NEW YORK, June 30th, 1888.-Hubbard, Price & Co's circular to-day says: There was less general animation in the option market, with the cast averaging somewhat lower. The opening demonstrated no special disposition to sustain values, owing to free selling for European and southern ports. New crop has shown a decided weakness with material result in shading August contracts. Cotton on the spot seems in no demand and the stock is increasing.

SENATE. The Senate met at 11 a. m., with less than a dozen senators present, and re sumed consideration of the river and harbor bill.

Among the amendments agreed to were those adding half a million dollars to the Mississippi river appropriation, and inserting one million and one hundred thousand dollars for the Missouri river; inserting a provision (in lieu of one struck out) for an examination and survey of the Cape Fear river, N. C., from Wilmington to the ocean (with the view feet deep at mean low water.) Amendment for reducing the appropriation for dredging Chineopeague Bay, Va., from $50,000 to $25,000, was on the reccommendation of the committee, disagreed to.

of making a navigable channel twenty ship canal from LaSalle, Ill., to lake Michigan, near Chicago, provoked a good deal of discussion, along with the Hennepin canal amendment, which was linked with it in the debate. It was finally amended and then agreed to, as adopted. It reads: "For the purpose of securing a continuous navigable waterway between Lake Michigan and the Mississippi river, having a capacity and facilities adequate for the passage of the largest Mississippi river steamboats and of naval vessels, suitable for defense in time of; the war Secretary of war is authorized and directed to cause to be made proper surveys, plans and estimates for channel improvements and locks and draws in the beds of the Illinois and Des plaines rivers, from LaSalle to Lockport so as to provide a navigable water-way not less than one hundred and sixty feet wide and not less than fourteen feet deep, and to have surveyed and located a channel from Lockport to lake Michigan, at or near the city of Chicago; such channel to be suitable for the purposes aforesaid. The necessary expenses of such surveys, estimates, plans and location, to be paid out of the sum herein appointed for the improvement of the Illinois river."

An amendment directing the secretary of war to locate a canal from the Illinois river at Hennepin to the Mississippi river at the mouth of Rock river | was then agreed to, after a protest by Mr. Vest, that it would commit the Government and trading was entirely professional in character. There was an inclination to advance early, but prices soon reacted and dealings extending to 34 per cent were established. The market closed dull, leaving prices fractionally lower than last evening, though a few stocks show small advances.
