and his orchestra are among those present. Kate Smith's history started 27 years ago in Greenville, Va., spending her childhood days in Washington. Her voice, round, mellow and sweet, may not be so nightly cultivated, but it has appeal to many radio fans who will be interested in listening to her program today.

CERTIFIED SEED CORN DISTRIBUTED TO CLUBS

Wilson, May 4.—Certified seed corn of the Jarvis Golden variety was distributed to four corn club members in Wilson county last week and will be used to produce certified seed for distribution to other club members next year reports assistant county agent J. A. Marsh. W. T. Boyette, Jr., Herman Hinton, William Bass and Jennings Raper are the 4-H club boys who will plant this seed. Marsh also reports that 300 blood tested baby chicks have been delivered to Hugh Bass of the Lucama 4-H club. These chicks have been placed in a brooder and are being fed the growing mash recommended by the poultry department at State college, he says.
