EX-GOV. ATKINSON IS DEAD AT NEWNAN, GA.

Unconscious Several Hours Before the End.

PASSED OFF PEACEFULLY

He Was For Years Prominent as a Leader of Democrats and Served Two Terms as Chief Executive, Deceased at General Events.

NEWNAN, Ga., Aug. 8.—Ex-Governor Atkinson died at 8:52 this morning, after 10 days' illness, at his home in this place. He was unconscious for several hours previous to his death, but

He served six years in the legislature previous to occupying the gubernatorial office. He was for one term speaker of the house.

Since the expiration of his last term as governor he has been engaged in the practice of law in this county, where he was born and reared.

PHYSICIAN WORSEWHIPPED

Dr. Kendall of Columbus, Ga., who is a prominent physician in that city, was taken by a burglar, Dr. Kendall employed a detective, who followed Jim Campbell to North Carolina.

It got abroad that Campbell was suspected. The detective seems to have talked. Campbell was not arrested and the confiding physician's office and the suspicions of the detective, Dr. Kendall was badly bruised. He got out a warrant against the three Campbells.

Union Depot For Savannah. SAVANNAH, Aug. 8.—The railroads entering Savannah have decided to build a union depot on a tract of land fronting on West Broad street and about 200 yards to the south of the present depot of the Central of Georgia Railway company.

Bakers Reach Providence. PROVIDENCE, Aug. 8.—Lillian Clayton Jewett and the Baker family arrived in Providence from South Carolina yesterday. There was no demonstration at the station. Later a well attended mass meeting was held. At the conclusion of the meeting the Lillian Clayton Jewett Antilynching Association No. 3 was formed.

Carrabelle Asks For Help. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 8.—The citizens of Carrabelle, Fla., are without houses, food and clothing, owing to the recent cyclone that laid flat the town. At a mass meeting of the citizens an appeal was issued for aid. It asks that contributions be sent to T. S. Anderson, M. D., chairman of the relief committee at Carrabelle.

THE MODERN BEAUTY

Thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. If her system needs the cleansing action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant Syrup of Figs which is the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Improvements at Pensacola. PENSACOLA, Fla., Aug. 7.—The dredge Bismarck has arrived here from Mobile to work on a contract with the Louisville and Nashville road to dredge around their wharves to a depth of 30 feet and to cut a channel 30 feet deep from the wharves to the stream, so that deep draft vessels may be loaded alongside the wharves.

BAKERS TAKEN TO BOSTON.

Lillian Clayton Jewett Charles Dead Negro's Family North. CHARLESTON, Aug. 7.—Lillian Clayton Jewett, the Boston girl who recently created a sensation in that city by declaring that she would come to Charleston and take north with her the family of the late Frazer B. Baker, who was lynched at Lake City, S. C., in 1897, with a view to beginning an agitation against mob law, has carried out her plan.

Miss Jewett arrived here Friday morning, accompanied by her mother and a young man named R. G. Larsen, who is a Boston journalist. She had frequent conferences with the Baker woman and her friends, and as a result she left here for Boston Saturday afternoon, accompanied by the entire Baker family, the mother and five children. Miss Jewett said her plans for the future were not yet formulated, but she proposed to hold manufacturing meetings out the north to arouse public sentiment against lynching and mob law generally.

The Rev. J. L. Dart, a negro minister of this city who has recently spent some time in Boston, opposed violently the removal of the Bakers from Charleston. He declares that Miss Jewett does not represent the better class of white or black people in Boston.

MAYOR TO BE IMPEACHED?

CITY COUNCIL OF ATLANTA REQUESTS THE EX-CITY'S RESIGNATION. ATLANTA, Aug. 7.—Unless Mayor J. G. Woodard resigns today, and those closest to him say he will not, impeachment proceedings may be commenced. By a vote of 17 to 3 the resignation of the mayor was asked for at a secret caucus of the city council and board of aldermen held Saturday afternoon.

A RIOT NEAR GREENVILLE.

Pitched Battle Between Whites and Blacks at Poe's Mills. GREENVILLE, S. C., Aug. 7.—A race riot occurred at the Poe cotton mill near this place last night. Negroes shot into the house of Greenberg, a mill operator, while he was at supper. The leader was captured and taken to jail. A report was circulated among the negroes that he had been lynched, and 300 blacks appeared at the mills.

ATKINSON HAS A COLLAPSE.

EX-GOVERNOR RAILLIE, HILVER, and MAY YET RECOVER. NEWNAN, Ga., Aug. 7.—About 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon ex-Governor Atkinson, who has been seriously ill at his home here for several days, had a collapse and it was then thought that death would ensue within a few hours. He was very weak and his physicians said it was their opinion that he would not survive the night.

Noted Woman Seriously Ill.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Aug. 7.—Mrs. L. H. Pickens, relict of South Carolina's war governor and at one time minister to Russia, is being critically ill at her home at Edgewood, near Edgefield, S. C. She is suffering from paralysis. Mrs. Pickens has been prominently identified with Mont Vernon, the home of Washington, since it has been under the tender care of American womanhood. She is one of the most noted women in the history of the south, and the story of her life reads like a romance.

Dreyfus Placed on Trial.

RENNES, France, Aug. 7.—Captain Dreyfus' trial before a court-martial has begun here. The prisoner, when arraigned, asserted his innocence in a most dramatic and convincing manner. He answered all questions put to him without hesitation and appeared to convince those in attendance that he had not betrayed his country. Sitings will probably continue several weeks before a verdict is reached.

Young Man Accidentally Shot.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 7.—Henry Arrington, a prominent young business man and Mason of Livingston, Ala., was killed near there by the accidental discharge of his shotgun. He was climbing a fence with the piece in his hand when his trigger encountered a rail and the contents of the barrel were lodged in his heart, killing him instantly. He leaves a wife and two children.

Fair Association Launched.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 7.—Articles of incorporation have been filed in the probate judge's office by the Alabama State Fair association. The capital stock is placed at $15,000. The purpose is to hold annual fairs and exhibitions in Alabama, the first of which will begin here Nov. 7 next. The incorporators are H. C. Dowman, M. V. Joseph, R. F. Kolb, L. Y. Lipscomb and J. A. Romtree.

Improvements at Pensacola.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Aug. 7.—The dredge Bismarck has arrived here from Mobile to work on a contract with the Louisville and Nashville road to dredge around their wharves to a depth of 30 feet and to cut a channel 30 feet deep from the wharves to the stream, so that deep draft vessels may be loaded alongside the wharves.

TURPENTINE IS ADVANCING.

SAVANNAH MARKET NOW PRESENTS A MOST INTERESTING PHASE. SAVANNAH, Aug. 4.—Turpentine jumped up to the high water mark of 44 cents yesterday, which is an advance of 4 cents within the last four days. The turpentine market presents just now perhaps the most interesting phase it has known in years and even at the high figure noted above there is practically none to be had.

There is plenty of demand for spirits, but there are few producers and every day, but the producers and many of the factors here, fortunately, have contracts made several months ago which they are compelled to fill. These contracts were made at from 29 to 32 cents, and as the crop was somewhat short, owing to the severe weather conditions in the early part of the year, it will take about what is made for some months to come to fill these contracts.

COMMITTEE NOW ADJOURNS.

PENITENTIARY INVESTIGATORS TO REPORT SOME TIME NEXT WEEK. GREENVILLE, S. C., Aug. 4.—The legislative committee investigating the penitentiary affairs under Colonel Neal's management has concluded its work here and will report to the governor next week.

GULF COAST LUMBERMEN.

THEY MEET IN MOBILE AND DISCUSS THE CONDITION OF TRADE. MOBILE, Aug. 4.—The Gulf coast lumbermen met in this city with a large attendance present. Secretary Kilduff read an interesting report, giving statistics of stocks and prices at the ports, and detailing information he had gathered as to the formation of the much talked of bureau of information. The bureau was formed and the report of the secretary adopted.

SOLDIERS TO WELCOME HIM.

MANILA, Aug. 2, via HONG-KONG, Aug. 8.—The guano boat, last week sailed Paete, on the lake near Santa Cruz. The town was full of people who had been encouraged to return after General Lawton's expedition, having been assured that they would not be molested if they peacefully attended to their business.

DEWEY TO VISIT POPE LEO.

ADMIRAL WILL ALSO STOP AT LONDON ENROUTE TO AMERICA. WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The report that Admiral Dewey will go to Rome tomorrow, where he will be given an audience by the pope, and will later visit London enroute home, attracted general interest at the navy department today, although the department has not been apprised of his program.

Shot Intended For Rebels?

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—The Examiner today says: The City of Peking, which sailed on Saturday for Hong-Kong by way of Honolulu and Yokohama, took among her cargo 321,440 pounds of shot, the first shipment of kind ever made to Japan. In addition there were 167,650 pounds of pig lead and 24,735 pounds of sheet lead. Just to what use this rather unusual shipment is going to be put is not known, but suggestions have been made that it may be intended to smuggle it into Manila for Aguinaldo and his army.

Children Burned to a Crip.

BROOK HAVEN, Miss., Aug. 8.—Mary Washington, a negro, living 2 miles above Bogue Chitto and about 8 miles south of here, went out visiting last Friday night, leaving her three children in the house locked up. During her absence the house was fired in some unaccountable manner and the three children were burned to a crip.
