

To be preserved.

THE EVENING JOURNAL.

VOL. 2.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1889.

NO. 46.

Index to New Advertisements.
Christmas goods—J. H. Law.
Tennessee steers—Phillip McIntire.

Local Brevities.

In the mayor's court this morning two cases were tried, fines $9.50.
Signor Bosco's great gift show will open Monday night at Opera Hall.
The east bound train was 45 minutes late, the west bound on time today.

Mr. Walter J. White, traveling agent for an Atlanta printing ink house, is in the city.

Mr. Arthur Shaw, of Maryland, is in Asheville, where he will remain several days looking around.

E. A. Newland, traveling agent of the Chicago & Alton railroad, has moved in the building, No. 10 Patton avenue, up stairs.

Mr. W. A. Curtis, editor of the Franklin Press, paid us a visit this morning. He has gone to Marion, and will return Monday.

The first of the winter's season Germans was held at the rooms of the Asheville Club last night. It was under the management of several of Asheville's most popular young ladies. It was a very successful affair.

We call attention to the advertisement of Phillip McIntire's steers, found elsewhere on this page. He claims they are the very best he ever brought to Asheville. If the people of this city are not supplied with first class meat, the blame will not rest on Mr. McIntire.

It will be seen from a notice in these columns that the public spirited citizens of this city are going to extend an invitation to the burnt out shoe manufacturers of Lynn, Mass., to come and locate in Asheville. It will be considered in the public meeting in the court house next Monday night.

The Churches Tomorrow.

At the French Broad Baptist church usual services by the pastor tomorrow.

Usual services at the First Baptist Church by the pastor in the morning at 11 o'clock, and evening at 7:30 o'clock. Baptism, 7:15 p. m.

Divine worship tomorrow (Sabbath) at the First Presbyterian church, at 11 o'clock a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Rev. B. L. Agnew, D. D., of Philadelphia, will preach in the morning, and the pastor Rev. W. S. P. Bryan in the evening.

The following business houses are draped in mourning for Jefferson Davis: The Citizen, the Democrat, and the Evening Journal buildings; the mayors office; the National Bank of Asheville, the First National Bank, and the Western Carolina Bank buildings; Miss N. Labarte's millinery store; the Johnston building; and Pelham's new drug store on Patton avenue.

A Card From Capt. Patton.

EDITOR EVENING JOURNAL.
In my report of the memorial meeting last night, the name of one of the speakers was by some unaccountable accident omitted from those mentioned in this morning's Citizen. Please allow me to say through your columns that I regret this exceedingly, and that one of the very best speeches was made by Mr. H. A. Gudger.

Very Respectfully,
T. W. PATTON.

Join in the rush at Law's. Many are only looking, many are buying, all are welcome. The Basement Department is full of tables of 5, 10, 15, 20 and 25c. articles. Get my prices on Dolls, Toys, Children's Books, Christmas Books and Cards, and Japanese goods, before you buy. My store rooms cover nearly five thousand square feet, and every department is full.

J. H. LAW.

57, 59 & 61 S. Main st.

DAVIS MEMORIAL MEETING

COURT HOUSE THROUGH—SPEECHES AND RESOLUTIONS AS TRIBUTES TO THE DEAD EX-PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERACY.

For many weeks past the people of the whole land have been silently expecting the announcement of Jefferson Davis' death. When the court house bell in Asheville began tolling a little after four o'clock yesterday afternoon, at least two persons in the Journal office, and many others in the city, at once said: "Jefferson Davis is dead." With so much love and sympathy have we all been looking toward New Orleans, where the great sufferer lay, that it now seems we could, by a kind of intuition, feel the failing pulse beat its last, and the great heart stop its throbbing.

The bell was tolled till sundown, by order of Mayor Blanton, who also issued a call for a memorial meeting to convene in the court house at 8 p. m. The vigilant mayor caused his office and the front of the court house to be draped in mourning.

Before 8 o'clock last night the large court room was overflowing with the best people of the city who had gathered to pay their mournful tribute to Jefferson Davis.

On motion of Capt. T. W. Patton, Mayor Blanton was called to the chair, and, on motion of General Clingman, the representatives of the Asheville newspapers were requested to act as secretaries.

Mr. R. M. Furman, in a most appropriate manner introduced Gen. Clingman as the first speaker. The General took the stand and briefly spoke of Mr. Davis from his knowledge of him as a personal friend and co-worker in Congress.

At the close of this speech, Capt. Natl Atkinson offered the following appropriate tribute, which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Whereas, God, in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to call to Himself Jefferson Davis—so dear to every Southern heart—

Resolved, That in life he was an example of the highest type of the soldier, and statesman, and in his death is taught the ultimate and grand success of such a life.

Resolved, That we recognize and deeply deplore this great loss upon our entire Southland, and with grief and bruised hearts we bow in submission.

Resolved, That in the death of Jefferson Davis every true Southerner must experience sincere grief, and acknowledge and deplore the loss of the man in whom the hearts and affections of the Confederacy were entered and united.

Resolved, That his death stirs from their depth the devoted love of his old soldiers, who, in ever decreasing numbers, still hold dear the patriotism which he exhibited during the long years of struggle to establish the glorious, but lost cause.

Resolved, That his death should enable every true American to acknowledge the surpassing grandeur of his character as exemplified in the many manner in which he bore his misfortunes; "though reviled reviling not again," but setting a brilliant example, which, if followed, will tend quickly to the restoration of the welfare of his country.

Resolved, That the mayor and aldermen be requested to devote a page of the records of this city, upon which these resolutions shall be transcribed, and as sacred to the memory of the honored dead.

Resolved, That all Confederate soldiers be requested to wear a small badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That it is especially appropriate that this meeting of North Carolinians should commemorate the virtues of him whose last public utterance was a vindication of the old North State.

Resolved, That the mayor be requested to suggest to all business houses the propriety of closing during the hour appointed for the burial.

Resolved, That the following be adopted by this meeting as a suitable epitaph to

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

In his consistency without a peer,
In his honor impregnable,
In his courage invincible,
In his fortitude heroic, and
In his loyalty sublime,
No country ever had a truer son,
No cause a purer champion,
No downfall ever graced by nobler dignity.
He lived the personification and essence of Southern honor and chivalry, and in his death his life stands magnified.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Asheville papers, and an engrossed copy sent to Mrs. Davis.

During the pending of the resolutions (the following named gentlemen made short and touching addresses in honor of Mr. Davis:

Messrs. Atkinson, Sondley, Adams, McBrayer, Guder, Carter, Davidson, Gilmer, Stringfield, Patton, Carroll, Ray, Chester, Craig, Martin, Malone, Shuford, Baird, Reynolds, Whitson, Jones, Sawyer, Millard and Furman.

One of the most eloquent speeches was that made by Maj. W. H. Malone who, though a Republican, combatted the idea that the great cause of states rights, of which Mr. Davis was our greatest champion, was lost with the Confederacy. He said, also, that it was not simply at the South, and by the Southern people, but all over the nation and by the great majority of its people, that Mr. Davis was loved and honored. "In my judgment," said Mr. Malone, "Jefferson Davis was one of the greatest men our republic has produced."

WORKING MEN SPEAK.

NEW RAILROADS, BUT NO CONVICT LABOR.

It is gratifying to know that all classes of our citizens are waking up on the subject of the new railroads proposed for Buncombe county. We have been informed of new measures now under discussion by the mechanics and other laboring men of this city, in reference to the new railroads. They fully endorse the position taken in yesterday's issue of the Evening Journal, that the construction of these railroads should be under the direction of our own people; that the money voted by the county should not be turned over to outside syndicates; that the construction of the roads should be done by home mechanics and laborers; and that no convict labor should be used.

The workingmen are taking steps to unite with the alliance men of the county in these demands, and are preparing to make known the conditions on which they will vote for the appropriation of $100,000 for the new railroads.

Asheville and Buncombe county can furnish all the men needed, as well as $100,000, for the work of grading and timbering the eighty miles of railroad which it is proposed to construct in four sections of the county, crossing in Asheville.

It is perfectly right and proper that the taxpayers and working people of the county should speak out and make known their wishes, and have the stipulations above mentioned, defined in the conditions of the vote for the appropriation.

Superior Court.

The first case tried today was that of Callum Bros. vs. W. E. Pelham, the jury rendered a verdict for $36 and cost of action against the defendant.

The case in re will of Joseph Embler was called in the afternoon and was still pending at the time of going to press, and will probably occupy the whole of Monday next. Several cases were continued during the day.

All the Chinese laundries in New York city, about two thousand in number, have formed a trust, and will put up prices.

An Important Meeting Monday Night.

There will be a meeting of the citizens at the Court House, Monday night at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of taking some action in regard to the mass meeting to be held here on Tuesday, and also to take action in regard to inviting the shoe manufacturers of Lynn, Mass., (recently burned out and who desire to come South) to visit our city with a view of establishing their manufacturing here.

C. D. BLANTON, Mayor.
Geo. S. POWELL,
Pres't Board Trade.

The Y. M. C. A.

There will be a song service for men only at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., 26 Patton avenue, Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Immediate (y) after the song service the General Secretary, Mr. H. P. Andersen will teach an evangelistic bible class. Subject: "Am I my Brother's Keeper?" Gen. 4:9; Mark 19:42. All men are cordially invited.

The Concordia Society.

There was a good attendance at the second musicale of the Concordia society last night at Miss Davidson's. The program was as follows:
1. Piano, four hands.
2. Song, "It Came in the Merry May Love." Toste.
3. Flute and piano, "Fantasie from Robert le Diable." Meyer bere.
4. Piano, Mondscheinfahrt. Beedel.
5. Violin, Minuet. Schubert.
6. Piano Polonaise, in C Minor. Chopin.
7. Song, "Von Dir." Kummer.
8. Male Quartet, "Lovely Night." Chastal.
The next meeting of the society will be held at Mrs. Maitland's, No. 40 French Broad avenue, Friday, January 3d, to which all active and associate members are invited.

YANCEY COUNTY.

THE NEW RAILROAD MOVEMENT—WILL CO-OPERATE WITH BUNCOMBE.

BURNSVILLE, N. C., Dec. 2.
Hon. N. Atkinson, Asheville, N. C.:

Dear Sir,—The Board of Commissioners made an order today to submit to the voters the question of subscription to a railroad, and order the justices of the peace and request the citizens to meet at this place on the 14th instant to further consider the matter. I want you to come over on the 14th, or send your best man, without fail.

Very truly, etc., W. M. MOORE.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

They are talking of having a "birthday" celebration in Birmingham, Ala., next spring. The claim is that the city's phenomenal growth commenced in 1880, making it ten years old in 1890. It had a population of only 5,800 in 1871.

A man named Laird, at Battle Ground, Indiana, a short time ago went to a neighbor's hog pen, killed a fat porker, dressed it up in men's clothes, putting a hat on its head, and then placing it beside him in his buggy. But the trick was detected and he was arrested before he reached his own house.

Frank Taylor, of the vicinity of Booneville, Ark., who died a few days ago left among his effects a diagram showing the location of places where he had buried money twenty or thirty years ago. The executor found under the porch sill, in tin cans, $7,000 in gold, and at the corner of the wood house $3,000 in silver packed in glass jars.

The gallows erected for the execution of Simon Walker, convicted of a criminal assault on a young white girl, was put up for sale at Chesterfield C. H., Va., last week. The boy's sentence had been commuted by the governor, and there was no use for the gallows. It was "knocked down" to the sheriff at $375.

Burglars stole nearly $50,000 in bonds and other securities at the house of H. R. Stowell, at Athol, Mass., on Wednesday night, besides more than $1,000 in cash. Most of the stolen securities are negotiable.

The United States steamer Enterprise, now in English waters and under orders to come home, has been ordered by the navy department to proceed to Antwerp to receive the remains of ex-Mister Pendleton and convey them to the United States for burial.

Tennessee Steers.

Mr. Phillip McIntire has just returned from Tennessee with a car load of the finest four year old steers for beef ever brought into Asheville. This is a movement of the Western Dressed Beef Company, and shows that they buy their heaves at home, if they can find the kind they want. If you want real good beef, call at McIntire's Market. 71w

Wagons, Carts, Dolls, Doll Carriages at the "Big Racket Store."

Nice Rooms, Good Board, $3 to $5 per week, 179 South Main St., Miss Smith. d61w

Don't buy Christmas Goods until you have visited the "Big Racket Store."

Notice to Business Men and Clerks.

Five first class barbers at Big Six Barber shop. Call early on Saturday, get your shave and give the laboring men a chance. 53t T. J. SUMNER.

Oysters! Oysters!

Norfolk Oysters received daily at P. C. McIntire's meat market, 35 S. Main street, 35 and 50c. per qt. d2-1w L. Brown, Agt.

Huyler's Candies fresh every week by express, at Heston's, 56 S. Main street.

J. M. Heston is the only authorized agent for Huyler's Candies in Asheville. A special order has been sent in for the holiday trade. Heston's, 56 South Main st.

Fire Works, Toys and a nice line of Christmas goods at Heston's, 56 South Main street.

Remember Heston's is headquarters for Xmas Presents, Fine Candies, Fruits, etc., 56 South Main st.

Call on G. W. Jenkins, Grocer, 34 South Main street, for all kinds of common and fancy groceries, at lowest prices.

Fine Cabbages, Poultry, Butter, Eggs and other Country Produce at Jenkins', 34 South Main.

Banjo! Banjo!

Every person can play the Banjo. No knowledge of music required. A perfect tune the first lesson and each lesson thereafter. The wonderful popularity of the banjo, and the fresh, new method of teaching interest ladies and gentlemen everywhere.

A lady of musical talent, a practical teacher and player, will give instruction in her ORIGINAL shorthand method in Asheville. A perfect tone each lesson, and the music furnished. Price of instruction, 75 cents each lesson. Address n28 Music Wonder, City P. O.

The thrilling story of the life of J. A. Murrell—"The Murrell Clan" Evening Journal office, 10c.

Special Notice.
J. W. Schartle, the old reliable Merchant Tailor, No. 43 North Main street, has received a full line of English and Domestic Woollens, and is now prepared to make suits for $24 and upward. s2 3m

At the Hotels.

Battery Park—George A. Lowe, wife and daughter, Salt Lake City, Utah; John Driscoll, wife and daughter, W. Va.; T. O. Rogers, Philadelphia; A. Nelson, Jr., Baltimore; E. H. Phinney, Denver, Col.; Joe Kaha, Atlanta; Mrs. Ezra J. Wheeler, Miss Adnet, Chicago.

Grand Central—Henry J. Winters, W. F. Trogen, A. J. Shaw, Baltimore; A. H. Brown, Thomas M. Carter, T. C. Boshamer, Knoxville; W. White, Atlanta; W. A. Curtis, Franklin; J. W. L. Artour, Bryson City; J. R. Cowan, N. Y.; J. S. Bell, Brasstown; H. B. Hardy, Raleigh; R. Willard, Greenville, Ga.; A. L. Welsh, Bainbridge, N. Y.; R. N. Harrison, North Adams, Mass.; O. D. Anderson, Anderson, S. C.

J. S. Grant, Ph. G.

of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, Apothecary, 24 South Main St.

Prescriptions filled at all hours, night or day. Goods delivered free of charge to any part of the city.

The finest and most complete line of colognes, toilet waters, extracts, face powders and high grade soap at Grant's Pharmacy.

If you want a first class hair brush for a small amount of money, Grant's drug store is the place to get it.

Black Mountain Iron and Alum Mass has no superior for the cure of dyspepsia and indigestion. A truly wonderful remedy for chronic diseases. For sale only at Grant's Pharmacy.

A good shoulder brace is worth its weight in gold to any one inclined to be round shouldered. The Knickerbocker brace is the best in the world. Call at Grant's Pharmacy and examine them.

Buckwheat Blossom for the complexion, will remove tan and sunburn, pimples, red spots or blotches, and make your face and hands as soft as a baby's. Unlike most liquids it will positively benefit the skin, and is guaranteed to cure most skin blemishes.

Vava Tooth Wash. This is a superior article for cleansing the teeth, strengthening the gums and imparting fragrance to the breath.

A thoroughly reliable remedy for all blood diseases is Buncombe Sarsaparilla. Try a bottle and you will take no other.

For sale at
GRANT'S PHARMACY.

Prescriptions filled at all hours, night or day, and delivered to any part of the city. The night bell will be answered promptly.

J. S. GRANT, Ph. G. Chemist

Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting.

In connection with the Stove and Tinware business. We employ only the best workmen. Do guarantee work at reasonable prices. A car of the best Terra Cotta and Flue Pipe just received. Respectfully, 23 C. S. COOPER.

Railroad Tickets.

If a dollar or two, now and then, I help you in saving, what's the use of advertising, when example does the talking. Come and see the reductions and the manner of reducing. Low rates to all points.
W. M. CLARKE,
Railroad Ticket Broker,
Grand Central Hotel.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

I respectfully request all persons having friends of known intemperate habits and minors that they don't want intoxicating drinks sold to, to give me their names and I promise not to let them have any such drinks. Parties making this request will please send their names also.
Respectfully,
FRANK O'DONNELL,
Prop. Carolina Saloon.

For Rent.

Elegantly furnished rooms, delightful location, splendid view, high and dry, central; open grate in each room. For particulars, address n25 Lock Box 138, Asheville.

How's This!

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Props., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.
West & Traux, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, Ohio.
Walding, Kinnear & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, Ohio.
E. H. Van Hoesen, Cashier Toledo National Bank, Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price, 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

The Neville House.

Corner of Main and Eagle streets. Board with or without rooms. First class fare. Rates moderate. Location central. n19