BUSINESS CIRCLE OF M. E. CHURCH MEETS

The Young Business Woman's Circle of the M. E. church met Tuesday evening with Miss Ruth Anderson on Kivett street. Miss Helen Thompson was in charge of the program.

Plans were made for the young people's meeting at the Methodist church this week-end, and a picnic was planned for Tuesday, May 19th. After the business was finished, the hostess served a salad course.

Asheboro Churches To Honor Mothers On Sunday Morning

pin flowers on all who attend. Arrangements have been made to transport all mothers to church, who might otherwise not be able to attend. Rev. L. R. O'Brien will deliver a sermon on "Motherhood", and a special anthem, "Praise Ye The Lord," will be rendered by the choir.

Mother's Day will be observed at the Methodist Protestant church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, at which time Dr. S. W. Taylor will deliver a sermon on "A Mother's Wages". At this service four tokens will be given to mothers present as expressions of the congregations esteem and love of motherhood. The three oldest mothers present will receive gifts, and a fourth remembrance will be given to the youngest mother. Flowers will be provided at the entrance of the church for those who do not have them, and shut-in mothers will be remembered during the day.

Members of the Methodist Episcopal church will observe Mother's Day Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, at which time Rev. H. P. Powell will deliver a sermon on "A Mother's Influence". "Ave Maria", a violin solo, will be rendered by David Stedman, accompanied by Mrs. S. B. Stedman. A section of the church bulletin will be devoted to the memory of mothers of the church, and honoring the living mothers of members of the church. This bulletin is sponsored by circle six of the Woman's missionary society.

"Is It Well With The Child?" will be the title of the sermon which Dr. C. G. Smith will deliver Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church. Music appropriate to the occasion will be sung by the choir and the congregation. Recognition will be made of the mothers of the church, and tribute paid to them. At the evening service Dr. Smith will speak on "The Easy Yoke".

Rev. Mrs. J. B. Fulp of Pilgrim's Holiness church has planned a suitable Mother's Day program for that church Sunday morning. At the evening service, an evangelistic sermon will be preached by Rev. Theodore York of Gold Hill.

NOVEL CONTEST WILL BE HELD, RANDLEMAN

A Hen-Pecked Husband Contest, sponsored by the Worthwhile circle of Mt. Lebanon Methodist Protestant church, will be held at Randleman, starting Saturday, May 9th, and ending on May 16th.

Voting places will be held at the Economy Drug Store and the Randleman Drug Store, where the people of the section may cast their votes for the most likely prospects for the title of "hen-pecked". Proceeds from the contest will be used by the circle to assist in building Sunday school rooms for the church.

25th Anniversary Is Occasion For A Meeting Of Friends

Friends and relatives joined with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bulla in the observance of their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday at their home in North Asheboro. Appropriate remarks were made by Rev. D. C. Stone after which a beautiful dinner was spread on the lawn.

Several came to intermingle in fellowship with this couple who have contributed much to the civic and religious life of the North Asheboro community. A beautiful flower, presented by friends, adorned the table as a token of the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Bulla are held.

Mr. and Mrs. Bulla are life-long residents of Randolph county. Mrs. Bulla was before her marriage, Miss Hattie Hodge.

Committees Named For Mission Group At Meeting Monday

New officers for the coming year were elected at the meeting Tuesday of the Margaret Parker Missionary Society of the Asheboro Friends church which was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Edwards on Pershing street.

Mrs. H. A. Parker was named president; Miss Avis Stout, vice president; Mrs. Ernest Edwards, secretary and treasurer; Miss Jesse Nance, assistant secretary and treasurer; and Mrs. C. L. Thomas, reporter.

Mrs. Orva Brown will head the work committee; Miss Pauline Steed, the flower committee; and Miss Ruth Way and Miss Iris Stout will be in charge of the programs.

Attending the missionary conference at Cane Creek on Thursday were Mrs. H. A. Parker, Mrs. Orva Brown, Mrs. Beulah Johnson and Miss Avis Stout. They told of the splendid work being done by the societies.

A letter written by Lola Thornburg, missionary in Sorata, Bolivia, was read by Mrs. Parker, telling of the living conditions of the Bolivian people, and of the good work done there by the missionaries.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the hostess served refreshments. The missionary society will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Orva Brown.

Philathea Class To Entertain Mothers On Friday Evening

Mothers will be honor guests when the Philathea class of the Methodist Protestant church entertains Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the social room of the church.

Miss Esther Ross will introduce the guests, and give a short talk on the origin of Mother's Day. Mrs. Earl Henley will give a poem, "Mother's Excuses", and Miss Bertha Presnell will recite another poem, "Wonderful Woman."

Conversation, group songs and hymns will be enjoyed. While refreshments are being served, Miss Thyra Wright will recite "Roses, Home and Mother," to music.

A story, "The Most Beautiful Thing In The World," will be told by Miss Enolia Presnell. The meeting will close with a prayer.

Vacation School Conference

There will be a conference at the Asheboro Baptist church Sunday, May 10th, at 2:30 o'clock p. m. in the interest of the vacation Bible schools in the Randolph Association. Mrs. A. V. Washburn, Raleigh, state approved worker, will be with us. All the pastors, superintendents of Sunday schools and teachers in the Randolph Association are urged and expected to be present, as it is hoped that a vacation school will be held during the summer in each church in the association.
