CONGRESSIONAL.

Proceedings in the House and Senate Yesterday.

By Telegraph to the Sun. HOUSE.

After Mr. Hemphill, of South Carolina, had made an earnest but unsuccessful effort to call up the District of Columbia business, the House went into committee of the whole, Mr. Springer, in the Chair, on the tariff bill. The pending question being on Mr. Cannon's amendment. Mr. Wilkinson, of La., desired to correct what he deciared to be misstatements made by a gentleman on the other side, to the effect that the sugar industry of La, was a languishing industry, an industry hundred and forty million pounds could hardly be termed as a languishing industry. It had been called a corpse, but if that were so it was the liveliest corpse the world has ever heard of. He quoted and denied the assertion of the gentleman from Iowa, Mr. Holmes, that a gigantic sugar trust was gotten up for Louisiana. Those twelve hundred planters who employ between two and three hundred thousand persons, instead of being in with the sugar trust were competitors of the sugar trust, and instead of helping to put the prices up were helping to put it down. In substantiation of this view he quoted from the testimony before the committee on manufacture to the effect that Louisiana planters had reduced the price of sugar, and he was further substantiated by Mr. Buchanan, of New Jersey, who as a member of that committee stated that the trust was unfriendly to the Louisiana planters.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 9 .- The Senate bill granting land warrants to soldiers and sailors of the Seminole war in 1856, was reported back adversely from the Committee on Public Lands, and was indefinitely postponed.

A motion to refer to the Committee on Pension one of the vetoed pension bills, was made the ground work of a speech by Mr. Stewart against the frequent exercises of the veto power by the President. There had been, he said, about 200 bills vetoed by Cleveland, most of them pension bills. As the average monthly pension was $12 per month, the whole of those bills involved an expenditure of only about $2,400 a month. Admitting that they were wrong, that the committees of both Houses had been remiss in their duties, and that both houses had been inattentive to their responsibilities, still he asked whether the necessity was so great as to warrant the executive department of the government to assume legislative powers. No reason could be suggested why the form of government should be changed to save such a pittance. He protested against the exercise of such power by the President.

Mr. Vest characterized Mr. Stewart's proposition as monstrous, and declared that the President was as much required, under his oath of office to scrutinize the smallest pension bill and give it his approval or return it with his objections as he was required to do with the largest appropriation bill. To hold anything else in respect to the veto power would be to render that provision of the Constitution nugatory and make the government that which Mr. Hamilton intended to make it, a government of unlimited congressional power. The novel proposition that the amount involved in | This is between here and Athens, Ohio, the bill had anything to do with the construing of the Constitution was an absolutely unfounded construction. The bill was referred to the Committee on Pensions. The Senate then, on motion of Mr. Cullom, proceeded to the consideration of the Senate bill to amend the Inter State Commerce Act. The most important changes in the existing law are the following: Requiring reductions in published rates of fares or charges to be made only after three days notice, prohibiting advances in joint rates of fares, and charges (shown upon joint tariffs) to exist after ten days notice to commission, adding imprisonment in the penitentiary to the penalty provided for the violation of the law as to unlawful discriminations in rates, making false billing, false classification, false weighing or false report of weight, a misdemeanor, punishable by fine of not exceeding $5,- cents at 1071/8 and 1071/4.

000 and imprisonment in the penitentiary for not exceeding two years for each offense, making payment of any consideration to induce unjust discrimination a misdemeanor subject to like penalty, providing that the act shall not be construed so as to prevent free carriage of destitute and homeless persons transported by charitable societies and necessary agents, employed in such transportation, or giving of reduced rates to municipal governments for transportation of indigent persons, or making of arrangements with National or State homes for the transportation of soldiers.

Mr. Reagan offered an amendment (which was agreed to) giving the United States Circuit and District Courts jurisdiction of violations of any provisions of the act upon the selection of any person which last year had produced three or firm with the power toissue peremptory writ of mandamus. Mr. Reagan said he had given notice of an amendment to the existing provisions of the act to express companies, sleeping car companies and stock car companies, but as it was likely to provoke discussion and to retard the passage of the bill, he would reserve the proposition for the next session.

the benefit of twelve hundred planters of Mr. Teller made a similar statement in regard to an amendment which would prevent railroad companies from charging higher rates from the Pacific coast to Denver than to Kansas City, 600 miles East of Denver. He did not wish to embarrass the pending bill, but he gave notice to the railroad companies that he would join with others to see that those companies discontinued voluntarily such outrageous proceedings. or to compel them to do so.

Mr. George asked Mr. Cullom whether the committee had considered the question of prohibiting shippers from being owners of cars used in transportion of The committee of the whole has reject their goods. He understood the provi ty of rights and of rates between shippers was made in this manner for instance by shippers owning oil cars and thus driving smaller competitors out of the market. Mr. Cullom replied that the committee had done nothing in the matter, and that in his judgment it could not afford to do so. In connection he referred to the dressed beef business, and said that at first the railroad companies had not provided the necessary cars for that business but were now beginning to do so. He did not use his own cars, but it was within the power of the commission to see to it that no undue advantage was given to shippers not owning

The Trouble in the Iron Mills.

By Telegraph to the Sun. PITTSBURG, PA., July 9,-The Structural Iron Co. of New Albany, Ind., signed amalgamated scale, making 19 firms that have so far granted the demands of the working men. The situation at Singer, Nickel & Co's works has not changed. The mill was in partial operation to-day, with about 200 men, and the firm claimed that they would have no trouble in getting all the workmen necessary to run their plant in full. Amalgamated association and Knights of Labor have declared war against the mill and all members who return to work before the scales are signed will be black

The galvanizing department at Morehead, MacLean & Co's. started up this morning with their old workmen at last year's wages, pending settlement of the scale by other manufacturers. It is understood among workmen that this firm will sign the scale as soon as they are ready to start other departments.

Terrific Storm in West Virginia By Telegraph to the SUN.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 9.-Two destructive storms have visited this section during the past two days accompanied with thunder, lightning and hail. Violent winds swept the territory within a radius of thirty-five miles, doing a large amount of damage. A ride through the territory yesterday showed that bridges had been swept away, buildings unroosed, trees and fences blown down, and crops in a deplorable condition. and along the Little Kanawha and Ohio river. Two fatalities are reported, John Thomson, a farmer, was instantly killed by lightning, and Howard Jarvis, who attempted to ford a swollen stream at the accustomed place and was washed down with the torrent.

Last night a severe storm added to the destruction. Houses were blown down, cellars flooded, toundations undermined, and a large amount of damage done. Several inches of rain fell, rushing through the streets like a mill race. Roads were washed out, and telegraph lines prostrated, so that news of the actual damdamage outside is coming in slowly.

New York Stock Market.

By Telegraph to the Sun.

NEW YORK, July 9.-The Stock Market displayed but little improvement to-day over that of last week, and it soon drop ped back into the usual dull and listless state. Fluctuations were for the most part confined to some narrow limits with same lack of significance. Only a few of the leading stocks were traded in over a range of more than % per cent. and final changes are generally for small reactions only. Grangers were the most prominent group, and St. Paul led transaction with Reading followed by Western Union, Union Pacific, Mo. Pacific, and Northern Pacific in second rank, but there was very little feature in dealings, and no market movements throughout the entire day. There was a fair demand in the loan crowd and active speculation renewed at flat to 1 per cent. The selling movement slackened off toward the close, and a firmer tone existed for some time, but the close was dull and rather heavy at or near the lowest prices of the day. The amount of business done was 138,000 shares. The result of the day's trading is to leave most of the active stocks fractionally lower than last Saturday. Rock Island lost 13/8 per cent. and North Western 1 per cent.
