

ASHEVILLE DAILY ADVANCE.

VOL. VI. NO. 83.

ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19, 1886.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

Entered in the Post Office at Asheville N. C., as second class matter.

Published every day in the week (except Monday) at the following low rates: One Year, $6.00; Six Months, $3.50; Three Months, $2.00; One Month, $1.00.

Yesterday was a lovely day. The electric light will be turned on this week.

Every one will be glad when the election is over.

The election of the Flopdoodle ticket is admitted.

Mr. O. A. Moore has returned from his trip North.

The county candidates speak at Sand Hill, (Lower Hominy) to-day.

The effort to draw the party line in county affairs will prove a failure.

Maj. Malone and Capt. Johnston speak at Hayesville Clay county to-morrow.

Maj. Malone and Capt. Johnston, candidates for Congress, spoke at Murphy, Cherokee County, yesterday.

A handsome flag was hoisted yesterday on the mast pole over the First National Bank yesterday. Long may she wave.

Mr. C. B. Moore is now filling the important position of Deputy Clerk of the Federal court, and is proving very efficient in his new line of duty.

The action of A. H. Jones and Tom Candler, last Saturday, is denounced in the strongest terms by the republicans all over the district.

A. H. Jones says in his paper that he was nominated for Congress. He was nominated in his private room by himself and Tom Candler, his son-in-law, who is a Johnston man.

Let the republicans of the district bear in mind that every vote for A. H. Jones is to the advantage of Tom Johnston. Jones candidacy is charged openly by republicans to be in the interest of Johnston. No one will be deceived by him.

The Citizen will now be lavish in the praises of Senator Vance. A few months ago that paper was giving currency to every blackmail and falsehood the Republican press could start against the Senator. Hypocrisy, of course.

Jas. P. Sawyer has returned from New York where he purchased a very large and attractive stock of Fall and Winter goods, which are now being received. If you want bargains wait until you examine his new stock.

Died at his residence, Swannanoa Hill, Saturday evening, October 14th, 1886, Margaret D., widow of Maj. W. H. Russell, and daughter of the late Dr. Martin, of Elizabeth City, N. C. Her remains were taken to Trenton, New Jersey, for interment.

County Canvass. The candidates for county offices addressed the people at Avery's Creek yesterday. There was a large turnout, and the best of order was maintained. The candidates made their usual arguments. The crowd was at least three fourths for the Pearson ticket, and will roll up a large majority in November.

Street Improvements. Yesterday the city authorities closed the contract with a party at Statesville for two hundred thousand hard-burnt brick for the sidewalks of this city. The price agreed upon is $8 per thousand delivered at the Asheville depot. The first shipment will be received in a few days, and the work of laying them down will be commenced.

Bargain Conn. for at Law's. As many goods as some other reason we dispose of under cost. We start a bargain counter, all goods on it are at least half price. A grand stock on hand now, and new goods still coming in. See goods and get prices for line or common wares at Law's, opposite Eagle Hotel.

Whitlock sells the genuine Gentlemen Kids in blacks, colors, and undressed or Suede Foster's Hooks in blacks and colors, and a very good Kid in latest shades and blacks at 75 cts. Also, a large stock Cashmere and Silk Gloves, very low.

They Say That the motion to adjourn the June meeting accomplished just what the "vain caperer's" resolution was intended to accomplish, the introduction of which was prevented only by the motion to adjourn.

That "whom the gods would destroy, they first make"—cut a "vain caper."

That Bob smiles and Ki capers as the people pass laughingly by.

That it is a great mistake to suppose that the political pendulum, only oscillates 'twixt a smile and a caper.

That A. H. Jones, whom it was charged in the republican convention last Saturday is running in the interest of Tom Johnston, will not get ten votes in the district.

That three fourths of the crowd at Avery's Creek yesterday were for the Flopdoodle Ticket.

That many of the democrats in Avery's Creek Township will vote for Maj. Malone.

"Vain Capering." Mr. Gudger admitted in his speech at Black Mountain last Tuesday, that in his campaigns before he became a member of the Legislature in 1885, he had denounced the Internal Revenue System, and had clamored loudly for its repeal, and that he protested against its repeal as a member of the last Legislature. He attempts to excuse his inconsistency on the ground that his former denunciations of the Internal Revenue laws, was simply "vain capering." How far the people will overlook his inconsistency on this novel ground of "vain capering" remains to be seen.

It would seem, in the light of recent history that the Internal Revenue has not been the only subject of Mr. Gudger's "vain capering." No doubt he would have us understand that his pledge to the people of Avery's Creek that he would not interfere with the stock-law was simply "vain capering;" that his violation of that solemn pledge after he was elected to the Legislature, was simply "vain capering;" that the resolution which he drew for certain of the magistrates to be passed by the June meeting, forcing the stock law on the whole county, regardless of the earnest petition of large majorities in the outside townships, was simply "vain capering;" that his efforts, subsequent to the adjournment of the June meeting, without hearing the petitions, to sustain before the courts that high-handed outrage on the rights of the people was simply "vain capering;" that what ever fee he received for his professional services against the petitioners in the stock-law case was simply "vain capering;" that his present promise to allow the law to remain as it now is if he be elected to the Legislature is simply "vain capering."

Well, in our opinion, the people have concluded that they have had about enough of Mr. Gudger's "vain capering." They are doubtless willing for him to cut as many "vain capers" as he pleases, but only as a private citizen, and not as their representative.

Illicit Distiller Pardoned. WASHINGTON, October 16.—The President has pardoned Burwell Hodges, who was convicted in the First District of North Carolina, of illicit distilling, and sentenced to a term of imprisonment. The pardon was granted at the earnest solicitation of the district attorney who prosecuted the case, upon the ground that the prisoner had already suffered sufficiently and his imprisonment for a longer period would result in great hardship to his dependent family.

The New York Star is very certain that Mr. Cleveland will be renominated. As New York has for twenty years dominated and controlled all National Conventions, all it has to do is to name the man. But what is the use of all the other States furling and fussing over who shall be nominated if New York is supreme?—Wilmington Star.

As brains once had their day, boodle now believes itself entitled to one also. The returns seem to indicate that it is getting it.

Reflections. "Wonderful thing the electric light. 'S'pose they'll soon use it to ripen the crops instead of the sun." "Well, some crops are already sown by its light."

"Nonsense!" "Yes! I know young fellows who sow all their wild oats by that same light."

SENATOR VANCE. A Large Audience and a Good Speech.

Senator Vance, according to a previous notice addressed the people of Buncombe in the court house yesterday on political issues. There was a very large and intelligent audience, as is always the case when the distinguished Senator is advertised to speak. A number of ladies were present and there was some enthusiasm manifested.

The Senator discussed chiefly general subjects, and made a strong democratic speech. In the opening he promised to have nothing much to say in regard to local affairs, but before he concluded, the Senator forgot himself and dived right into the stock law question with gloves off. The tenor of this part of his speech was to crack the party whip, and urge the people to stand by the party right or wrong. This is the only portion of his speech which was criticized; it being on the whole endorsed and applauded. The history of the two parties since the war were reviewed and contrasted, and the present system of county government strongly advocated. We feel safe in saying that the audience was greatly pleased with the Senator's speech, and that he made a fine impression.

The Candidates in Swain. Charleston, N. C., Oct. 15, '86. ED. ADVANCE.—Maj. Malone and Capt. Johnston, candidates for Congress, addressed a large audience in this place to-day, upon the political issues of the day, Malone making a fine impression, winning many supporters. His speech was a new one, compared to the cut and dried arguments used by his opponent, which all have heard so often. He discussed at considerable length the failure of Congress to do anything for the relief of the people, and the history of the class legislation which is ruining the country. He explained the Blair Educational bill, showed how it was killed by a democratic house after it had passed a republican Senate. He charged Capt. Johnston with violating his promises to assist in securing the repeal of the Internal Revenue law, and proved that he voted for Carlisle for Speaker, knowing that he was opposed to the repeal of the law and would have the organization of all the House committees. Maj. Malone's arguments on the currency question were admitted to be very clear and forcible, and was highly enjoyed and appreciated. He will get a very large vote in this county and it is believed he will be elected.

Johnston's speech throughout was a cry for party, which had but little or no effect. SWAIN.

The Big Convention of Northern Born Citizens of N. C. The citizens of Raleigh are taking such steps as will cause the visiting Northern people to form a favorable opinion of this city. What are the other cities and towns doing? They ought to look to the main chance. They ought to take such action as will cause at least a part of the Northern newspaper-editors to visit their towns. They ought to send up a delegation of every Northern-born citizen in their county and as many native born and let this joint committee urge upon the newspaper-men, and the Northern prospectors to visit their towns and counties. By all means get your Northern-born citizens every one of them to come to the city during the Fair for they can do your section much good. They can tell of their treatment by the natives, they will speak of the advantages of your soil and climate. Now is a chance for North Carolinians to work for themselves. The people are coming, who and what section will get the greatest advantage is yet to be seen, but we can tell this much in advance. The section that has the greatest number of working northern-born residents at the Convention and Fair will receive the largest and greatest benefits. HEP.

An End to Bone Scraping. Edward Shepard, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight months; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by H. H. Lyons.

THE TEXAS DELUGE. FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE TERRIBLE DEVASTATION.

A Heartrending Account. GALVESTON, TEXAS, October 16.—Further particulars of the great disaster at Sabine Pass and Johnson Bayou, are constantly being received. The solution has not been graduated in the least. A correspondent who has just returned from Sabine Pass, telegraphs from Orange that the turkey buzzards are soaring over Sabine for miles around, on land and water. It is one vast charnel house. The town is swept out of existence. What a prosperous village when last Tuesday dawned is now the centre of wreck and desolation. There are 127 persons missing and supposed to be dead. Only about twenty-five bodies have thus far been recovered. There is not one sound house in the town of Sabine. The residence of Dr. Gilliland and Editor McClanahan are the only ones that can be repaired. Every other house is an absolute wreck.

This, in brief, is the story of the storm. Touching, heart-rending stories of the storm are related by survivors. One house, containing fourteen colored persons, was seen to go down with a crash, and every one of them were lost. Incidents are related of husbands lashing their wives and children to floating wrecks and then seeing them killed by heavy logs being driven against them.

The damage to property can only be estimated by the value of the town for all is lost. The Sabine and East Texas railroad was washed out for the distance of ten miles. Ties have floated off and the rails are twisted like wires by the effect of the great hurricane. Millions of dead fish were cast up by the waves and thousands of birds also strew the ground. A young woman in a perfectly nude state was found roaming around on the prairie yesterday five miles from Sabine. She was demented and could not tell her name. When the government tug boat, Penrose, reached Sabine Pass yesterday, Columbus Master was found rowing around the delta looking for the bodies of his family. He said: "Myself, wife and three children were clinging to a floating roof which was gradually breaking to pieces. One of the little ones went and then another. I was holding the youngest and soon my wife said, 'Good bye, husband, I am going.' I could not reach her. A piece of the roof supporting her broke off and she sunk before my eyes. I held on to the youngest child, named Pearl, some time longer, and the child addressing me, said: 'Papa, I'm tired; wont you walk with me?' The piece of roof I was on was now crumbling to pieces. I told the little one to kiss me. She put her little arms around my neck, gave a big squeeze and just then a wave dashed us off and I saw her no more. Great God, why didn't I go down too?" He was pressed to go on board the Penrose but refused, saying: "Here among these lagoons are the bodies of my wife and children and here will I stop until I can find them."

No tongue can tell how the people have suffered during the past few days. In many cases the dead ones are considered the lucky ones. Late reports from Johnston's Bayou bring the terrible intelligence that eighty-five persons are known to have been lost in that settlement and it is greatly feared that the list will be swelled to a hundred or more thus making the total number of victims by the hurricanes fully 200. Reliable information from Johnston's Bayou are being impossible, and only two boats are running to that section. The destination of the survivors of whom there are over 1,400 around Johnston's Bayou and Radford village, is described as something awful. They lost everything and are without food, drink and clothes.

For the Advance. Thomas J. Candler Nominates his Father-in-Law for Congress.

We understand in the country that T. J. Candler by the aid of Peter Pendland, E. M. Anderson, and J. G. Yancey over A. H. Jones' dry goods store, nominated A. H. Jones to represent this district in Congress. I was sorry to hear of Mr. Yancey and A. J. Candler, a man who claims to be a republican, but has not cast a vote for a Republican in ten years. For the last ten years we have had true Republicans as candidates, and not a single one was ever able to get a vote from T. J. Candler. To show you that there is no Republican blood in him I will give you a few facts:

In 1884, he voted for St. John against James G. Blaine. The same year he voted for Thomas D. Johnston against Hamilton G. Ewart; he voted for H. A. Gudger, democrat, against A. M. Gudger, a republican for Senate; he voted for Richmond Pearson and Johnston Jones, democrats, against a republican ticket; he voted against W. E. Trull, whose politics are not questioned. He is a wolf with sheep's clothing; he is a hypocrite unfit to be called a republican; he has tried to defeat the Republican nominees for ten years; he has worked as hard for the Democratic nominees as any Democrat in the county; he will probably vote for his father-in-law, but if he does, it will be the first Republican he has voted for in ten years.

On last Saturday, the Republicans by the hundreds met in the court house and endorsed W. H. Malone, who is making a successful canvass against Johnston. I want every republican in this district to vote for Maj. Malone, a man who the republicans endorsed, and not be misled by such pretended Republicans as Tom Candler. REPUBLICAN.

Death Rate Exceeding One Thousand a Day. Chicago, October 16.—A Times special from San Francisco says: Private advices received in this city state that the cholera is still raging in Corea, and no idea can be formed of the extent of the scourge. It has more than decimated the capital, where out of a population of 200,000 the death rate rules at the frightful average of a thousand per day. About as many Koreans as there are people in the state of California have been swept away already and it is hard to say where the plague will stop. Corea is described as "an appalling pest pot." Never was there a more frightful record of the ravages of disease on mankind. The story of the plague of London is beggared by what is now going on in Seoul. They are beginning to give over the task of burying their dead and the city is threatened with positive extinction.

Immature Meat is Unwholesome. Immature meat is unhealthy for two reasons: first, it contains no nourishing elements, and consequently only relieves the symptom of hunger without actually recuperating the system; second, it is extremely indigestible, rolling up into masses in the stomach, and not digesting, like the fibrous flesh from older animals. A child's stomach is quite unable to cope with a piece of beef veal; in its violent effort to remove the offending substance nature not infrequently removes the little sufferer.

Beef veal is the meat of a calf under four weeks old; the great bulk of that sent in New York, however, is from a few hours to three days old.—Dr. Cyrus Edson in the Forum.

Found in History Books. If the Atlanta Constitution is particularly venomous the following must be accepted as truth: "Some time ago a teacher in charge of a school in a West Georgia county was approached by a pupil and requested to explain the meaning of '40 B. C.' The teacher read the sentence in which the hieroglyphics occurred, and observed that it referred to an incident that had taken place in a remote period. 'About' he said, 'then, figures at them letters is frequently found in history books. You see, a long time ago, folks didn't know much of a do, an they sorter guessed at dates. Now, '40 B. C. means '40 hours course.'—Exchange.

ANNOUNCEMENT. I am a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe county. The action of the county democratic convention on the 28th August, is already known throughout the county. I do not discuss it here, further than to say that I believe it to be vitiated by fraud and by the violation of the plainest principles and usages of the democratic party, and I propose to submit the issue to the good and honest men of the county. Very Respectfully, W. T. REYNOLDS.

To the People of Buncombe. I hereby announce myself a Candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe. I am a republican, and am opposed to the present system of government, and am especially opposed to the arbitrary system of government we have to submit to in Buncombe. I am also opposed to republicans sacrificing their manhood in their votes for independent democrats, so called. If such be democrats at all, they should stand by and support their party, and if they are not democrats, that is if they do not endorse the principles of the democratic party in this state, then they are in truth republicans, and if they have not manhood and courage enough to declare their republicanism while opposing democratic principles they are not entitled to democratic or republican votes. I am a republican, and not only expect the votes of republicans, but of those who do not endorse the democratic candidates or policy. I am constrained to thus announce myself because to do so, seems to me to be a candidate who is asking republican votes because he opposes the democratic nominee. If I do not get a single vote but my own, I am a candidate for the office of Clerk as a square, true republican, and I wish to see whether the republicans of Buncombe will maintain their manhood and vote for a straight republican or be caught by the hypocrisy of selfish democrats, and vote for them. If they do, they have no right to claim to be republicans. I shall thank my republican friends for their support, and if elected I shall discharge the duties of the office honestly and faithfully if not elected I shall feel I have at least maintained republican self respect and integrity. H. P. CRANE.
