ANNOUNCEMENTS.
I am a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe county. The action of the county democratic convention on the 28th August, is already known throughout the county. I need not discuss it here, further than to say that I believe it to be vitiated by fraud and by the violation of the plainest principles and usages of the democratic party, and I propose to submit it to the good and honest men of the county.
Very Respectfully,
W. T. BEYNOLDS.

To the People of Buncombe:
I hereby announce myself a Candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe. I am a republican, and am opposed to the present system of County government, and am specially opposed to the arbitrary system of government we have to submit to in Buncombe. I am also opposed to republicans sacrificing their manhood in their votes for independent democrats, so called. If such be democrats at all, they should stand by and support their manhood and courage enough so to declare their republican principles while opposing democratic principles they are not entitled to democratic or republican votes. I am a republican, and not only expect the votes of republicans, but of those who do not endorse the democratic candidates or policy. I am constrained to thus announce myself because no candidate, yet out, seems willing to declare himself a republican; at the same time there is a candidate who is asking republican votes because he opposes the democratic nominee. If I do not get a single vote but my own, I am a candidate for the office of Clerk of a square, true republican, and I wish to see whether the republicans of Buncombe will maintain their manhood and vote for a straight republican, or be caught by the hypocrisy or selfish democrats, and vote for them. If they do, they have no right to claim to be republicans. I shall thank my republican friends for their support, and if elected I shall discharge the duties of the office honestly and faithfully if not elected I shall feel I have at least maintained republican self respect and integrity.
B. F. CLARK.

We are authorized and requested to announce J. T. Stone, of Madison county, as an Independent Democratic Candidate for the Senate in this, the 40th Senatorial district.

Lots of handsome Wraps, Dress Goods, Clothing, Hats, and Fancy Goods for autumn and winter, just opened. In these lines the pick is worth five times the ordinary price.

THE BOOK OF DOOM!
DROPS FROM THE ACCUSING ANGEL'S PEN.
Gen. Jones or being charged with violating his pledge to oppose the stock law, says in his card, "I made no such pledge" and that the men whose affidavits were produced to sustain the charge "were men of bad character" and "not fair witnesses." As to the truth of this charge hear the following, witnesses:
W. W. Johnson makes oath and says: I was at Avery's Creek in 1884, on the day that H. A. Gudger the democratic candidate for the Senate, addressed the people of that township. Mr. Gudger made no reference to the stock law in his speech, but after he had taken his seat, I heard John Ingram ask him what his position was on the stock law. Gudger replied that he did not need a stock law in this mountainous country, and that he was in favor of allowing it to remain as it then was.
W. W. JOHNSON.

CHAS. W. MALONE, J. P.

I. G. W. Howell of No. 3 Township, Buncombe county, do hereby certify that at the joint meeting of Commissioners and Justices in last February, in conversation with Gen'l Jones, he stated to me that he drew the "Stock Law Bill" in the last Legislature with the understanding that the outside townships were to be let out upon petition. I then asked him if he would make that statement to the Board. He replied that he would. I went to him during the sitting of said Board and asked him to get up and make said statement. His answer was I will not do any such a thing.
G. W. HOWELL.

B. L. MORGAN, J. P.

A. T. Graham ke ah, and says that he was at Avery's Creek in October 1884, at the speaking by the candidates for the Legislature, and heard Gen'l Jones say in his speech that he occupied the same position on the stock law as had previously been taken by Mr. Pearson and Mr. Freeman, which was opposition to any change in the law as it then existed—that the law was best as it then stood—that if a majority of the people of any township wanted it they could hold an election and get it. It was generally understood among the people present on that occasion that Gen'l Jones stood pledged against any attempt to pass a law different from the one then existing for the county.
A. T. GRAHAM.
Sworn to and subscribed before me, this May 14th, 1886.
N. B. CREASMAN, J. P.

W. W. Tompson makes oath and says: I was at the speaking by candidates for the Legislature at Avery's Creek in October, 1884. Before the speaking began I had a private conversation with Gen'l Johnstone Jones, in which he stated to me that he was opposed to any change in the stock law as it then existed. I told him I would not vote for him, unless he would assure me that in case of his election, he would not do anything to change the law. He assured me that in his opinion the law would stand as it then was. After the conversation with me, Gen'l Jones stated publicly to the people that his position on the stock law was the same as Mr. Pearson and Mr. Freeman, which was opposition to any change in the then existing law. It was generally understood among the people, then present, that such was his position.
