Large Quantity of fruit on the market, prices high.

Services at all the churches at the usual hours this morning.

The tobacco season will probably open earlier this year than heretofore.

Regular services at the Methodist church this morning and tonight.

Col. R. D. Caldwell and wife, of Paris, Tenn., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Ray.

The public is anxious to hear from Billy Blater again. The blatter is still with Town Topics but Blly is not.

Capt. B. A. Newland has purchased property in Asheville, and will locate here. He and his estimable family will be welcomed to the society of the city.

Mr. J. A. Porter left yesterday for St. Louis, Mo., where he goes as a delegate to the Grand Encampment of the Knights Templars. His wife accompanies him. They will be absent about two weeks.

A small, but appreciative audiance witnessed the performance by the W. R. Ogden Comedy Co. at the Opera Hall, last night. The Company will play again tomorrow night and we predict a good house.

The Morning News states that a Charleston drummer who "put up" at the Scriven House, of Savannah, third story, on Wednesday night, requested the clerk to have him called ten minutes before the next shock.

Mr. P. D. Cooper, ex General Manager of the New York, Pa., and Ohio R. R., is stopping at the Eagle for a few days. Mr. Cooper reports Asheville as being the most comfortable place he has found in the South. Its great elevation, its pure mountain air and water, and freedom from mosquitoes, makes it an enchanting place for tourists. Mr. Cooper is saying a good deal for our city, as he is a gentleman who has traveled through every State in the Union. In reference to the Eagle, we are reminded that they have had a good run this season; a pleasant company of ladies, gentlemen and children all the summer. They still have quite a number who will remain late into next month.

The Convent School at Asheville.

Mother Augustine, Superiorness of the Sister of Mercy, and Sister Mary Baptist, directress of the Female Academy at Hickory will visit this city in a few days to inspect the site proposed for their new school.

I. N. Ebbs for Senator.

The democratic convention for this senatorial district, composed of Buncombe and Madison counties, met at Alexander yesterday and nominated Mr. I. N. Ebbs, of Madison county for the Senate.

Mr. Ebbs has served one term in the Senate from this district, and is a young man of acknowledged ability. Mr. Vandiver did not go before the convention.

The new flopdoodle organ says:—"If the Citizen has one characteristic which stands out more conspicuous than another it is its scrupulous regard for always stating the truth, and dealing fairly with all things."

Gee-wil-a-kins!

The Latest from Japan.

A new and beautiful line of Japanese ware just in at Law's. A larger and finer one than ever before. New goods in Silver, Cutlery, China, Art Pottery and Glass arriving faster than they can be opened. In a few days all the fall stock will be in. Don't wait for the Grand opening.

They Say.

That the ordinance passed by the board of city aldermen in reference to the Asheville Street railway, is a magnanimous act on the part of our city fathers.

That some capitalists will soon visit Asheville with a view of establishing an ice factory.

That the boom for Malone is growing all over the district and the great mogul of the party, the Honorable Thomas, is exceedingly nervous.

That it appears from the figures of last election, published in the ADVANCE, that the Honorable Thomas is not so much a favorite with the party as he thinks he is.

That the Macedonian cry, come over and help us, is to be raised in a few days, and that speakers are to be imported into this district to help pull the Honorable Thomas through.

That the county campaign will open about the 8th of October.

That the fraud perpetrated upon W. T. Reynolds at the recent convention will receive a just rebuke on election day.

That Ki and the General will soon begin to tell the people how their nominations were forced upon them by the democratic party in the face of their solemn protests.

That Ki and the General will have some knotty questions to face before the campaign is over.

That at Avery's creek in the campaign of 1884, the General pledged himself not to interfere with the then existing stock law for Buncombe county.

That Ki, when asked his position on the stock law question, said, "I take the same."

That a small delegation from Buncombe attended the senatorial convention at Alexander yesterday.

That the Honorable Tom has donated a Bible worth $10 to the Baptist church on Jonathan's creek.

That this is for campaign purposes, clearly, as the said Honorable Tom is a Methodist.

That the Citizen's wit and humor was mistaken some days ago for an earthquake.

That the disaster at Charleston was the result of manifold side shakings produced by said wit and humor.

That Bob is the funny man of all creation.

That Bob is the only surviving representative of the philosophy of fun.

That Adjutant General J. Jones is sorry he voted for prohibition.

That he voted that way for record's sake.

That Tom Johnston is mightily opposed to the revenue law.

That he done all he could to repeal the same.

That he voted for the boss revenuer of all in the person of Speaker Carlisle.

That for campaign purposes the said Tom characterized the revenue law as a very bad thing; that for congressional purposes, it was like the fellows dog, not so very fat after all.

That Adjutant General J. Jones was opposed to the White Man's organization, in its incipiency.

That when he saw it was a success he came over with the mighy sound of a flopdoodle.

That the funny organ, the Citizen, was also opposed to said organization, and published a letter which was an insult to the white people of Asheville.

The affidavits of citizens of Avery's Creek settle the question of General Jones' pledge not to interfere with the stock law.

That pledges or no pledges, Ki and the General passed the law.

That no matter who endorsed him, Reynolds will be the next Clerk of the Superior court.

That the wisest politician of this anno domini is the new fellow ahold of Town Topics.

That Frank Carter knew what he was about and thereby hangs a tail.

That Ki said in the Judicial county convention that he had always been a democrat.

That the said Ki never bolted.

That the said Ki was Secretary of a Grant Club in Madison in 1868 while W. W. Rollins was President of the same.

That the said Ki supported J. M. Gudger, flopdoodle, against Judge Avery, nominee for Solicitor in 1874.

ANOTHER FLOPDOODLE!

THE CITIZEN COMES OVER AND DENOUNCES CARLISLE,

Johnston's Ideal of a Statesman.

WHERE WILL THIS FLOPDOODLE BUSINESS END?

Add another flopdoodle to the list. The Citizen has flopped at last, and denounces Carlisle, Tom Johnston's favorite statesman. Read what the new flopdoodle organsays:

"Mr. Carlisle represents the whisky monopolists of Kentucky and Ohio, and Indiana and Illinois and Missouri and New York in the above declaration. These mighty concerns do not wish the federal tax to be repealed, because parties of small capital could then go into the business, and besides, if people are to drink or use tobacco, or rather will do it, they ought to have access to as pure an article as possible, and these smaller establishments would depend upon the purity of their products for reputation and sale. The removal of the internal taxation would not necessitate a high tariff duty upon the necessaries of life. Many things now taxed could and should be put on the free list, and those foreign made goods which ought to be taxed, with a reasonable tax would yield enough revenue for all the honest and economical purposes of the government.

We think Mr. Carlisle and the great whiskey ring of the State we have mentioned must and should be made to come back and into the old time democratic principles. And the sooner it is done the better for the country."

Mr. Carlisle, whom the Citizen admits has deserted the old time democratic principles, and is the bossee of the revenuers, was Tom Johnston's choice for speaker, so that he could pack the committee against the repeal of the internal revenue law. Oh, how mortified the Honorable Thomas will be when he learns that his trusted organ has flopped. When the cat is away the mice will play. Hurrah for the flopdoodles!

Hurrah for Macon!

Good news continues to come in from Macon country. We have heard from a large number of Democrats in the county who are enthusiastic. One received yesterday from a prominent democrat, concludes:

"Please send me as many of Major Malone's circulars as you can for distribution. The people are anxious to hear from him, as he is the first candidate for Congress we have had who comes out in favor of the farmers and laborers, and opposes the coryorations and capitalists who control legislation in their own favor, making themselves rich and the masses poor!

Supreme Court Reports.

An attorney who has examined the 94th volume of Supreme Court Reports gives us the the following information:

There were 352 opions or decisions filed by the court, in 163 of which the Superior court Judges were reversed, the other 188 decisions being upon motions for writs to dismiss or docket appeals and matters in which no review of a decision of the lower court was involved. In one case, Hughes vs Calvert, where the judgment of the lower court is confirmed, it do s not appear in the report from what county or district the case came or before what Superior court judge it was tried.

The following is the record of the judges in this volume of the reports:

Shepherd,	Affirmed 5,	Overruled 5
Phillips,	" 8,	" 5
Connor,	" 4,	" 0
Clark,	" 11,	" 8
Gilmer,	" 8,	" 8
Boykin,	" 1,	" 1
McRae,	" 9,	" 12
Montgomery,	" 6,	" 5
Graves,	" 3,	" 1
Avery,	" 16,	" 4
Shipp,	" 5,	" 7
Gudger,	" 6,	" 3
Mears,	" 3,	" 2
McKoy,	" 2,	" 2

Affirmed 91 overruled 69, showing the lower courts were sustained in 22 cases more than they were overruled in. This is a good record for the Superior court judges.

THE POLITICAL MUDDLE IN BUNCOMBE.

Personal and Political Position of Mr. Pearson.

TO THE PUBLIC:—I have been so much nominated and so variously endorsed of late, that a personal explanation seems necessary in order to lift the fog which is now nightly rising from the Citizen Office and settling in vapory banks upon the troubled political field.

There are two leading issues in the county campaign; one is purely local, the other is unfortunately and intensely personal. About one month ago Mr. H. A. Gudger approached me and stated that in view of the personal issues between himself and General Jones on the one hand, and myself on the other, and of the fact that the endersement of one side would mean the condemnation of the other, he thought it to be the duty of all three of us to stay out of this contest. Gen. Jones' closest friends and notably Mr. Furman, expressed themselves to me to the same effect.

I replied to Mr. Gudger that I concurred with him fully and had already reached the same conclusion. He assured me that he would not be a candidate under any circumstances; I gave him the same assurance for my part, and he did me the justice to believe that I would keep my word. The Anti-Stock Law Convention met August 21st and the leaders of that body asked me to accept a nomination, but I promptly declined, giving the reason above set forth. The Asheville Democratic Primary met later the same day and when my name was proposed for nomination I declined promptly and in such a way that the convention believed that I was telling the truth.

In this Asheville Primary Mr. M. E. Carter and Mr. C. M. McLoud, who are honored leaders of honorable Democracy, openly charged that the meeting was being manipulated. Mr. T. A. Jones thereupon moved a vote of instructions and the vote on Mr. Jones motion proved that the charge made by Messrs. Carter and McLoud was horribly true. The county convention met on the 28th, and to say that this convention was manipulated in order to further the personal aims of some of the men who are now its nominees, falls far short of the indecent and shocking truth. The Asheville Primary instructed its delegates to give Mr. H. A. Gudger no votes at all, and yet he secured eighteen from that delegation, and thus secured the nomination by the bare majority of two votes. I look upon the conduct of Mr. Gudger and Mr. Jones, as I would look upon a flagrant violation of a flag of truce.

The public well knows my unfortunate personal relation with Messrs. Gudger and Jones, and their nomination by such methods and after such pledges as above indicated, forced an issue which I tried to avoid; an issue which I did not seek but cannot shun.

When it was known that I was in the race, the Executive Committee of the anti-stock law convention—a vacancy having occurred—tendered me their support, which I accepted. The people of Buncombe believe both in fair play and in fair fight. The action of the Commissioners and Magistrates had produced much dissension, while the action of the Democratic Convention and the behavior of its nominees, Messrs. Gudger and Jones, produced uncontrollable disgust. The Democratic stomach could not stand the pills which it was forced to swallow. The leading Republicans and all well informed Democrats conceded my election. Thereupon happened the funniest incident of this whole history. Mr. R. M. Furman, by special appointment, made at his request, came to my office on the 15th inst., in company with a gentleman whom I do not consider privy to Mr. Furman's ulterior scheme, which was then propounded to me substantially as follows: That in view of the utter demoralization of the Democratic party and in view of possible bloodshed and bitter personal feeling, &c., &c., Mr. Furman assured me that the proper and only solution of the trouble was for me to run as the Democratic nominee for the Senate, that he had discussed the matter with Messrs. Gudger and Jones, and could assure me of their hearty support.

I told Mr. Furman in reply, that his proposition was a very grave one and that if he would put it in writing, and have it signed by the distinguished gentlemen from whom it came, that I would then give it such consideration as it deserved. He saw at once that I had penetrated his purpose and "with a sinister smile—such as Bobby can wear," he bowed himself out of my office. The very next day he calls me in his paper a "straight Republican." Now why should he offer the Democratic nomination for the Senate to a "straight Republican." Was he telling the truth when he offered me the Democratic nomination for the Senate or was he telling the truth when he called me a "straight Republican?" Which? I want to know. This is too funny. Smiling Bobby for one time is caught in his own trap. I should not have published this proposition of Mr. Furman's if he had not tried to misrepresent me within twenty-four hours after the interview by calling me a "straight Republican." I might have considered his interview private if he had not gone right out of my office and reported one of my statements in that interview, to the effect that I was informed that Mr. H. A. Gudger while affecting to decline the nomination to the County Convention was actually recorded as voting for himself!!!

If his words in the interview were private—though there was no injunction of secrecy—so were my words private. Smiling Bobby must remember the maxim—eo lig amine quo I gatus.

I wish to say that the action of the Republican mass meeting in endorsing my candidacy was without my knowledge or procurement. The leading Republicans for the last ten days have conceded my election, and their action indicates that they mean to contend for one seat only in the House. They know that I am a Democrt, but in the language of Senator Vance "I hope it is possible for me to be a democrat and at the same time be an honest man."

I am a democrat but I believe in performing promises and pledges, whether made by an individual or by a political party.

I am a democrat but I dare to tell the truth and to denounce wrong in my own party.

I am a democrat but I dare to stand up before fifty or five thousand Magistrates and denounce their action in denying the sacred right of petition, and in imposing an unconstitutional property qualification.

I am a democrat and for that very reason I believe in local self government and in clean methods.

The Democratic party is strong, but not strong enough to be unjust; not strong enough to endorse the personal conduct of Messrs. Gudger and Jones; not strong enough to endorse the official conduct of magistrates and commissioners of this county in treating the people like slaves. In the name of every honest man in the party I cry out, down with their machine and their machinations! and on with the principles which we profess but which our representatives have scandalously failed to maintain!!!

RICHMOND PEARSON.

To the Voters of Buncombe County.

I learn that it is being industriously circulated all over the county that I have withdrawn from the campaign and am no longer a candidate for the Legislature. The object of this falsehood must be obvious to every thinking man. The motive that prompts is mean and contemptible. I take this method of saying to the voters of Buncombe county that having been nominated by one of the largest and most respectable meeting of citizens that ever assembled in Buncombe county and having accepted said nomination my candidacy will not cease till sundown on the 2nd day of November next.

Very respectfully, your fellow-citizen,

J. S. T. BAIRD.

The John B Dories' circus showed in Cambridge yesterday, and the huge tents were filled to overflowing. Mr. James Robinson never rode better, and as he has few equals and no superiors in his line; it is hardly necessary to say that his feet were well received. Miss Stokes rode with her characteristic spirit, and evoked storms of applause by her masterly action on a barebacked steed. The Seigrists, the Fisher brothers, the Martelle family, Reffa Bell Satsuma, the Japanese juguler and balancer Miss Sallie Marks, and indeed every performer in the company did his or her best to maintain the high standard of the show. The circus is certainly one of the best that has shown in the vicinity of Boston for many years. Doris Circus will exhibit in Asheville Saturday Sept. 25.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I am a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe county. The action of the county democratic convention on the 28th August, is already known throughout the county. I need not discuss it here, further than to say that I believe it to be vitiated by fraud and by the violation of the plainest principles and usages of the democratic party, and I propose to submit the issue to the good and honest men of the county.

Very Respectfully,

W. T. REYNOLDS.

AN ORDINANCE

Concerning the Asheville Street Railway Company.

Be it ordained that the Asheville Street Railway Company is hereby authorized and permitted to make, construct, maintain and use a single track railway for the transportation of passengers, along such streets in the city of Asheville as may be selected and determined by the Mayor and Aldermen of the city for the term of twenty years from the passage of this Ordinance, and for that purpose may excavate and grade, under the direction of an engineer appointed therefor by the said Mayor and Aldermen, the streets selected and determined as aforesaid, to such extent as may be necessary, and may erect switches, turnouts, turnouts, stables and other appliances for the prosecution of its business only at such places as the said Mayor and Aldermen may select and determine.

PROVIDED, That no release to the city or any of its officers be created thereby, and it may operate and run its cars every day of the week if it see fit so to do. But the privileges hereby granted shall not be considered or deemed exclusive, the said Mayor and Aldermen hereby expressly reserving the power of granting like privileges to any other corporation, person or persons after the expiration of ten years from the date of this Ordinance.

PROVIDED, further, that the said road be continuously operated and be made upon and subject to the conditions hereinafter made and provided, the cessation of any of which shall operate as a forfeiture of the franchise and privileges above granted. The Mayor and Aldermen of the said city may from time to time prescribe regulations for the operation and management of the said railway; impose fines and penalties for the violation thereof or any of them, and may at all pleasure suspend the running of the cars and the operation of the said railway.

FIRST. That said railway shall be constructed under the general supervision of the Street Committee, and the track shall be so constructed and laid down as not to obstruct or impede the free flow of water across the streets or any of them, or down the gutters thereof, and in laying down the same the said Company shall conform to the grades of the several streets used by them as the same now are or hereafter may be established by law. Wherever changes of grade are necessary permission must be first obtained from the Street Committee to make the same, and in case the city shall decide to change the grade of any street when or after the said track is laid the said Company shall, at its own expense, conform to it the portion of the street occupied by its track.

SECOND. The said Company shall at its own cost and expense keep the space between the rails of the said track level with the tops thereof and shall keep the same clean and in good order and condition, and repair and pave the same wherever and whenever necessary, so that the portion of the streets occupied by the said track may be safe and convenient for the use and passage of teams, carts, carriages and wagons at all times, and whenever the city shall pave any street, or portion thereof, occupied by the track of the said railway, the said company shall, at its own cost and expense, pave in the same manner and with the same material, between the rails of the said tracks. All paving, repaving and repairing shall be done under the supervision and direction of the street committee; and all obstructions shall be removed from and between the rails of the said track, when the said street committee or the said Mayor or Aldermen shall direct.

THIRD. In the construction and in any subsequent repairing or alteration of the said railway, the said company shall indemnify and save harmless the said city from all loss or damage that may result to or be occasioned by any person or persons, or property, from the acts, omissions or negligence of the said company; and the said company shall, at its own costs, charges and expense, defend any and all suits that may be instituted for the recovery of such damages.

FOURTH. The said company shall begin the construction of said railway, within 6 months on and after the passage of this ordinance, and shall complete a line connecting depot with public square within six months after the commencement thereof, and have at least three cars running on the said track. If the said company shall fail to begin the construction of said railway, or shall fail to complete the same within the time specified and limited above, all the rights and privileges hereinbefore granted shall cease, determine and be forfeited. Provided, however, that the said Mayor and Aldermen may, at their discretion, extend the time for the completion of the said railway.

FIFTH. The said company shall not charge more than five cents for the transportation of each passenger, unless it shall have tracks crossing or running in contact with each other, in which case, each passenger shall be entitled to one transfer.

SIXTH. An engine or locomotive propelled by steam, sunshine be used on the said railway or any part thereof.

SEVENTH. The said railway shall not be used for the transportation of freight.

EIGHTH. The said Mayor and Aldermen shall not make any change or alteration in the terms and conditions herein before contained, unless notice thereof, for thirty days, shall be previously made by publication in at least one newspaper, published in the said city of Asheville.

NINTH. The said Company shall pay to the city from year to year, taxes on all real and personal property, owned by it in the said city, after the rate imposed by law on the real and personal property of other persons, and for the franchise granted hereby, and the use of the streets of the said city in the operation of the said railway; the said Company shall pay yearly to the said city the ——— of one per centum of the gross amount annually collected and received by the said Company from the transportation of passengers. The said Mayor and Aldermen shall be at liberty, from year to year, to increase the aforesaid rate of ——— of one per centum on said gross receipts, whenever they may deem it expedient.

TENTH. The said Company shall be at liberty to make and construct the said railway as follows, beginning at ———

ELEVENTH. The said Company shall not be entitled to the rights and privileges granted by this Ordinance, unless it shall, within sixty days after the passage of this Ordinance, and by notice in writing, inform the said Mayor and Aldermen that it accepts the same. If such notice be not given, this ordinance, and all the rights, immunities and privileges granted hereby, shall be void and void.
