DISPUTE OVER MONOPOLY a profound sensation in this city.

Oom Paul" and the Members of the Volksraad Couldn't Agree on Cer- land. tain Dynamite Concessions, Hence the Former's Resignation.

CAPE TOWN, July 25 .- Advices have been received here confirming the report that President Kruger of the South African republic has resigned owing to and shortly before he was stricken his lifferences between himself and mempers of the volksraad.

President Kruger had been absent from the government building since

Friday and it was understood that owing to the opposition shown him by the executive council and the volksraad regarding the questions of the Johannesburg fort and the dynamite monopoly, he had arrived at the conclusion that he no longer possessed the volksraad's confidence and threatened to resign.

Yesterday, however, a deputation, including General Joubert, the vice president; Herren Schalk and Burger and the chairman of the volksraad, waited upon President Kruger and induced him to attend a secret session of the vo'ksraad, which lasted over three hours Meanwhile an anxious crowd . had asexpectantly to learn the outcome of what was regarded as a momentous de that the volksraad had finally assured the president that it had the utmos confidence in him. It was known, how ever, that a majority of the member- of the volksraad still differed with the president on the dynamite monopol question, and his action today in re
