

"It don't matter," said Senator Peffer in a recent interview, "if by joining the third party the South is turned over to the rule of the negro, for the third party cannot consider such questions."

We have quoted Mr. Peffer because he is, for the time being, prominently before the American public.

Who is Peffer? The question might have remained unanswered if he had not given his autobiography in this short sentence. In it he has proven himself to be a reckless political adventurer, without the qualities of leadership or the possibility of greatness. Elevated by the whirlpool of passion that swept through the West, he illustrates that "pygmies are on pygmies still, tho' perched on Alps." His appearance on the floor of the Senate will be accepted as additional evidence of the degeneracy of the most august deliberative body on the globe. But they tell us that he is at the head of the third party? Well, he is entitled to his position, since restlessness, incongruity and heterogeneity characterize his following.

If by joining the third party the South is turned over to the negro, are the words of Senator Peffer. The South will never be turned over to the negro. All the forces of the Federal Government, military and civil, are incapable of bringing upon us such a dire catastrophe.

Many a billow has dashed against Gibraltar, and today it defies the storm as proudly as in the morning of creation.

There is no danger of negro domination in the South. Her people, accepting the results of the war, are moving forward to their inevitable destiny. The negro, by exercise of powers inherent in true manhood everywhere, may acquire fortune and fame, but he can never gain the mastery. That matter is settled. Settled by the decree of God and the logic of facts.

Consider for a moment the perfdy that could suggest such a possibility. The English of it is, the success of the third party is to be achieved at the sacrifice of domestic peace, civilization and Christianity.

Whatever else Senator Peffer may be, he is not a representative of the Alliance men of the South.

So common has it become for agitators and charlatans to calumniate the South that men like Peffer have not hesitated to slander L. L. Polk by putting into his mouth words defamatory of his southern brethren; but, with true North Carolina manhood, he has nailed the slander and thrown the lie in the teeth of his traducers.

The Journal is not the accented mouth-piece of the Alliance. Not one of its staff is a member of the order, but we know the honor of southern farmers and we will defend it, let the assault come from what quarter it may.

We had hoped that sectionalism was buried. We wish to regard the American people as one people, united in the high purpose of perpetuating the Union and securing to every citizen the blessings of liberty.

If the South is solid, it is kept so by the imperative demands of self preservation. There is one certain way to perpetuate the solidarity of the South, and that is to touch with the lightest finger her social order and domestic security.

The News and Observer in writing on this subject, says: "Are the honest, mainly white southern farmers ready to receive their lessons in political science from such sources? Can they acknowledge as their leader a foreign-born fanatic like Peffer, or any southern white man who bears his degrading race principles and still associate with him? We answer no. The farmers of the South will not follow such men. The chivalry of Anglo-Saxon manhood, reverence for the virtue of southern women, and respect for ancestral and race pride, all condemn and repudiate such self-confessed demagogues."

The following clipping is taken from the Southern Appeal, published at Atlanta, Ga., by a very intelligent negro, formerly a resident of North Carolina: "The Asheville, N. C., DEMOCRAT, edited by Robert M. Furman, Esq., is continually bristling with newsy and thoughtful suggestions. Its editorials are backed by well-founded ideas."

A Splendid Farm FOR SALE

I have a farm on Beaverdam, five miles from Asheville, containing 55 acres. I believe it to be the best fruit, grass, and vegetable farm in Buncombe. I seldom ever fail to have full crops. 12 acres are set in orchard, containing the best varieties of fruits and a vineyard. Any one desiring to go into the fruit business or vegetable culture would do well to call and see the property. The Dummy railroad, when completed to Craggy Mountain, will go through a portion of this farm. It is well watered.

A Lady Tells of Almost a Miraculous Recovery—Read

To the Editor of the Journal: I wish to tell the people of Atlanta something through your columns. I have a sister who lives in Birmingham, Ala., who has been afflicted with what many physicians termed "internal tumor." One physician said it was "enlargement of the liver." She came to Atlanta for treatment by a specialist after failing to be benefited in Birmingham. A two months' treatment gave her only temporary relief. She returned again to the same treatment last year, and grew worse until she became bed-ridden. When she had despaired of ever finding relief she at my suggestion began the use of King's Royal Gernetzer.

She began to improve at once. In one week she was sleeping soundly, when she had not had a night's undisturbed rest in two years. She began to go about at once and continue to steadily improve. In six weeks she was so far relieved as to be able to return home, feeling well, with no swelling or evidence of tumor or enlarged liver. I had a letter from her the day before yesterday and she is evidently well.

My confidante in Gernetzer was caused by its curing me of Catarrh. My sister, Mrs. W. A. Doby, of Birmingham, Ala., will verify the above statement, and my neighbors here in Atlanta will certify to as much as came under their observation. I cheerfully give my testimony, hoping that the afflicted ones may be induced to try a remedy which has proven a signal blessing to myself and my sister.

Wonders

Are wrought by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor in restoring gray hair to its original color, promoting a new growth, preventing the hair from falling, keeping it soft, silky, and abundant, and the scalp cool, healthy, and free from dandruff or humors.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for some time and it has worked wonders for me. I was troubled with dandruff and was rapidly becoming bald; but since using the Vigor my hair is perfectly clear of dandruff, the hair has ceased coming out, and I now have a good growth, of the same color as when I was a young woman. I can heartily recommend any one suffering from dandruff or loss of hair to use Ayer's Hair Vigor as a dressing." Mrs. Lydia O. Moody, East Pittston, Ma.

"Some time ago my wife's hair began to come out quite freely."

Ayer's Hair Vigor

not only prevented my wife from becoming bald, but it also caused an entirely new growth of hair. I am ready to certify to this statement before a Justice of the peace." H. Hulshus, Lewisburgh, Iowa.

"Some years ago, after a severe attack of brain fever, my hair all came out. I used such preparations for restoring it as my physicians ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The last remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think I used eight bottles in two years; more than was necessary as a restorative, but I liked it as a dressing, and have continued to use it for that purpose. I believe Ayer's Hair Vigor possesses virtues far above those of any similar preparation now on the market." Vincent Jones, Richmond, Ind.

A Strange Rumor Verified.

I feel it my duty to acknowledge that the rumor which prevails throughout this city and entire section that I have just returned from the Northern markets, where I purchased a very large stock of Ladies' Dress Goods, Trimmings, Notions, Clothing, Hats, Shoes, etc., etc.; that being in those markets late and offering cash for all I wanted, I got my goods at very low prices; that I intend to give my customers the benefit of these low prices, strictly for cash.

IS ALL TRUE.
