Supreme Court Issue To Come Before Congress For Discussion March 9

Capitol Hill To Begin Debating

Receive Notice On Monday That They May Be Ready For Important Issue

Vote On Another Court Issue Over

Subject Bobs Up Incidentally During Agriculture Debate On Monday

The widely discussed Supreme Court issue is slated to come up for vote in the halls of congress on March 9th. Capitol Hill received the notice Monday that the intensive phase of President Roosevelt's court reorganization proposal would begin on that date.

Supporters of the presidential proposal succeeded in getting the senate judiciary committee to set that date for the beginning of hearings on the program to empower the President to name one new justice to the Federal court for each justice over 70 who refuses to retire.

The committee acted without a record vote after rejecting motions that hearings be postponed until March 15 or 21. Chairman Ashurst, Democrat of Arizona, said Attorney General Cummings probably would be the first witness.

By a vote of 13 to 5, the committee directed a favorable report on another court measure, which is supplementary to the presidential program but which is comparatively non-controversial. It is the long-pending Summers bill to permit the retirement of Supreme Court justices at full pay upon reaching 70 years of age. Already passed by the house, it now will go to the senate floor.

Meanwhile, the subject of re-vamping the Supreme Court bobbled up incidentally at a White House conference, in which Mr. Roosevelt discussed his agricultural program with leaders of farm organizations. It was mentioned, participants said, as one of the things that must be borne in mind in shaping farm proposals.

Other developments: Senator Burke, Democrat of Nebraska, an avowed opponent of the president's bill to name new Supreme Court justices, asserted in a radio speech that "the independence of the judiciary is undergoing the most insidious attack since the constitution was written." He asked that the youth of the nation rally to the opposition.

Senator Barkley, Democrat of Kentucky, a supporter of the bill, said tonight in a broadcast address to the Federal Bar association that the Federal courts have "sought to find technical and obstructive ways to prevent the exercise of the power of the national government in a field where it must be exclusive."

Speaker Bankhead told a press conference the senate should act first on the President's bill. Because the senate has the responsibility of approving appointments to the federal bench, he said, it has a deeper interest in the legislation.

Representative Rogers, Republican of Massachusetts, introduced legislation required that all men appointed to the Supreme Court be native-born American citizens. Its passage would preclude the appointment of Senator Wagner, Democrat of New York, and Felix Frankfurter, both frequently mentioned as likely appointees.

Senator Neely, Democrat of West Virginia, announced his support of the presidential program, asserting that the "greatest danger" to the republic is "the dictatorship over the executive and legislative branches of the government which the Supreme Court has arrogated to itself."

The labor-sponsored Non-partisan league circularized its membership with an appeal for letters to members of congress urging approval of the White House program. The circular said: "The President is fighting in your interest. Don't go back on him now."

Carolina Students Home

Among the University of North Carolina students who were at home for the week-end were Jess Tyson, Jack Smith, Walter Bunch, Hal Walker, and Howard Fox.

Tax Bill Passes Senate On First Reading Monday

Amendments Offered In A Heated Four-Hour Debate On Senate Floor

Senators Warnings

Chain Filling Station Levy Would Tax Distributors For Each Pump

The North Carolina legislature opened a new week by the passage on the first reading, a revised revenue measure designed to raise approximately $76,000,000 during the next biennium.

Amendments adopted in a four-hour heated session raised the yield of the bill to the point where, with a $3,000,000 treasury surplus, it would match the appropriations measure, now awaiting senatorial action, said Senator Webb of Lenoir, finance chairman.

Opponents of a sales tax on prepared meals, with Webb among them, pushed a last minute drive to have the committee of the whole rescind its action of last week and exempt meals.

A motion by Senator Johnston of Buncombe to kill the Sparger amendment providing a meal tax was voted down 22-20 shortly after the committee had been asked by Senator Bell of Mecklenburg, appropriations chairman, to maintain a balanced budget.

"We will have to cut into the appropriations bill," warned Bell, "if you take this tax off meals. It would decrease the income by $750,000, I have been advised."

A proposal to levy a flat 2 percent sales tax without exemptions was not mentioned today as Senator Halstead of Camden, champion of the move, was appointed by Lieut. Gov. W. P. Horton to act as chairman of the committee-of-the-whole. Adoption of the lower tax, the group was told last week, would mean a yield of $1,250,000 less than the now adopted 3 percent levy with exemptions for nine "necessities of life."

The chain filling station levy would tax gasoline distributors $4 for each pump they fill in the state. The measure should raise $300,000 during the biennium, said A. J. Maxwell, commissioner of revenue.

Harold Ellis Is News Tip Winner

The winner of the News' Tip Contest for the period ending at press time today was in doubt right up to the last minute. Tips about different happenings came not only from Asheboro but from all over the county and it was finally decided that the best, and certainly the most unusual one, was coined by Harold Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ellis, of Millboro, concerning the theft of a piano from the Bethany M. P. church at Millboro.

Young Mr. Ellis is the winner of two tickets to see the "White Way Revels" on the stage with the picture "Roaming Lady" at the Carolina Theatre Wednesday or if he prefers he can wait until Thursday and see George Arliss in "The Last Gentleman" at the same theatre.

The next period will end at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon and the winner will be awarded the two tickets to see Robert Young and Ann Sothern in "Dangerous Number" at the Capitol Theatre, Friday or Saturday.

Mrs. R. L. Williams Dies In Guilford

Mrs. Robert Lee Williams, 55, of Greensboro, died Monday night in a Greensboro hospital of a cerebral hemorrhage. Mrs. Williams was born and reared in Randolph county, but had lived in Greensboro for about 25 years. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, and five sons.

JONES BROTHERS IN NEW YORK SHOPPING

Henry C. Jones, manager of the eight Jones stores, and Wiley Jones, manager of the Asheboro 1c to $5 store, left Sunday night for New York City where they will buy goods for the stores. They plan to make a somewhat shorter trip than usual this time because of the fact that they were so recently in New York buying goods for the Thomasville store addition.

Dr. Griffin Better
Dr. H. L. Griffin, who has been ill from flu at his home on Sunset avenue for several days, is considerably improved and will probably be out Wednesday.

Supreme Court Poll Is Now Widely Discussed In County

Randolph county, ever interested in politics and affairs of government, is surprisingly interested in the Supreme Court issue which will soon be debated in congress. The poll conducted by this newspaper and sponsored by the NEA Service, has met with widespread interest. Votes come in each mail and are brought into the office. Today's mail contained votes from Staley, Bennett, Farmer, Seagrave, Level Cross, Ramseur and several from the routes about Asheboro as well as the town itself. Other villages are represented in the total vote in today's paper, but these towns were represented in the morning mail.

The total now stands 112 for and 40 against in the Randolph county poll. The poll in the nation Monday night, according to the NEA report was 65,676 for and 126,941 against the President's plan for changing the present method. Additional figures will appear in the next issue of The Courier. Any person is invited to vote his or her sentiments concerning this national issue. Ballot on page 2.

Cage Tournament Begins This Week

Friday Is Opening Day For Randolph County Basketball Championship

Held In Asheboro

Practically Every High School In County Enters Boys And Girls Teams

The opening rounds of the Randolph County Basketball championship will get under way Friday night at 7:30 in the community gymnasium in Asheboro, when the Trinity and Farmer girls take the court. Other games on the first night's program are Randleman vs. Coleridge (boys) at 8:30 and Asheboro vs. Coleridge (girls) at 9:30.

This is the first time this event has ever been held in Asheboro, and preparations are being made to handle a large crowd. Practically every high school in the county is sending entries in both the boys and girls divisions, and they are all sure to have plenty of supporters.

Four teams in each section have been seeded and given a bye in the first round. The seeded boys' teams are Ramseur, Staley, Providence, and Franklinville; the girls' favorites are Randleman, Gray's Chapel, Seagrave, and Staley.

The first round will be continued Saturday with four games scheduled. At 7 o'clock there will be a girls' contest between Franklinville and Liberty, and at 8 the Liberty boys will take the floor against (Please turn to Page 3)

P-T. A. To Open Cafeteria Soon

Reid Hannah Is Chairman Of Committee Arranging For Cafeteria

In East School

P-T. A. Executive Committee Is Planning To Put On Book Carnival

At the executive committee meeting of the local P-T. A. Friday night, definite plans were made for immediate opening of a cafeteria at the Fayetteville street school. Reid Hannah, of the Old Hickory Cafe, is chairman of the committee under whose direction the cafeteria will operate. Space has been provided in the main building and the Home Economics department of the school will cooperate with the P-T. A. in the work of preparing and serving the food. The project will start on a small scale, and will expand as demand for service is made and as space and facilities will permit.

To aid the pressing need for more reference books in the libraries of the two schools the executive committee voted to put on a "Book Carnival." A committee was appointed to work out the details of the carnival. The proceeds will be devoted to the purchase of supplementary school books.

The matter of P-T. A. membership and attendance at the monthly meetings was fully discussed. It was pointed out that the parents of all the children and friends of the local schools were eligible for membership, the annual dues being (Please turn to Page 2)

Clarence Coward, E. C. Graves and Fred Wilson enjoyed a birthday dinner Sunday evening at Cedar Falls, given in honor of Miss Frances Phillips.

Third Zone W. M. S. To Meet March 3rd

Ramseur, Feb. 23.—Zone three of the Greensboro district W. M. S. will meet Wednesday, March 3rd at the Ramseur M. E. church in an all-day session. All members of the zone are urged to attend this meeting. A program is being arranged that will be of interest and profit to the members and to the work. The Women's Missionary Societies of Franklinville and Ramseur will be hostesses at this meeting.

Courier Subscriptions Count On Double Votes And Extra Prizes Also

Extensions Will Mean More Votes

Special attention of Campaign Workers is called to the great importance of extension subscriptions at this time in the Cash Offer Campaign. An extension is a second payment from a subscriber who has previously given a subscription to any of the workers in the campaign. A one year subscription under this week's vote scale counts 10,000 votes, whereas a one year subscription extended to two years from first period by the collection of another one year payment entitles the worker to 25,000 votes a gain of 15,000 votes for the same amount of money.

Thousands and thousands of extra votes were gained on last week's work by the campaign workers who were making a special effort to get extensions. Those workers who have failed to work on extension subscriptions should take warning now and get busy on this means of piling up more winning votes now during the Great Extra Prize Offer—More votes can be gained on less amounts of money by getting these extensions in now.

Extra Cash Prize No. 1
For this week only—$25.00 in cash will be awarded the worker who turns in the largest amount of money for subscriptions to The Courier from Monday, February 22nd, to Saturday night, February 27th, a period of ONE week.

Extra Cash Prize No. 2
For this week and next week only $50.00 in cash will be awarded to the worker who turns in the largest amount of money for subscriptions to The Courier from Monday, February 22nd, to Saturday night, March 6th, a period of TWO weeks.

The members are plunging into the fray with all the energy at their command. Excitement has attained the highest point yet witnessed in the great race. Every member in the list except two or three is manifesting every effort that could be expected trying to win the extra $75.00 Cash Prizes.

New Interest
Members who, up to a week or so ago, had displayed only a casual interest in the race, realize that their chances of winning the big awards are as good as any other members. The fact that just the subscriptions that are turned in this present week count to apply upon the $25.00 extra prize this week and $50.00 for the two weeks, gives each and every member in the list exactly the same opportunity to own it. This, in itself, is creating unbounded enthusiasm.

Such stirring scenes, with eager campaign members, and their friends as well, thrilling with the sport of conquest seldom have had their equal in the history of newspaper circulation campaigns in this section of the state.

To further encourage the members to exert themselves this week to the utmost, all subscriptions, new or old, will count Double Votes. See the point. The same subscriptions which win the EXTRA cash prizes will also apply on the double votes which in turn will be the deciding factor in the winning of the cash awards at the end of the campaign.

Extension Subscriptions
"Second payments," or extension subscriptions, that is, a further payment by some one who has already subscribed for a definite length of time during the campaign, will be credited back under the extra vote offer under which the first payments were made, thus allowing a big advantage in votes and each member is advised to get as many of them as possible.

Candidates: Special Notice
Candidates are requested to mark extensions when they turn in the subscriptions, otherwise campaign department will not be responsible for the additional votes that the extension subscriptions carry.

It may be truly said that the real campaign is just beginning, judging by the enthusiasm being demonstrated by the campaign members lately. One and all seem to have taken a fresh stock in their prospects and are more fully determined now to finish higher in the list than ever before. Again the public is lending its support in a commendable way and urging the workers on to greater achievement. This increased activity indicates an exceptionally active week in each of the sections. The "new" members will "bear down" as never before on subscriptions this week. Win the extra Cash Prize this week—win double votes this week—win the $600.00 at the end.

Wreck North Of Town Kills One

Kelly Latham, World War Veteran From Biscoe, Dies In Randolph Hospital

Car Demolished

Ford V-8 Crashes Into Oil Truck Monday Afternoon Near Clarence Hughes'

One man was killed while his companion escaped with minor bruises and cuts as their Ford V-8 coupe crashed into a oil truck on a curve north of Asheboro, near the Clarence Hughes' home at 3:30 Monday afternoon.

The driver of the Ford, Kelly Latham of Biscoe, received compound fractures of both legs, a crushed chest, and internal injuries, and died in the Randolph hospital within 20 minutes of the time the accident occurred. Latham, a World War veteran from Eastern Carolina originally, was from the CCC camp at Troy, as was the other occupant of the wrecked car, N. C. Canterbury, who was treated at the hospital and left immediately.

The driver of the truck, V. V. Baker of Winston-Salem, was not hurt, nor was his truck seriously damaged. The Ford was a complete wreck, the whole front end being demolished.

Sheriff C. E. King investigated, but said this morning that the exact cause of the wreck was in doubt. It is believed that Latham was traveling at a high rate of speed and failed to make the curve.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the chapel of the Pugh Funeral home. Dr. S. W. Taylor will officiate. Burial will follow in the Asheboro cemetery.

New Dress Shop Opens This Week

In a recent issue of this newspaper, a building edition, many new places of business and homes were named. Many of both have been, and are being, remodeled. Since that issue, within the current week, a new place of business has been announced for Asheboro—this a dress shop which will be opened this week. Using the former home of Grimes and Hollingsworth, local jewelers who have recently moved into new quarters, as a location, M. Friedman, a merchant of High Point, is opening a dress shop called Sally's. In this shop, Mr. Friedman plans to carry a full line of suits, dresses and hats for women and misses.

In High Point, Mr. Friedman operates the Fashion shop which is a popular ready-to-wear place of that city, and he plans to operate a similar place in Asheboro to meet the needs of the local women and girls.

Extra! Extra!

$75.00 IN Extra Cash Prizes!

Who will win the extra $75.00 Cash Prizes, has been the cry all week from the interested, eager Contestants and their friends. We are anxious to know who the winner or winners will be. Put forth every effort this week, as the $25.00 extra prize winner will have the better chance of the $50.00 extra prize and the $600.00 First Prize.

Seagrave Route 2 Leads Line-up This Week

Mrs. Charles Luck, Seagrave, route 2, has gained the lead in the line-up this week. Miss Doris King and Harmon Hastings, are second, with Mrs. Walter Yow, Mrs. Lula Routh Jones and Mrs. John Cameron tied for a close third.

With the unusual extra cash prizes to work for this week and next, anyone may gain that coveted first place by next week. Many had good chance to win the $600 award: It is truly anybody's race in the short time left of this great campaign.
