

WOMEN'S PAGE

Weddings, Parties and Personals. Phone 144

Personals

C. F. Floyd of Trinity route 2, was in Asheboro Thursday on business.

W. C. Siler of Ramsour route 2, was in town for several hours this morning on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal V. Worth of Raleigh were guests of Mrs. Hal Worth and other relatives in Asheboro Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Birkhead have returned from New York city where Mr. Birkhead attended the sessions of the American Legion convention.

Two Hostess Join In Entertaining Ramsour S. S. Class

Miss Mary Carter Jones and Betty Joyce Jones were hostess to their Sunday School class at the regular monthly social Monday night at their home on Raleigh road. Many interesting games and contests were led by the hostesses. Mrs. H. M. Kivette, teacher of the class, winning a prize in a contest. The hostesses served a salad course with hot tea to the following guests, Misses Margaret Ann White, Verline Welch, Martha Nell Luther, Elsie Lee Caveness, Georgia Caveness, Treva Williams, Thelma Highfull and Mrs. H. M. Kivette.

Kemps Bring Flowers

Miss A. S. Kemp and brother, D. J. Kemp of Kemps Mill have been in Asheboro today. Miss Kemp brought some lovely dahlias of her growing. One especially beautiful dahlia in gold and orange, was named for Kipling's Omar.

Jimmy Walker Out

Jimmy Walker who underwent an operation several weeks ago at the Randolph hospital, is convalescing sufficiently to be out and plans to return to school next week.

Plan Fishing Trip

C. L. Cranford, Sulon B. Stedman, King Moore and Jess Scarborough plan to leave Sunday morning for eastern Carolina where they will fish for a week. These four men are among the town's best fishermen and plan for a week of pleasure in the open.

Attend Brother's Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Ray left Wednesday for Allendale, S. C., where they went to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ray's brother who died in Panama. The body was due to arrive in Allendale last night or this morning.

Trip Through Valley

Miss May McAlister is expected home Saturday from a week's motor trip through the Valley of Virginia. Miss McAlister was the traveling companion of Mrs. Henry Louis Smith of Greensboro and Mrs. Walter Lingle of Davidson College.

Rehearsals Are Going Well For Local Club Show

With rehearsals going strong both day and night, enthusiasm is running high about the snappy musical comedy "Glad Rags" that is being staged Tuesday and Wednesday nights, September 28 and 29 in the Capitol theatre. The Randolph Library club, which is composed of young attractive women, with their usual way of putting things over well are sponsoring this play to improve the library of Asheboro; and from all indications it looks as if "Glad Rags" is going to be a big success.

The interesting plot is being handled by a most capable cast of people who have been in productions of this kind before and are particularly talented. There are several peppy choruses composed of eight attractive high school girls that carry the dance routines for the show, also a chorus of about twenty-five wee little tots. There is a most colorful fashion show in the play, with ten of Asheboro's most charming girls attired in satin costumes that makes a beautiful setting.

There are two contests in connection with the play that are creating quite a lot of interest. In purely a sense of good sportsmanship there is a contest called the "Ugliest Man Contest," that is being handled by the ladies of the club. The winner will receive a box of cigars at the play Tuesday night. On Wednesday night there will be a baby contest, the winner will receive the loving cup that is on display at the Carolina Power and Light company. Each baby is sponsored by a Junior sponsor, and a prize is to be given to the winner.

The cast is as follows: Mrs. J. Frank McCrary, Mrs. Jos. D. Ross, Jr., Miss Madge Hobgood, Miss Cornelia Hedrick, Mrs. Everett Boling, Mrs. Harris Coffin, Mrs. Lawrence Sours, Miss Carrie Brittain, T. Linwood Smith, Wm. A. Underwood, Murray Field, Henry Redding. The models are: Miss Betsy Armfield, Miss Dee Armfield, Miss Florence Brittain, Mrs. Tiffany Barnes, Mrs. John Taylor, Miss Catherine Cranford, Miss Hayworth, Miss Ruth Wicker, and Miss Patty Knott. The chorus is as follows: Doris Cranford, Lorene Wood, Dorothy York, Maxine Cole, Mary Frances Betts, Annie Gail Ridge, Frances Ridge, and Clarence Cagle. The smaller chorus will be announced later.

The musical numbers for this play are very lyrical and the costumes very different and combined with the talent of the above members, "Glad Rags" should be a most successful play.

Dark Fur Trimming

Paris (AP)—Dark furs are being used to trim light coats this fall. Black astrakhan makes big revers for a coat in red raspberry wool worn over a black satin dress. Brown astrakhan trims a travel coat in beige tweed, and beaver a camel's hair sports coat. Patou trims a coat in his very greyed "armor" green, with dark brown sealskin.

Walker-Julian

Cedar Falls, Sept. 24.—A wedding of much interest was solemnized in the Baptist church, Dennyville, Saturday evening, September 18, at 8:30 o'clock when Miss Velna Floise-Julian became the bride of George William Walker. Rev. N. T. Jarius, pastor of the church, officiated, using the ring ceremony of the Baptist church. Only members of the families and a few intimate friends of the couple were present. Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Spencer Welborn of Cycle.

The bride was becomingly attired in a rust and brown woolen costume with brown accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of tallman roses and lilies of the valley. The bride had as matron of honor her sister, Mrs. Percy Roy Halthcock of Cedar Falls. Mr. Percy Halthcock acted as best man for the groom.

Wayside Garden Club Holds Meet With Mrs. Craven

The Wayside Garden club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. I. F. Craven as hostess. Mrs. C. A. Graham, president, presided over the business session. Mrs. A. W. Craven had charge of the program which was on "Berry-Bearing Shrubs and Vines", each member assisting her by bringing a spray of a shrub or vine and giving a brief description of it. The president urged that as many members as possible attend state garden school at Winston-Salem Oct. 20-22. New year books were distributed by the program committee.

Beta Club Names Officers and Takes Ten New Members

Ramsour, Sept. 23.—The Beta club of the local high school met Thursday night with its president, Joe Harris Marley, as host. This is an honorary club and the pupil has high standards to attain in order to become a member. The meeting was to initiate new members and to elect officers for the year. The following becoming full fledged members, Misses Frances Baldwin, Louise Martin, Mary Deane Brown, Mary Lois Rightsell, Maxine Burgess, Marie Beane, Mary Lee Craven, Beryl Grimes and Odell Cox and Hayden Ward. The old members assisting the host were, Miss Mary Carter Jones, secretary and treasurer; Misses Elsie Lee Caveness, Marie Brown, and Harold Ellis and J. W. Ward. Mrs. Leo Rich is the sponsor of the club. Delicious cream and cakes were served by the host's mother, Mrs. W. E. Marley.

Informal Party For Four Friends Of Year's Duration

Today at noon Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer had as her luncheon guests, Miss Nannie Bulla, who leaves soon for Atlanta for the winter with her sister, Mrs. Lura Bulla Brower; Mrs. Hal M. Worth and Miss Julia Thorns, all of Asheboro.

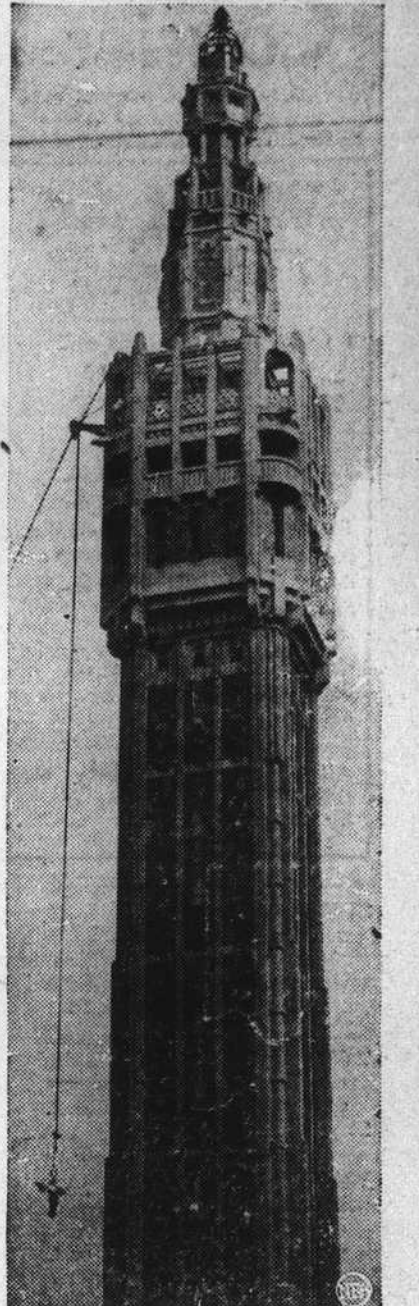

This was an informal Spend-the-day party of the four ladies whose friendship has been of years' duration, beginning in the days when Asheboro was a village and everybody knew his neighbor.

New England reports a boom in the boys' and girls' camp business. Enrollments this summer are from 5 to 40 per cent higher than in 1936.

Southampton, Eng., Sept. 23.—(AP)—General Evangeline Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, sailed today for a trip to the United States and Canada.

Washington, Sept. 23.—(AP)—War department sources today announced army field engineers had reported favorably on the proposed Lake Erie-Ohio river canal.

Acrobat Puts 'Teeth' in Act

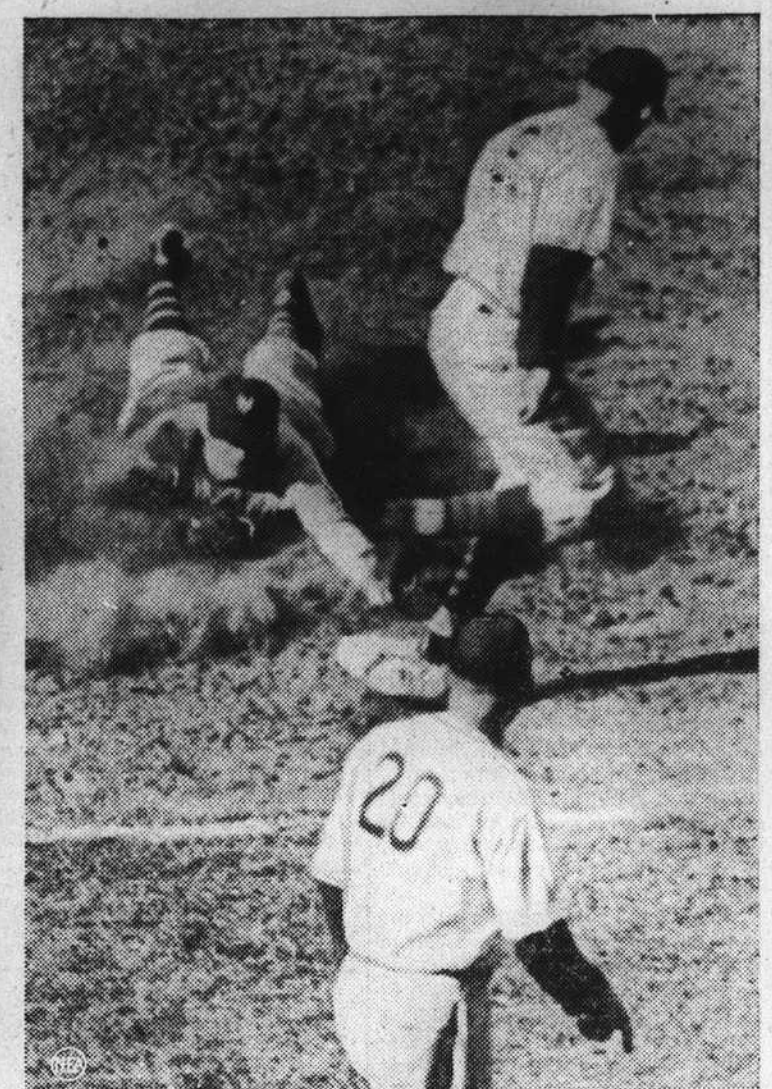

This must be what is meant when legislators speak of "an act with teeth in it." Certainly there were teeth in the act put on by the acrobat Frederick to thrill crowds at Lille, France. He holds on to the trapeze at lower left by his teeth as he is hauled 325 feet into the air.

Arabian Effect Smart in Hats

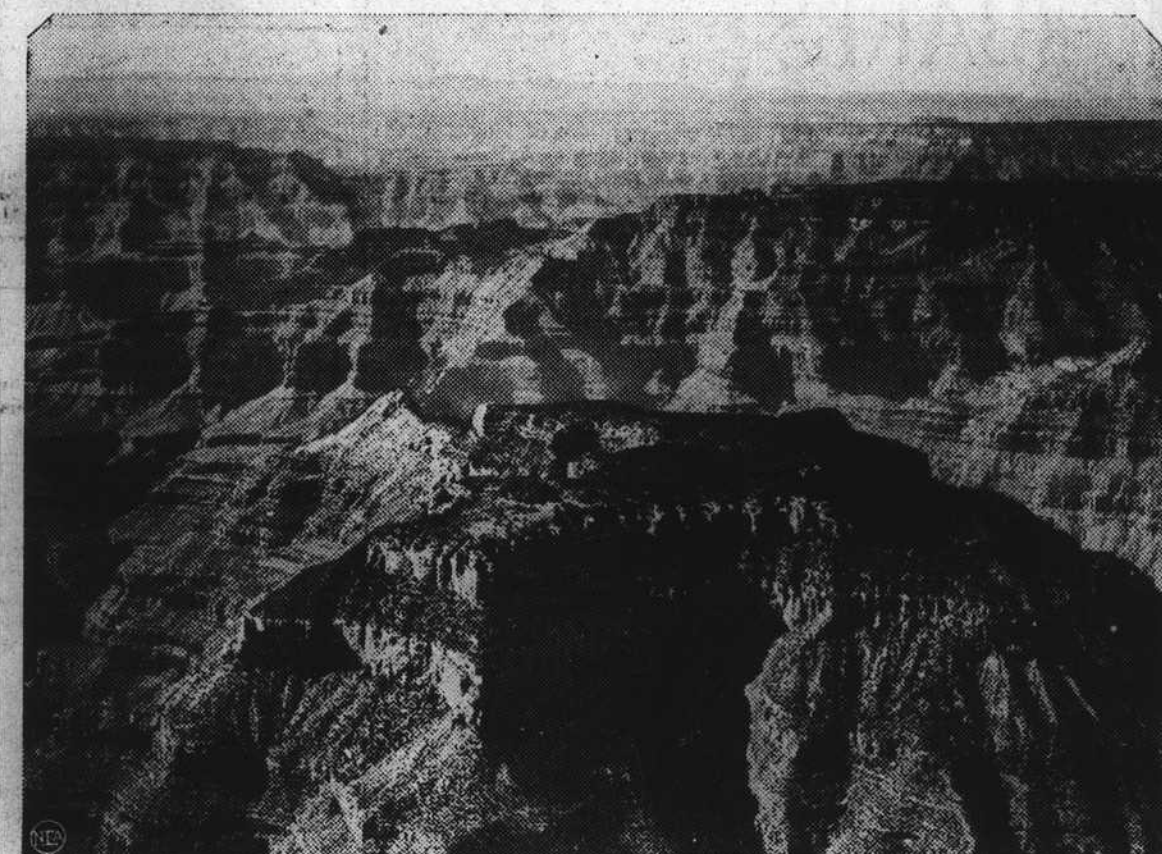

Not all the fashionables who went to the opening of Belmont Park wore tailored tweeds. Here's Mrs. Orson D. Munn in a suave wool dressmaker frock and a bonnet which is more like a headdress than a hat.

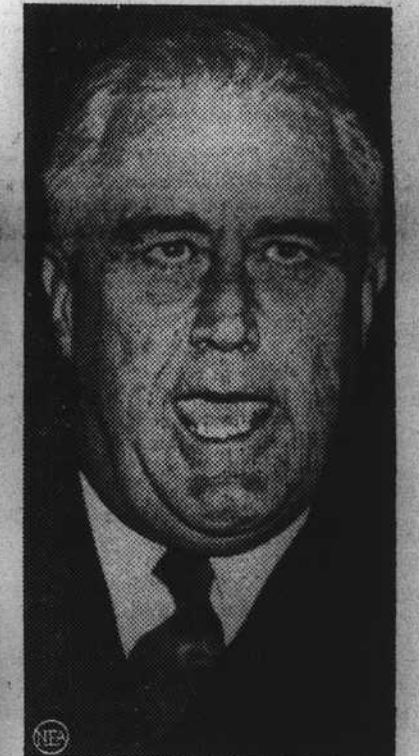

Cubs Battle Giants

The intensity of that Giant-Cub fight for National League leadership is clearly demonstrated here as Johnny McCarthy, New York first baseman, makes a daring headlong dive at the bag in a desperate attempt for the putout, but Frank Demaree, Chicago outfielder, thunders across the sack safely. That's Coach Roy Johnson of the Cubs in foreground. This picture was taken in the sixth inning of the first game of the crucial series between the two contenders.

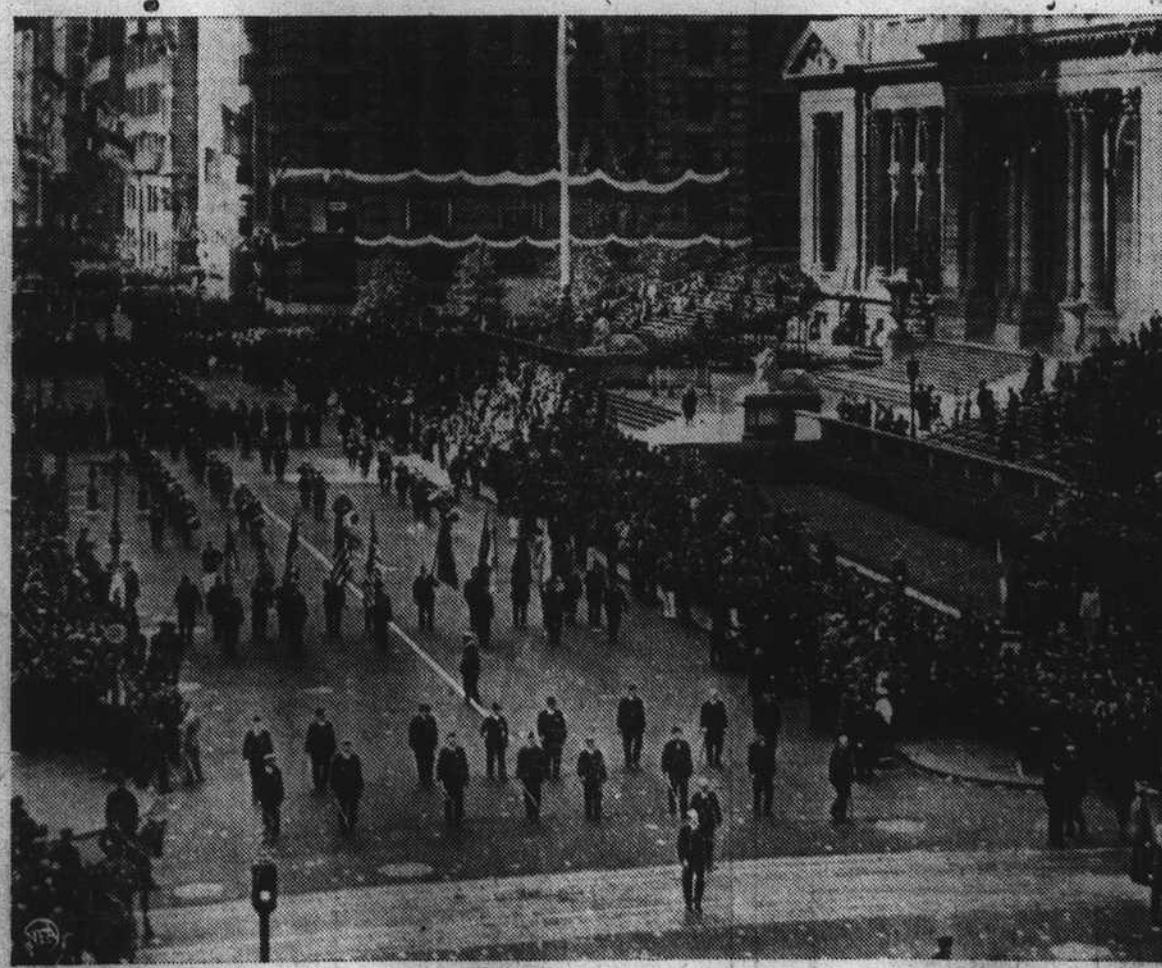

On this verdant island in the sky 4500 feet above the bottom of picturesque Grand Canyon, a party of scientists led by Dr. Harold E. Anthony of the American Museum of Natural History, searched for animal life which might show that the lofty temple was a "new world." This unusual aerial view shows at right the tortuous sandstone cliffs which it took five hours to ascend and seven hours to descend. Across the temple's heavily wooded terrain the scientists located their camp on the edge near the cleared spot in the center foreground. The first animals they trapped or shot all appeared related to specimens common to the vicinity. They found traces of other animal life but not animals.

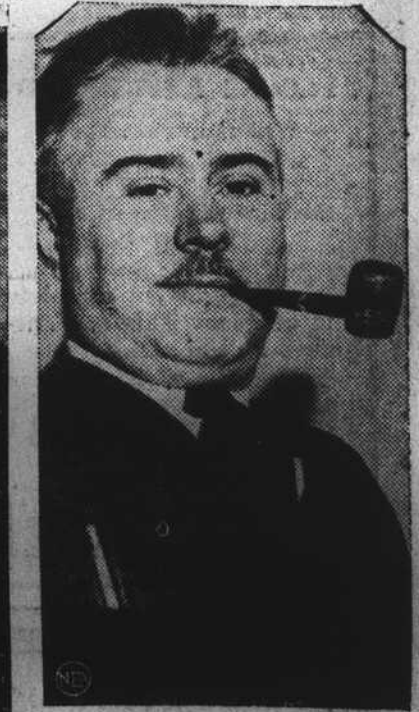

Defiant words ringing from his wide-open mouth, President Roosevelt is shown above carrying to the nation in a Constitution Day address from Washington his fight for Supreme Court co-operation with Congress and the chief executive. His speech was viewed as the opening shot in a campaign which he will carry on during a cross-country trip to Seattle through the home states of several senators who stoutly opposed his court reorganization program.

As Legionnaires Marched Up Fifth Avenue

The veterans of the American Expeditionary Force again march past the Public Library on Fifth Avenue in New York just as they did 18 years ago. The khaki has given way to the blue and gold of the American Legion uniform, rifles replaced by the crowds are just as thick and the scene, but little altered for New York's biggest of all parades, climaxing Legion convention activities.

The story of the year was broken by Ray Sprigle, veteran Pittsburgh reporter, who wrote the series of articles revealing Justice Hugo L. Black's connection with the Ku Klux Klan. Sprigle, now 51, has been a newspaperman all his life except for occasional brief dabblings in politics. Incidentally, by going to Alabama to dig up the Black story Sprigle lost a political fight of his own—he was defeated for the Republican nomination for justice of the peace of Moon township, near Pittsburgh.

No Fuss - No Bother to Open a Charge Account with us ...
AND REMEMBER THERE ARE NO ADDED CHARGES

Take a Year To Pay
Largest and finest selections of the world's most beautiful jewelry—on the easiest terms imaginable—cash prices on credit.

THE "MARCELLA"
Beautiful Center Diamond With Side Diamonds
$25.00
Unusual arrangement of side diamonds glorify the magnificent center diamond—mounting of white or yellow gold.
50c DOWN—50c WEEKLY

8 DIAMOND BRIDAL SET
$39.75
Fine genuine diamonds in the engagement ring and 5 in the wedding band—outstanding value for the June bride.
75c DOWN—75c WEEKLY

17-JEWEL BULOVA
$29.75
Newest 17-jewel Bulova "Goddess of Time", a complete selection in the new yellow gold—round and square styles. Very specially priced.
75c DOWN—75c WEEKLY

Baguette Sensation!
Exquisite baguette model at a new low price—case of modern design with matching bracelet. Fully mounted $14.95
45c DOWN—50c WEEKLY

NO INTEREST OR CARRYING CHARGES

ELGIN WATCHES
Your choice of Ladies' or Gents' model ... with matching bracelet
ONLY $27.50

NO INTEREST — NO EXTRA CHARGES
ROGERS
"ASHEBORO'S LEADING CREDIT JEWELERS"
Sunset Avenue Asheboro