Application Refused.

By Cable to the Sun.

LONDON, June 29.—The courts have refused to grant the application for summons against Mr. Mathews, Home Secretary, and Sir Charles Warden, Chief of the Metropolitan Police, for preventing meetings in Trefalgar square. The judge decided that no right existed for the holding of a public meeting which interfered with free passage through the square by people.

Fatally Stabbed.

By Telegraph to the Sun.

St. Louis, June 29.—A special dispatch to the Post-Dispatch, from Memphis, Tenn., says: Thos. Moorehead, an old citizen, was stabbed six times by Thos. Taylor, a young man, last night and died this morning. The trouble was the elopement of Moorehead's daughter with Taylor, the old man compelling the girl to return home. On meeting the old man Taylor attacked him with the result stated.

Washington, D. C., Gone Dry.

By Telegraph to the Sun.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—A 36-inch water main, which serves the northwest section of Capital hill, burst this morning at a point just west of Georgetown, and for several hours a large part of the city was without water. A partial supply was obtained this afternoon through the smaller mains. The damage cannot be repaired before some time to-morrow. In the meantime the fashionable section of the city will be almost helpless in case of fire.

STRAY BEAMS.

Gathered From our Exchanges.

—A land owner at Elko, Nev., is seeding his ranch to ten.

—A cotton seed oil mill is to be erected in Wilmington at an early day.

—More than 1,000,000 men are employed by the various railway lines in the United States.

—Two thousand five hundred and nineteen immigrants were landed at Castle Garden on Monday.

—Now, the unripe apple, with the small boy doth grapple, and it is sure to make his lower bosom ache.

—A bright bandana floats from Mr. Cleveland's flag-staff at Oak View beneath the stars and stripes.

—It is now stated that Freddy Gebhardt and Mrs. Langtry are to be married some time in September.

—A census of Salisbury has been taken. It shows that the town has 4,159 inhabitants, an increase since 1885—three years—of 751.

—The first shipment of finished silk ever made from the South was made by Mr. Geo. Singleton, of the Wadesboro Manufacturing Co., last week.

—It is believed, now, that Stanley, the African explorer, is dead. That Tippoo Sib compassed his death in revenge for his opposition to the slave trade.

—A great sensation has been caused in Anderson, S. C., by the arrest of Mrs. M. E. Keese, one of the most respectable ladies of that place, on a charge of arson.

—The Pope's encyclical on liberalism has been published. It is a long paper, and the Pope condemns modern liberalism as being opposed to that practiced by Christ.

—A man with a weakness for statistics has made the calculation that a society girl in dancing eighteen waltzes of ordinary duration goes a distance of about fourteen miles.

—The defaulter, Pitcher, of the Union Bank of Providence, R. I., was arrested Tuesday at Montreal, Canada. Cash and securities amounting to some $700,000 were found on his person.

—A great soldiers' reunion is to be held at Pittsboro on the first Thursday in August. Governor Seales, Senators Vance and Ransom and Lieutenant Governor Stedman will make speeches.

—The republican clubs throughout the country have been making arrangements for some time to send delegations to meet James G. Blaine on his arrival from the other side in the middle of July.

—The next session of the University of North Carolina will begin on 30th of August. Tuition has been reduced to the wonderfully low price of $30 a half year and poor students may give notes for the amount.

—The storm of Thursday swept through portions of Davie county with destructive force. In the vicinity of Clemmonsville forest and fruit trees were uprooted and wheat shocked in the fields scattered in all directions.

—At the plaid makers' meeting in Atlanta on the 20th, the leading plaid mills of the South were represented with a total capacity of $700,000 monthly. This output has been reduced by the association to about $50,000 per month. The old schedule was reaffirmed.

—Mr. George Everhart, a prominent young real estate dealer and capitalist, of Chicago, has been authorized by a gentleman in New York City to place $2,000,000 on the election of Cleveland against any man whom the present convention will nominate—the bets to be made in sums of $2,000 each and upward, before or after the present convention finishes its business.

—President Cleveland visited the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, Wednesday, and the warmth of the reception accorded him attested the hold he has on the people of the Old Dominion. At the alumni banquet, which followed the graduating proceedings, the first toast was to the President of the United States, and Mr. Cleveland briefly responded. He was followed by Secretary Bayard, Secretary Vilas and others. Afterwards the party visited Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, and then left for Washington.

—Texas is troubled with a plethora of cash. Its bonded indebtedness is only $4,500,000, which the holders will not exchange for the money, preferring to draw the interest; and there is in the State Treasury a surplus of more than $2,000,000. The school fund has a surplus of $16,000,000, for nearly half of which no safe investment can be found. The farmers, to whom the State has been selling its lands on forty years' time, with only 5 per cent. interest, in the hope that they would be very dilatory about paying the principal, are piling in the money on the overburdened State Treasurer. The counties are doing the same. To add to its misery the State has 30,000 acres of land yet to sell, which are bringing every year higher and higher prices.

New York Stock Market.

By Telegraph to the Sun.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Contrary to rules, the Stock Market remains firmer and strong, although business grows smaller and smaller; the sales to-day aggregating but 79,000 shares. The market to-day at opening was slightly higher than last night, and further gains were established early, Grangers, Reading and Union Pacific leading—the latter on the announcement that an effort would be made to get the funding bill before the House of Representatives Monday next. The upward movement continued throughout and the close was very firm, with the active list almost invariably higher, though gains are for fractional amounts only, except in Michigan Central, which rose 1½, and Oregon Improvement and Manitoba, 1¼ per cent each.

Discouraging to Crows.

Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

Just now the crow digs for a living, and the cornfields are in the array of rags and jags and junk bottles. You all know the paraphernalia of the chevaux de frise to ward off the crow. You all remember the divers windmills and the wonderful contrivances of the scarecrow. A man up in Leeds, however, has the call on all such contrivances. His name is Lathrop, and he has sickened the crow so thoroughly that to-day he and the crow are not even on speaking terms. When planting-time comes Mr. Lathrop mixes his corn up with a solution of coal-tar until the kernels look like licorice cough drops. He plants this, and lo! it sprouts and grows thrifflily, and no crow touches it twice. Mr. Lathrop sits by the door of his house and enjoys himself to see the crows come in the early spring. They caw over his field gleefully, as if to say that there was a corn-lot with no corn-trap. They settle down and dig, and they swallow a kernel or two. They rarely swallow three. Something sets them to thinking and they drop over on the other side of the fence and sit down and even lie down to think. Some of them plainly cogitate the great conundrum: "is life worth living?" and it is said that the woods in that vicinity are sad with tarred corn that sets uneasily on the stomach of the crow. They never come again. A crow may forgive, but he never forgets, and the remembrance of coal-tar on the stomach is a continual sadness and a riotous nightmare forever and forever.

A Move in the Right Direction.

Asheville, N. C. June 29.

EDITORS SUN:—Will you allow a two-thirds citizens of North Carolina (being the senior member of one hardware house in Richmond, Va., and two in N. C.—one at Durham and one in your flourishing and business city of Asheville,) space to say a few words. I was made glad this morning by reading in your sprightly and wide-awake daily, the report of the Young Men's Democratic Club meeting held in the court house last evening. Their resolutions are good and the committee adopted the right thing in voting for uniforms. The times and occasion are worthy such action on the part of the young and old democracy of this gallant old State. Rich as she is in agriculture, minerals and great men, she deserves a front place in the politics of our country. My object is, as a summer resident, to identify myself with the Cleveland and Thurman club. Put me down for $10, to add to the fund for uniforms. I only wish that my health would permit an humble citizen of this great and glorious Union of States to take an active part in the canvass this fall. My opinion is that Cleveland and Thurman will sweep the country, as the illustrious grandfather of the republican nominee, Gen. Wm. Henry Harrison, did in 1840. Let us have in 1888 just such another canvass and election, which will crush out the monopolies' and trust companies' party—republicanism. Apologizing for the intrusion of a non-resident, I am Truly, CLAIBORNE WATKINS, of Richmond, Va.
