For Judge,
 HON. JAMES J. MERRIMON,
 12th District,
 BUNCOMBE COUNTY,
 Solicitor, 12th District.

For Congress, 9th District,
 WILLIAM H. MALONE,
 OF BUNCOMBE.

Capt. Johnston, in the campaign of 1884, pledged himself to the repeal of the INTERNAL REVENUE LAW. ONE OF HIS FIRST ACTS IN CONGRESS WAS TO PLACE HIMSELF IN OPPOSITION TO ITS REPEAL BY VOTING FOR CHARLES SPEAKER. LET THE PEOPLE THINK FOR THEMSELVES!

WHAT THE PEOPLE ARE CONSIDERING.

Just now the Citizen is saying a great deal about Mr. Pearson, which is not at all applicable to the issues presented in the county canvass. This is done simply to mislead the people and impress them with the idea that Messrs. Jones and Gudger are cherubic and too good for this sinful world of unregenerate Flopdoodles, while Mr. Pearson is the embodiment of all that is evil. We opine, that the Citizen's efforts in this direction will be useless. The people of Buncombe county have a great deal more sense than the ringdoodle organ gives them credit for. At the present time, they are considering the following questions:

Did Messrs. Jones and Gudger pledge themselves at Avery's Creek to let the law relating to the fencing of crops stand as it was?

Did either or both violate his pledge?

Did the General, after forcing the law upon an unwilling people, take "a very small fee" to stifle the sacred right of petition?

If he did these things, he is unworthy of the support of the people as Mr. Gudger for voting for a law, which at Avery's Creek he said he would not vote for?

The people, before very long, will have an opportunity to say how these things are. They seldom go wrong.

DROPS FROM THE ACCUSING ANGEL'S PEN.

Gen. Jones on being charged with violating his pledge to oppose the law, says in his card, "I made a pledge" and that the men "who were men of bad name" were produced to him "and not fair witnesses." As to the charge hear the following:

"A Very Small One."
 The following explains itself:
 "This is to certify that some time after the law suit was started about the Stock Law in this county, I met General Jones, and asked him if he had accepted a fee as a lawyer to keep the petitioners from having a hearing and, he replied 'yes, he had but it was a very small one.'"

 I, J. B. Freeman, certify that I was a candidate for the Legislature in Buncombe County in 1884, and was at Avery's Creek in October of that year and addressed the public at that place with the other candidates. I remember distinctly that Genl. Johnston Jones on the question of the stock law, expressed himself as occupying the same position as Mr. Pearson and myself, which was in opposition to any change in the law as it then stood on the statute books.

I then asked him if he would make that statement to the Board. He replied that he would. I went to him during the sitting of said Board and asked him to get up and make said statement.
