INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS J. B. CRAIGMILES .- Telephon.

P. A. Cummings, Esq., is attending the Fair at Raleigh.

The county candidates spoke at Flat Creek yesterday, and will speak at Alexander to day. Moody and Ferguson, candidatefor Solicitor, failed to put in an ap pearance last night, as advertised.

Behold, how pleasant it is to see leading prohibitionists and a bar keeper dwelling together in unity Ringdoodle headquarters have been established in T. A. Jones law office, in the court house, where their caucuses are held.

Several of the county candidates returned to the city last evening. There was rather a small crowd at Flat Creek, but all the speakers received the best of attention.

Maj. Malone and Turnip Tom Fair View Tuesday. That town- their candidacy and hoped that ship will give Malone a large ma- they would be successful in the coning democrats, who heard the de This we have been credibly incision.

We are in receipt of a letter from Chimney Rock, in Rutherford county. The writer says that both democrats and republicans in that county are for Malone, and that he will get a large majority. Tom Johnston's republican candidate, A. H. Jones will get no votes in Rutherford county.

R. M. Furman, more familiarly known as smiling Bobbie, is the self constituted leader of the ringdoole campaign, and it has at last dawned upon the people that he wants Mr. Pearson defeated because he is Mr. Pearson's enemy. He has formerly said that he would be d-d if Mr. Pearson should be elected. Well, Robert we hate to see you d-d, but Mr. Pearson with be elected no matter how much damnation it will bring to you. The people are too honest to see a man de ated because you, smiling pose whatever. This is a fair Bobbie, are his personal enemy.

While Bobbie may be a "party' man, he is also Mr. Pearson's enemy, and while he pretends is ear something for the party, he cares . great deal more for his own private schemes which he knows Mr. Pearson will smash when he returns to the Legislature. If Mr. Furman was Mr. Pearson's personal friend, as he is Mr. Wells', he would not be half so anxious for his defeat. Personal enmity, however, is at a sad discount and the people will choose Mr. Pearson as their representative, despite smiling Robert and his personal enmity.

The people are fast beginning to understand that the present contest is not one between the democratic and republican parties, but between the people and their would-be boses. That every principle has been subordinated by these would-be bosses to the one supreme idea of the stock law, and smiling Robert's personal enmity towards Mr. Pearson is no longer an open question. The convention which nominated Gudger and Jones was no more a democratic | tionconvention, as a political fact, that the one which nominated Blaine for President in 1884. The one which nominated Blaine a republican con vention, and the one that nominated Gudger and Jones was a stock law convention-neither was democratic, and democrats are bound by the action of neither. The effort to use the party lash is too absurd for anything. Let democrats understand that the sacrifice no democratic principle in , oting for Mr. Pearson smiling Roberts Personal enmity to Mr. Pearson to the co. trary notwithstand. Let the people think for themselves and down with the man who dares influence their suffrage in this contest by the stale cry of "PARTY."

Tom Johnston and the Stock

Capt Thos. D. Johnston, the ringdoodle candidate for Congress has endeavored to carry water on both shoulders in reference to his posi tion on the stock-law question in Buncombe county. He has truth. fully said that it was an issue with which he had nothing to do. When asked, however, whether or not he endorsed the nomination of Jones and Gudger, and the platform upon which they were running, he stated had a large crowd to hear them at a few days ago, that he endorsed jority, so we are informed by lead- test with Pearson and his crew . formed, and if it be true, as we believe it is, Mr. Johnston is guilty of duplicity when he pretends to sympatize with the anti-stock-law men in their efforts to have their grievances redressed. A man ought not try to be pig and puppy both at the same time.

A Campaign Lie.

From a private letter from gentleman in Swannanoa twnship, we make the following extract:

"The enemies of Mr. Pearson keep circulating lies on him, but without effect. One of the last being circulated by the Rev. T. K. Brown, that Loughran had told bim that Pearson had placed several bundred dollars in his bar-room to be treated out for him."

Mr. Loughran says he did not tell Mr. Brown or any one else any such thing. He says Mr. Pearson nor any other candidate has placed any money in his bar for any pursample of the methods being used to defeat Mr. Pearson in the present contest. Let the people un: derstand once for all, that Mr. Pearson is using no illegitimate means to be elected, but is conducting a gentlemanly and up right cam naign, and that it will be a shame on the good people of this county if he be injured by the contemptible lies which are and have been circulated against him.

Offensive Partisans Suspended.

October .- The Washington, president to-day directed the suspension of M. E. Benton, United States attnrney for the Western District of Missonri, and of Wm. A. Stone, United States attorney for the Western District of Penusylvania. The action in the case of District Attorney Benton was based on the information that he is now and has been engaged in adpolitical meetings throughout Missouri, with appoint ments advertised for nearly every evening up to the time of elec-

The President endorsek the pa pers putting forth the above statement: "Let this officer be suspended at once," and returned it to the attorney general for an enforcement of the order.

The suspension of District Attorney Stone was made for a similar reason. Benton is a Democrat and Stone a republican.

Will the Democratic Party be made a Cat's Paw for the Stock-Law Cause?

Ultra stock-law men took possession of the late so-called democratic convention, and prostituted it to the one idea, the stock-law, Party principles were ignored, the wishes of the people defied, and no taken necessary to the carrying out one who did not speak and act stock-law had no influence in it. There were men in that convention who have heretofore been recognized leaders of the party, who protested against the action of the convention, especially in the legislative nominations, but whose conneil went for naught in the general clamor fer stock-law can didates. General Jones' make-be lieve effort was simply a part of the preconcerted program to make himself one of the nominees and had the desired effect. Mr. Gudger, while affecting to shun the nomi nation, accepted it without a show of reluctance, demonstrating the well understood truth, when the Rev. Ki says he does not want a nomination he is eager to have it tendered to him, that he may ac cept it in due season. That the convention reflected only the sentiments of the ultra stock-law delegates who composed it, and not the sentiments of the masses of the democratic party, no reasonable man, in the light of the glaring facts before him, can for a moment

> This being so, a few stock law men, bent on on rule or ruin, determined to commit the democratic parthe party organization as a decoy duck to establish a principle antag, them could be found. They are onistic to every democratic principle evidently the advance of the war and utterly subservive of popular party of Sioux which recently left

The issue then, as far as democrats are concerned, is this, simply : shall our party organization be used as a cat's paw to further the ends of ultra stock law advocates? Are we democrats, or are we stock law men? As either we cannot afford to endorse desire to maintain the honored principles of our party,

NITED STATES TROOPS IN PURSUIT.

Custer, Mont., Oct. 24. - An army officer, arrived from Fort Custer, states that at 3 p. m . Friday a party of Crow Indians rode hurriedly into the post and reported that they had been attacked by a war party of the Sioux, now in their camp about three miles up Little Horn River, and that in the melee which followed two of their number had been killed. Col. Durley, post commandant, immediately ordered the garrison under arms, and in a short time they were at the scene of action with five troops of the First Cavalry. They found two Crow Indians dead and thirteen more wounded, while the Sioux had left some of their warriors dead on the field, having been compelled to abandon them, evidently owing to the rapid advance of the cavalry. Detachments were sent out and a thorough search was made of the hills and ravines in the vicinity. The Sioux had made good their escape, however, and no trace of Poplar River agency to raid the Crows. Gen. Heath, the special agent at Poplar River, notified the authorities of their departure, but was unable to prevent it as there are only two companies of troops stationed near the agency. All the the action of this convention if we Indians left secretly and were far away when the fact became known The Sioux are said to be greatly excited over the raid upon their herds and the murder of the Assiniboine squaw by the Crows near bent on revenge. Now Greater Suffering than Earth quakes or Postilenes are met

The greatest suffering which followed the awful Charleston earthquake was among women and children. Men are supposed to be able to care for themselves, but when a weak woman or a delicate child trembling with fear is compelled to sleep in the open aff it becomes terrible. And yet women and children are avery day enduring sufferand children are every day enduring suffer-ings that are even worse than Earthquakes. To see a patient and yet feeble wife and mother dragged down by disease, bravely striving to eare for her household; to wit-ness a puny child whose outlook for life, seems only one of misery is worse than eny outward evils that one can imagine.

When women have those weak and depressed feelings, that sense of bearing down, pain in the back, headache, loss of color,
lack of all life and energy, our sympathies are aroused and it is then we seek a relief.
But it is eften a fruitless task. To restore youthful bloom and beauty, and render life happy instead of miserable, is indeed difficult. But it can be done. Read the following from a well-known man in Pittahum. ing, from a well-known man in Pittsburg.

"I must tall you of the improved state of Mrs. Y.'s health I had feared she was going into a decline, for she was continually into a decline, for she was continually troubled with a dragging and weary feeling in going about her household duties. She complained of a pain in her back, distincts in her head, and a general lack of interest in almost everything. This had been coming on for nearly two years. She was loging flesh, and her appetite was poor and irregular. Her sleep was by no means regular, nor was it refreshing. She looked pale and bloodless, and semetimes said that she hardly cared whether she lived or died. After she had several fainting spells, and found the doctor could do her very little good, she was told by a neighbor, who had been in she was told by a neighbor, who had been in a similar weak state, that Volina Cordial was a good thing. She had tried so many remedies that she said at first there was no remedies that she said at first there was no use of trying any more. But she had so much confidence in Mrs. W., who had recovered by the use of the medicine, that she tried a bottle. We were all surprised at the effect of this one bottle. It did wonders in bringing Mrs Y. out of her low condition. She had not dared to hope for such relief and strength as it gave her. This encouraged her to take more, and she has by this time taken five or six bottles. She says that the same time there is a candidate there is no medicine like Velina Cordial and who is asking republican votes be

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I am a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe county. The action of the county democratic convention on the Telephone." Some of its main 28th August, is already known throughout the county. I need not liscuss it here, further than to say that I believe it to be vitlated by fraud and by the violation of the plainest principles and usages of the democratic party, and I propose to submit the issue to the good and honest men of the county.

Very Respectfully, W. T. REYNOLDS.

To the People of Buncombe:

I hereby announce myself a Canlidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe. I am a republican, and am opposed to the present system of County gov ernment, and am specially opposed to the arbitrary system of government we have to submit to in Buocombe. I am also opposed to republicans sacrificing their man hood in their votes for independent democrats, so called, If such be democrats at all, they should stand by and support their party, is if they do not endorse the principles of the democratic party in this state, then they are in truth republicans, and if they have no manhood and courage enough so declare their republicanism while Oct.28d1t. opposing democratic principles they are not entitled to democratic or epublican votes. I am a republi can, and not only expect the votes of republicans, but of those who do not endorse the democratic candidates or policy. I am constrained to thus announce myself because no candidate, yet out, seems willing to declare himself a republican; a cause he opposes the democratic nominee. If I do not get a single vote but my own. I am a candidate whether the republicans of Buncombe will maintain their manhood and vote for a straight republican or be caught by the hypocracy or
