State P. T. A. Officers to Join County Group in School of Instruction, October.

The annual P. T. A. school of instruction will be held in Asheboro on Thursday, October 14th, which has been set as a tentative date with a possibility of change if this date does not suit the state officers. It is the plan to have state and local officers present for the annual event which is said to be essential to all P. T. A. officials and of value to all members of that organization. A definite announcement as to the date will appear in this newspaper at a later date.

Mrs. W. L. Killen of Archdale, president and Mrs. E. S. Millsaps of Asheboro, vice president, urge all organizations in the county to plan to send delegates to this school of instruction. It is also requested that dues be sent in before the meeting as there will be some necessary expense connecting with the plans for the event. The dues have been raised this year from $1.00 to $1.50.

Supper will be served in the home economic rooms by that class from the Fayetteville street school, the auditorium of which is the place designated for the meeting.

Last fall, this school of instruction brought many P. T. A. officials from the state and from every organization in this county to meet with the local group and the meeting went down in history as one of the finest held in the state. Officers of the county urge each organization to plan for this event.

Hitler And Duce Meet; Thousands Cheer Leaders

Max Schmelling and Movie Stars Steal Part Of National Show.

Il Duce Pleased No Time For Politics; Attended Great Army Show Yesterday.

Munich, Germany, Sept. 26.—(AP)—The brown-shirted and the black-shirted of Germany and Italy had their first meeting in three years today and after demonstrations they were brothers under their shirts, moved on to Mecklenburg for a review of the German army.

Il Duce seemed pleased with the welcome accorded him by Adolph Hitler in this gaily decorated cheering city even though he may have missed the shouts of "Viva Il Duce" which have come to him from every crowd he has faced in 15 years.

Most of the shouting was for Hitler until Max Schmelling, brought here as part of the stage dressing for a display of 400 of the most beautiful stage and movie stars some of whom stole some of the show.

Italy's Il Duce and Hitler had little time for political talking but their followers disclosed they had managed to at least break the ice in a general way.

Ninth Annual N. C. Music Conference

Greensboro, Sept. 24.—October 15 and 16 have been announced as the dates for the Ninth Annual State Music Teachers' conference to be held at Woman's college, University of North Carolina. H. Hugh Altwater, dean of the school of music, is expecting a large attendance, of approximately 200 music supervisors, choral directors, band and orchestra directors, teachers of voice, piano, violin and other instruments.

Wade Brown, head of the department of music at Woman's college, the conference is held each fall as a prelude to the state music contest which comes in the spring. This contest, which brings about 5000 school children to Woman's college, after elimination contests in 16 districts, has become an event of national prominence in school music.

Three nationally famous musicians will be at the conference in October to conduct the music clinics: Edwin Hughes, distinguished concert pianist and teacher, of New York city; Max Krene, of Northwestern university, director of the famous A Capella Choir; and Frank Simon, conductor of the Armo Band, of radio fame, and past president of the Bandmaster's association.

Tribesmen Kill Italian Troops

Ethiopians Reported to Have Massacred Late Invaders Of Makale.

New York, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The Herald Tribune, in a copyright dispatch from London, said today it was learned from an unimpeachable source that "the entire Italian garrison and Italian civil population of the northern Ethiopian town of Makale, has been massacred by tribesmen."

Wade Brown, head of the department of music at Woman's college, the conference is held each fall as a prelude to the state music contest which comes in the spring. This contest, which brings about 5000 school children to Woman's college, after elimination contests in 16 districts, has become an event of national prominence in school music.

"The Makale slaughter," the Herald Tribune dispatch says "may partly explain the strange step of Italy in offering the democratic powers something for nothing; that is to say, the stoppage of Italian reinforcements to Spain."

"The conciliatory tone of Rome at present suggests that, above all, the government wishes to gain recognition of its Ethiopian conquest, and that very soon, before things get any worse in Africa."

Colored Citizen Visits Old Home

One of Randolph's best known colored citizens is a visitor in his home town this week. Dr. J. E. Brower, known to many of the older residents as "Emmons." This young colored man is a minister in the M. E. church, now pastor of the Berry Temple at Asheville. He also served as director of religious activities in the Allen Home school for colored girls, also located at Asheville.

Roosevelts Gay on Coast Trip

With the gay smile and the jaunty greeting that seemed quite undimmed by a long and disappointing Congressional session or the Black incident, the President, with Mrs. Roosevelt, sprinkled his best coast tour with platform appearances like this one. Apparently bent on getting the maximum relaxation out of the trip, both laughed and waved cheery greetings from the rear platform of the presidential special train.

To Great Sermons to Mark Close of Union Revival Meet

Four Weeks' Revival Services Close Tonight; Splendid Meeting; Good Results.

As the four-week union revival services close tonight, the tens on the rear of the Fayetteville street school building will doubtless be the center of attraction of many people who have enjoyed this series of meetings. According to each minister of the town, this union venture has been a decided success and the results most gratifying.

Rev. L. R. O'Brien, at the request of this newspaper, has prepared a splendid article which gives a true picture of the meeting.

"Today, September 26, we close our Union Evangelistic services under the splendid tent-tabernacle. There will be two great services today. One at 3 p. m. and the final service at 7:30. It will doubtless be necessary to arrive at the tent early, if you want a choice seat. Surely all genuine Christians in our splendid city, who can possibly do so, will avail themselves of the opportunity and blessings of these two closing services.

"For the past month our delightful people have been meeting and worshipping together from day to day as one great family. No one has ever heard sectarian, denominational or conventional lines mentioned. As one great, united, earnest Christian family, we have gone and sung, prayed, worshipped, and listened to the voice of God as it has come ringing in our hearts and ears from His servants, Dr. Geo. Wood Anderson, preaching and Dr. Louis S. Gaines who has led us in song. With what dignity, culture and spiritual refinement have they taken us to a throne of grace from day to day! We have, indeed, been 'sitting together in heavenly places.'"

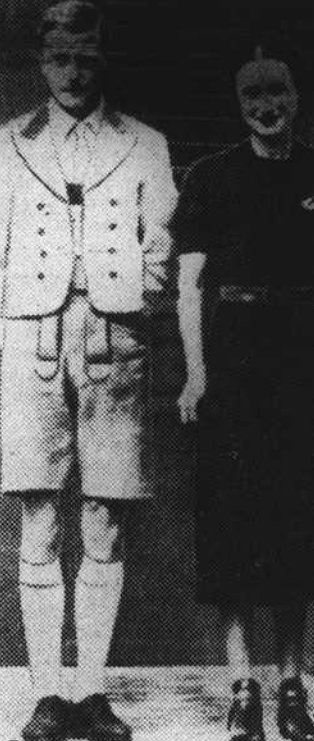

"And today, every church, every Christian, every friend and surely our dear unsaved ones, will be present to listen to these final messages from the very throne of grace. Every true and earnest evangelist comes to these last services with yearning, anxious hearts. Eternal destinies are being sealed. Heaven's portals are wide open to us and His choicest blessings are ours for the mere receiving. The city of Asheboro will rise to one of her highest spiritual levels today. We shall all pray that it may be so."

Farmer Citizens Rejoice Friday

Farmer residents will mark Friday, September 24th as a red-letter day! It was on this day that electricity was turned on in the town for the first time. The local Carolina Power and Light company has been working for several months on this line and the citizens of western Randolph have looked forward to the completion of the work with keen anticipation.

All the work is not completed, but the school building was finished first and the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Hubbard. The people of this quiet village in western Randolph where the Friends religion has long predominated, displayed considerable enthusiasm and staged quite a celebration over the event.

Two of Austria's "leading citizens," the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, were photographed above attending a folk festival near their Austrian estate in native costume. The duke's short trousers and below-the-knees stockings are reminiscent of the boyhood pictures taken of him 30 years ago. Notice the duchess' high-top shoes, held on by a strap fastening in back.

Roosevelt Visits Yellowstone Park

Mammoth Hot Springs, Yellowstone National Park, Sept. 25.—(AP)—President Roosevelt saw the breath-taking beauty of Yellowstone National Park in freezing weather today.

Making his first visit to the wonder-land of the Rocky Mountains, the President devoted the whole day to sightseeing. There were no speeches and politics were put aside while the Chief Executive and Mrs. Roosevelt took in the scenery.

The presidential party left the Seattle bound special train about 9:45 a. m. and drove in through the Theodore Roosevelt Arch.
