During the next three months, we estimate that there will be fifteen thousan people. This is estimating our present population at ten thousand, to which is added five thousand visitors, that we er. pect to be here and at near by hotels and boarding houses. The question arises

HOW ARE WE . O FEED THIS MULTITUDE?

That is a very easy question to ano provided you have the provision hand. But suppose we should be the this summer by a blizzard, such as had in New York last winter, con pull through?

Well, we hardly ever have snows. here at this season severe enough to the wheels of commerce, but you not be surprised to see our prices great deal lower than the lowes: registered by the thermometer la ter, in the north and west. Having foreseen the rush of visit Western North Carolina this se we have prepared ourselves accord

Maj. W. W. Rollins has returned from an extended trip to Washington, where he has been to see his brother, Col. Pinkney Rollins, who is quite ill.

H. M. Ramseur, Chief Engineer of the Carolina, Knoxville and Western Railroad, is in the city, and reports work mogressing well on this new road.

C. G. West, formerly of the Asheumber Company, of this city, this morning for Knoxville, Tenn., where he will likely make his future home.

We see that two North Carolina boys, Messrs. A. C. Floyd and G. A. Hayes, the former of Watauga and the latter of Cherokee county, have purchased the Columbia (Tenn.) Herald, and taken charge of it.

Cards are out for the marriage at Waynesville on July 3d, of Dr. J. Howell Way, a prominent physician of that place to the beautiful and popular Miss Marrietta Welch, daughter of Dr. S. V. Welch, also of Waynesville.

It has been suggested that we have some kind of demonstration in this city on the 4th of July. There seems to be a Atkinson's Lundborg's extracts and Toipretty general desire on the part of our lets water. Prescriptions carefully pre pared and delivered promptly to any part citizens that the glorious fourth be celebrated, and we hope to see some steps taken in that direction.

Levi P. Morton, of New York, the republican nominee for Vice President, is at the head of the banking concerns of Morton, Bliss & Co., of New York and Morton, Post & Co., of London. He was Minister to France under the administration of Presidend Arthur.

Mr. Ed. Weddin, the very efficient and accommodating agent of the Southern Express Company in this city, will leave us on the 1st of July to accept a position as express messenger on the railroad. We regret to part with Mr. Weddin, but
