THE ASHRVILLE PIONER.

"NO NORTH, NO SOUTH, NO EAST, NO WEST-OUR WHOLE COUNTRY."

VOL. II.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., MAY, 14, 1868.

NO. 49.

THE PIONEER.

A. H. JONES, Ed. and Pub.

TERMS.

HYMAN & GRAVES, Attorneys at Law,

W. W. ROLLINS, United States Claim Agent,

MARSHALL, N. C. TAKE this method to inform the public that I have located in MAISHALL, N.C., and will around to the prosecuting of Back Pay: Bounties, Pensions, &c., &c.

Any person having Claims in my hands, will call on me it or address me by letter. All letters promptly answered urn mall, and full particulars given. claimants are notified as soon as their claims are allowed No fees unless collections are made.

S. V. PICKENS

ILL practice in the Fighth Judicial District. Prompt oplorby industry and integrity to mer LEF Office at Hendersonville, N. C. May 18, 1866, PLANTER'S HOTEL.

TRAVELERS AND ALL PER HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., are requested to look for the sign of the

PLANTER'S HOTEL,

on the West side of Main street. Come all ve that unger and thirst and are weary, and for a reasonathle amount of greenbacks we will attend to your wants and make you comforable. S. P. BRITTAIN. Hendersonville, N. C. Nov. 11, 1867. nov14

WANTED.

WILL PAY CASH FOR ONE HUNDRED Bushels of good sound Corn, Six Thousand counds of Good Hay, and Twenty Thousand Pounds of Bones, in lots of not less than 50 pounds. JOHN B. WEAVER.

DRUGS & MEDICINES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. NONE BUT the purest articles offered for sale. If you do do not wish to be poisoned, but want good medicines, be sure to call on Hendersonville, November 9, 1867.

NOTICE.

desiring to avail themselves of the benefit of the Bankrupt Law, that I have taken the necessary onths and qualified as Register therein, and have opened an office in Asheville, N. C., for the purpose gree injurious, even to the most delicate system, and Office open daily from 10 a. m. till 3 p. m. R. H. CANNON, Register Office No. 2 Roberts' Brick Block.

GEROCE IS I ES. CAREFULLY SELECTED ASSORTMENT Consisting of a large stock of Coffee, Sugar, Twelve packages.

EVERY VARIETY OF LEATHER. If you want good bargains and a good article call and examine my stock.

M. C. TOMS. and examine my stock. M. C. Hendersonville, November 9, 1867.

Boots and Shoes in every variety of style and and at almost every price. HATS AND CAPS FULL SUPPLY OF WINTER GOODS IN

A the above line just to hand. Gall and make J O H N our selections.

M. C. TOMS. Hendersonville, November 9, 1867.

THE SUBSCRIBER IS RECEIVING IN HIS store at HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., every week, the latest styles of

ALL KINDS OF GOODS, which will be sold on accommodating terms. Come stringency of the times, and buy yourselves rich. M. C. TOMS. Hendersonville, November 9, 1867. 25-6m WATCH AND CLOCK MAKERS, Liver Invigorator, PROMPT ATTENTION and care will be given in the line of repairing CLOCKS JEWELRY, de, de, de ALSO

Saddle and Harness Making, in all its branches, done with nuatness and dispatch. Look for sign of Watch

HARDWARE AND CUTLERY. WILL ALWAYS KEEP ON HAND THE best and most reliable manufactures of all kinds of Hardware and Cutlery. M. C. TOMS. Hendersonville, November 9, 1867. 25-6m

WANTED IN EXCHANGE FOR GOODS All Kinds of Country Produce, such as Bacon, Flour, Butter, Furs, or anything worth a dime. Give me a call, in front of the Court House, at the M. C. TOMS. Hendersonville, November 9, 1867.

FRESH AND BEAUTIFUL STOOK OF

Calicoes, Delaines, Domestics,

Cassimeres, Jeans, Ticking, Shawls, Nubies, Hoods, &c Just recei ed and for sale at low prices. Hendersonville, Novnmber 9, 1867.

Assignee's Notice of Appointment. POR THE CAPE PEAR DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA.

In the matter of M. B. Setser, Bankrupt. TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN :- THE undersigned hereby gives notice of his ap-nument as Assignee of M. B. Setser, of Macon pointment as Assignee of M. B. School, within said county, and State of North Carolina, within said District, who has been adjudged a Bankrupt upon his own petition by the District Court of said District.

G. M. ROBERTS, Assignee, Asheville, N. C., April 28, 1867.

CANCY GOODS OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS. Everything in the way of fancy goods kept constantly on hand. We try to please everybody.—

Don't forget the place.

M. C. TOMS.

Handersonville, November 9, 1867.

25-6m

Ap 30

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD CO.

MERICAN WATCH CO.

watches we have ever had in use on this road. As you are aware we formerly trusted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good reputation, but as a class they never keep time as correctly, nor have they done as good service as

In these statements I am sustained by my predece. Lewis, whose experience extended over a series of years.

EDWARD H. WILLIAMS,

American Watch Co., Walthant.

NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD. LOCOMOTEVE DEP'T WESTERN DIVISION.

Gentlemen :- I have no hesitation in saying that I believe perience that WALTHAM WATCHES ARE THE MOST SATISFACTORY of any for their uses. They RUN WITH wrongs from reading and observation. We THE GREATEST ACCURACY and STEADINESS, notwith-Attorney and Consellor at Law, standing the rough riding of an engine; and as I have NEV-I hope to see the time when ratiway companies will generally experience. If you fail us, we are more utadopt your watches, and furnish them all to engineers and terly deserted and betrayed than if the conregularity and safety.

CHARLES WILSON, G. Chief Engineer, American Watch Co., Waltham.

British Provinces. ROBBINS & APPLETON, No. 182 Broadway, N. Y.

TT IS AN UNFAILING REMEDY IN ALL

NO MORE THAN TWO OR THREE PILLS.

Even in the sevenest cases of Chronic Neuralgia and general

HEREBY GIVE NOTICE TO PERSONS the entire system, its use for a few days, or a few weeks at

of receiving petitions and adjudicating thereon ac-

PERFECT SAFETY.

It has long been in constant use by many of our most ex-NEXT PHYSICIANS, Who give it their unanimous and unquali Sent by mail on receipt of price, and postage. It is sold by all wholesale and retail dealers in drugs and

TURNER & CO., Sole Proprietors. he post-office, Asheville, N. C.
Nov-21

6m

> FRESH DRUGS JUST RECEIVED BY

JONES.

THE subscriber has just re ceived a complete Stock of FRESH DRUGS

NIEDICINES

which has been selected with a view to the wants of this section and offers them at prices to suit the Patent Medicines.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

and many other of the most popular medicines. Paints, Oils, and Dye Stuffs, Paint Brushes, &c. A fine stock of · Groceries, Consisting of Sugars, Teas, Coffee, Spices, &c, Confectioneries.

Candies, French and American, Nuts of all kinds. Raisins, Oranges, Lemons, &c. Wines and Liquors for Medical Purposes, I return my thanks for the very liberal patronage

JOHN JONES, Asheville Post Office.

Notice in Bankruptcy.

DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, FOR THE CAPE FEAR DISTRICT OF In Bankruptcy.

North Carolina, against the estate and effects of Washington Broyles, of Asheville, in the County of Buncombe, in said District, who has been adjudged a Bankrupt on his own petition; That the payment of any debts and the delivery of any property belonging to such Bankrupt, to him or for his use, and the transfer of any property by him, are forbidden by law; and that a meeting of the creditors of said Bankrupt, to prove their debts and choose and political. one or more Assignees of said Bankrupt, will be held at a Court of Bankruptey, to be holden at Registers office in Asheville, North Carolina, on the publication of the South, which is the same of the South, which is the sa lic square, before R. H. Cannon, Esq, Register in Bankruptcy for said District, on the sixteenth day of May, A. D., 1868, at 12 o'clock, m. DANIEL R. GOODLOE, U. S. Marshal for said District. Per S. K. STANSILL, Deputy. Ap 30

Job Work neatly executed at this Office.

THE APPEAL OF THE LOYAL MEN OF THE SOUTH

The representatives of eight million American citizens appeal for protection and justice to their friends and brothers in the States that have been spared the crnelties of rebellion and the direct horrors of civil war. Here, on the spot where freedom was proffered and pledged by the fathers of the Republic, we implore your help against a reorganized oppression, whose sole object is to remit the control of our destinies to the contrivers of the rebellion, after they have been ranguished in honorable battle-thus at once to punish us for our devotion to our country, and to entrench themselves in the official fortifications of the Government.

Others have told the thrilling story of our come before you as unchallenged witnesses and speak from personal knowledge our sac aductors. In my opinion it would greatly tend to promote (est of arms had been decided against us; for in that case even victorious slavery would have found profit in the speedy pardon of those who had been among its bravest foes. Unexpected perfidy in the highest place of the Government, accidentally filled by one who adds cruelty to ingratitude, and forgives For sale by all first-class dealers in the United States and the guilty as he proscribes the innocent, ha stimulated the almost extinguished revenge of the beaten conspirators; and now the rebels, who offered to yield everything to save their wn lives, are seeking to consign us to bloody

Where we expected a benefactor we find a persecutor. Having lost our champion, we return to you who can make Presidents and ternative of oligarchy with slavery, or dem-Our last hope, under God, is in the unity and firmness of the States that elected Abraham Lincoln and defeated Jefferson Davis. The best statement of our case is the apalling, yet unconscious confession of Andrew record, proclaims his purpose to clothe four million of traitors with the power to impoverish and degrade eight million of loyal men.

our tyrants, uncheeked by you, will award the same fate to white and black. We can remain as we are only as inferiors We may fly from our homes, but we should denouncing and defeating treason, refused to right those who had bravely assisted them in the good work. Till we are wholly rescued there is neither peace for you nor prosperity for us.

We cannot better define at once our wrongs and our wants than by declaring that, since Andrew Johnson affiliated with his early slanderers and our constant enemies, his hand has been laid heavily upon every earnest foy-alist in the South. History, the just judgment of the present, and the certain confirmation of the future, invites and commands us

That, after rejecting his own remedies for restoring the Union, he has resorted to the weapons of traitors to bruise and beat down al should govern the reconstructed South, he has practised upon the maxim that none but traitors shall rule. That while in the North he has removed of the vacancies with the sympathizers of tion for redress of grievances. treason, in the South he has removed the proved and trusted patriot, and selected the equally proved and convicted traitor. That after brave men who had fought for the old flag had been nominated for positions, rebels substituted. That every original Unionist in the South who stands fast to Andrew Johnson's covenants from 1861 to 1865 has been ostracised. offering premiums for defiance of the laws of sought immunity by secession and war. Congress, and by openly discouraging the observance of the oath against treason.

brought to judgment.

circumstances of unparalleled atrocity. That while denouncing and fettering the ed that the black men are lazy and rebellious,

It has encouraged a new alienation between representatives of the people,

ADDRESS OF SOUTHERN LOYALISTS.

We reproduce the address prepared by a significant committee selected for that purpose on the committee selected for that purpose on the occasion of the meeting of the Convention of the meeting of the Convention of the convention of the meeting of the Convention of the convention of the meeting of the Convention of the c signed to this appeal is that of George W.

Ashburn, who was murdered in cold blood a culminated in the frightful riot at Memphis,

But all Southern men are not yet awed into

TO THEIR FELLOW-CITIZENS OF THE UNITED law is more revolting than that which con- the support and vindication of the Thirty- dition. Every good citizen should exert himtions for that savage carnival, and not only of trolling Union majority in the succeeding or to banish resentment, to heal the wounds of refusing to punish its authors, but of toiling Fortieth Congress.

unoffending and innocent freedmen. crash his own people in Tennessee when they does not come up to the measure of our ex- strengthened in every practicable way. The tor persecutors, was even more eager to illus- lasting protection to all our people; and there- and labor should be encouraged without retrate his savage policy by clothing with the fore we accept it as the best present remedy, gard to the political status of those who may vengful rebels of New Orleans. Notwithstanding this heartless desertion word in the coming election. constitutional government; and by the biest the rebellion is still alive, and that those who would refuse labor to a man, or the biest the rebellion is still alive, and that those who would refuse labor to a man, or the biest will soon range attempt to oppose or defy it will do so at the starve the poor on account of their political the heads of these mid-night cowards and themselves in line with the former free States, risk of their own destruction. enabled these States to intrench themselves spirit of the most enlarged and Christian belind the perverted doctrine of States rights, philanthropy. and sheltered by a claim of constitutional obligation to maintain slavery in the States, pre-peratic republican governments without slav-A forbearing Government, bowing to a apposed constitutional behest, acquiesced in sented to the American Government the althe former alternative. The hand of the Government was staved Johnson, who, in savage hatred of his own for eighty years. The principles of constitutional liberty languished for want of Government support. Oligarchy matured its power with subtile design. Its history for Our wrongs bear alike upon all races, and eighty years is replete with unparalleled "injuries and usurpations." It developed only the agricultural localities-geographically dis-them to unwilling ignorance and poverty, by tion was endangered. denving capital and strangling enterprise.

skill of the free States, from the free-labor lo- believe, have learned by this time that intelli- ly on the Republicans and rebels, but the for- thing. That, after declaring that none but the loy- scription—thus guarding the approaches to and is the lever that moves the world. We taxes, will hold the reins of government; and their slave domain against democracy. Statute books groaned under despotic laws vears.

It mullified the constitutional guarantees of to her. freedom of speech and the press. It deprived citizens of the other States of their names have been recalled and avowed the "privileges and immunities" in these Mechanic art had been despised. Husband- latter, instead of profiting or prospering by The following are from the New England best interests of the States themselves, of the four years that followed forced loans, the field of battle for the overthrow of the That while refusing to punish one single con- impressments, conscription, with blood-hounds government she owed allegiance to, she lack- lon, "that we be not partakers of her sins." spicuous traitor, though thousands had earn- and bayonet, murder of aged Union men, who ed those means of success, without which ed the penalty of death, more than a thousand had long laid aside the implements of labor, war is not only the greatest folly, but also an the starving-to the poor widows and orof devoted Union citizens have been murder- but had been summoned anew to the field by unpardonable sacrifice of precious lives and phans of the dead Confederate soldiers—to food. ed in cold blood since the surrender of Lee, the conscription of their sons, to support chil- treasure. and in no case have their assassins been dren and grandchildren, reduced from comfort to the verge of starvation; the slaughter That he has pardoned some of the worst of of noble youths, types of physical manhood, the rebel criminals, North and South, includ- forced into an unboly war against those with ing some who have taken human life under whom they were identified by every interest, Experience will show her the superior influlong months of incarceration in rebel bastiles;

and has concealed the fact that more whites ed, defeated them. They lost. What did to the manufacture of those commodities than blacks have been protected and fed by they lose? The cause of oligarchy? They lost which her streams afford abundant facilities, that noble organization; and that, while de- African slavery by name only. Soon as the slie will achieve an independence and prosclaring that it was corruptly managed and tocsin of War ceased-soon as clang of arms perity that will in future years surpass the ed at a system of profligacy in the use of the ate admission," and with that watchword seek justly an honorable place in the councils of public patronage and public money wholly to organize, under new forms, a contest to the nation. without parallel, save when the traitors bank- perpetuate their unbridled sway. They reha- There are many in our section, even now, rupted the treasury, and sought to disorgan- bilitate their sweeping control of all local and who aim at influence, and who for personal by Union men, and sworn to enforce the laws against returned rebels, and made them the mere instruments of the authors of the rebellion.

It has one one of the laws against location and sworn to enforce the laws against location and shall have better times. But, let every one work, she can. Every man ought to somewhere, with somebody, and some price.

It has one of the residential prigrim, giving a restament to a boy who had in-treating to a boy who h

Southern lovalists at Philadelphia, September, cute the teachers of the colored schools, and in the presence of treason, or whisper in bat-1866. It is significant that the last name to burn the churches in which the freedmen ed breath. Strong men hesitate openly to

But all Southern men are not yet awed into race and friends in the late struggle." few weeks ago at his home, in Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply because of his fidelity to the Un
Columbus, Georgia, simply beca Griesas, was as natural as that a bloody war should flow from the teachings of John C. Calhoun and Republican principles. We were a member of that memorable Convention, and made Mr. Ashburn's acquaintance. He was an ardent friend to the interests of our common country, and to the progress of universal freedom and equal justice te all. For the promulgation of these views his name has promulgation of these views his name has been added to the many who have died marty on the after of Liberty by the hands of the later of the later of Liberty by the hands of the later of Liberty by the l

No page in the record of his recent out. Our last and only hope is in the unity and out employment, and with no prospect of emrages upon human justice and constitutional fortitude of the loyal people of America in ployment. Hundreds are in a starving convicts him of refusing to arrest the prepara- Ninth Congress, and in the election of a con- self under such circumstances to allay strife, to throw the guilty responsibility upon the While the new article amending the National Constitution offers the most liberal con-The infatuated tyrant that stood ready to ditions to the authors of the rebellion, and being still further impaired, should be were struggling to maintain a government pectations, we believe its ratification would erected by himself against his and their trai- be the commencement of a complete and most despotic power the impenitent and re- and appeal to our brothers and friends in the ask for labor. The writer of this has been in and cruel persecution by Andrew Johnson in the States of Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, the States of Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, success. However little the verdict of the yet he has never even asked one of his employment to scores of voters; their resources. Thousands and thousands of colored people have been terrified from the yet he has never even asked one of his employment. West Virginia, Maryland, and Delaware, ballot-box may effect the reckless man in the ployees how he was going to vote, and he has democratic republican principles Presidential chair, we cannot doubt that the never proscribed or punished an employee for which the fathers of the Republic designed traitors and sympathizers he has encouraged voting his honest sentiments. But this should for all America-are now making determined will recognize that verdict as the surest indi-not prevent him from protecting his friends, battle with the oligarchical enemies of free cation that the mighty power which crushed nor from retaliating in a just and manly way and illustrate the wisdom and beneficence of Our confidence in the overraling providence the great charter of American liberty by their of God prompts the prediction and intensiincreasing population, wealth, and prosperity. fies the belief that when this warning is suffi-In the remaining ten States the seeds of ciently taught to these misguided and reckoligarchy, planted in the Constitution by its less men, the liberated millions of the rebelslavery features; have grown to be a monster lious South will be proffered those rights and power. Recognition thus wrung from the franchise which may be necessary to adjust reluctant framers of that great instrument and settle this mighty controversy in the

Geo. W. Paschal, of Texas, chairman. R. O. Sidney, of Mississippi. JOHN H. ATKINSON, of West Virginia. John A. Alldernice, of Delaware. A. W. Hawkins, of Tennessee. SAMUEL KNOX, of Missouri. WRIGHT R. FISH, of Louisiana. MILTON J. SAFFOLD, of Alabama. Philip Fraser, of Florida. D. R. GOODLOE, of North Carolina. D. C. Forney, of District of Columbia JOHN A. J. CRESWELL, of Maryland.

G. W. Ashburn, of Georgia.

The Hope of the South. slaves. It held four millions of human be- wealth, which need only the busy hand of In- same weapons, or expect to be destroyed.

But now the South may enter upon a is not the supreme good she has already learned in the disastrous years of the past. ence of material wealth in national councils, banishment from homes and hearthstones, are but while gold is not the chief object of But Democracy, North and South combin- to agriculture, to the working of her mines

"We must taboo and ignore all postates to their color and kindred. We must give the preference, in all our business transactions, to merchants, trad-ers, mechanics, and laborers, who stood by their war, and to encourage the people of all classes and colors to improve their condition .-Confidence between man and man, instead of starving should be cared for, no matter what may have been their political views or course, North and the West to make it their watch- public life twenty-five years. He has been, for most of this time, a decided partizan, and

The rebels have the advantage just now in the ownership of the lands and in the means of business that enable them to give employment to labor. It seems they are determined to-morrow, from ten to fifteen thousand more to avail themselves of this advantage without votes would be polled for the Constitution. regard to consequences, by a system of proscription towards their opponents the most make it, but we feel sure it would not.

must protect ourselves. A savage war, which would scourge honest labor from fields and workshops, and from domestic and public employment, on account of political opinions honestly entertained and honestly voted, must . J. H. Croighton sonds the be met in a spirit of just, exacting, persistent ims to the Dayton Journal: retaliation. If Republicans, whether humble or exalted, are "tabooed and ignored," they Our sunny clime must devote all her ener- must do the same in return. If the savage tinct from the free-labor localities, and less gies to the development of her material re- make war upon you with the tomahawk and not be expected the same year. than one-third of the whole-with African sources. In these lie hidden vast means of scalping knife, you must fight him with the fear to trust our fate with those who, after ings as chattels, yet made them the basis of dustry to enrich our people and increase our Republicans must also give the preference in escape for one year in one place. unjust representative power for themselves power. In the past, in striving for political trade and business to their own friends. Ev in Federal and State Governments to main- aggrandizement, "the South" has neglected ery office and every employment, from the abundant opportunities for advancement in lowest to the highest, must be in Republican foot high. It excluded millions of free white laborers wealth, and unconsciously to herself has let hands. No man who is not an open and from the richest agricultural lands of the slip the sceptre which she might have wielded avowed Republican must be permitted to eat world. Forced them to remain, inactive and for years to come. Political ambition has a crust of bread from town, county, or State two for every one that dies. of the whole South in square miles and real inaugurated a system of caste prejudicial to be wielded to argument and exalt the Republication that knows less than you do. undeveloped wealth-simply because these liberty and the best interests of the nation. lican party, and to depress and destroy the 7. Don't cut off a big lower limb unless localities were agriculturally too poor for slave It has caused her to cling to the errors of the labor. Condemned them to agriculture, on past so persistently that treason itself had no and placed solely in loyal hands. The justithis unagricultural territory, and consigned terrors when she believed her favorite instituces of the peace, soon to be appointed by the Governor, must all be fire-tried Republicans. the ground is worth two trees trimmed up All this was a mistaken idea of the true Taxes must be levied to support those who live feet, and worth four trees trimmed up It repelled the capital, energy, will, and source of power. Our people, we would fain are starving. It is true, they will fall equal-ten feet, and so on till they are not worth any calities, by unmitigated intolerance and pro- gent Industry dignifies and exalts a nation, mer will have all the offices, will handle the have been taught the lesson in the last four thus they will not feel this pressure as their 11. If you had your arm out off, you would Rebel'enemies will. Public works must be feel it to your heart-a tree will not feel, but against unlawful and insurrectionary assem- There was a valor in the South all through undertaken, which will give employment to rot to the heart. blies; aimed at the constitutional guarantees the war worthy of a better cause; but the surplus loyal labor. The national govern- 12. When anybody tells you of a gardener conscientious men from office and filled many of the right to peacably assemble and peti- North-despised in the beginning as a foe- ment will step in to aid the State, in this that understands all about horticulture and man unworthy of her steel-by force of su- work of protecting and upholding, worthy agriculture, and that he can be hired, don't It proscribed democratic liferature as in- perior wealth and encouragement of labor, poor of both races. And in these ways, and believe a word of it, for there are no snot to

The South was not prepared for the conse- sustained in this savage war which is waged enough to understand the business, he will quences which her course brought upon her. upon them by the Rebel leaders; and these also have enough to know this. States, an injury and usurpation alike unjust ry was deemed only fitting for the slave .- the unchristain course they have adopted, Farmer; to Northern citizens, and destructive of the Commercial enterprise was only worthy of a will in the end see that their only reward has A farmer provided with a good grindstone few lucre-loving spirits who would barter been the bitter ashes of revenge. We know is apt to cut his way smoothly through the Alarmed at the progress of democracy, in their honorable name and illustrious lineage there are some high-minded, honorable men, world. That he has corrupted the local courts by the face of every discouragement, at last it for gold. Everything in fact that contribu identified with this very wicked Rebel party, The best way to apply the whip to your ted to national greatness was frowned upon who do not sanction this course, but whose team, is to give it in the shape of oats in the The heart sickens with the contemplation by the South; and when she entered upon feelings revolt against it. We say to these crib. gentlemen, come out from this modern Baby To the afflicted poor-to the destitute and the poor widows and orphans of the dead Union soldiers, and of those who were shot brighter future. The political advancement or hanged because they leved the flag-to white and colored, who know not this hour how, to-morrow, they may get a crust of bread-to the stricken and sorrowing-to all loyal hearts we say, be of good cheer, for the hour of your redemption draweth nigh. operations of the Freedmen's Bureau, he, with but a partial recital of the long catalogue of a full knowledge of the falsehood, has charged a mighty sceptre. If she turns her attention a mighty sceptre. But while gold is not the chief object of the sinew of the world and wields a mighty sceptre. They are the sinew of the falsehood, has charged a mighty sceptre. They are the sinew of the sinew of the sinew of the sinew of the world and wields a mighty sceptre. They are the sinew of will be better, and that right soon. Bear this savage war which is waged upon you very likely, owe their present position to some by the Rebel leaders-bear it with an un- not very remote ancestor, who, recognizing broken spirit, though the body be weak his call to work, fived more honestly in the from much fasting, and though the children expensive to the Government, he has conniv- was hushed—they raise the cry of "immedi- fondest dreams of her statesmen and give her still cry for bread, for we tell you that the soiled thumbs. It is one of the meanest fondest dreams of her statesmen and give her things for nearly to the statesmen and give her things for nearly to the statesmen and give her things for nearly to the statesmen and give her things for nearly that will in future years surpass the still cry for bread, for we tell you that the things for nearly that will in future years surpass the still cry for bread, for we tell you that the things for nearly that will in future years surpass the still cry for bread, for we tell you that the things for nearly that will in future years surpass the still cry for bread, for we tell you that the still cry for bread, for we tell you that the still cry for bread, for we tell you that the still cry for bread is the still cry for bread in the still hand of the man who traces these lines is things for people to be ashamed of the work stronger to-day—thanks be to God and the people!—that all the Rebel hands in this which glorified their ancestors more with State; and he is pledged to you by a solemn their soiled aprons and black gowns, than ize and scatter the army and the navy, only State organizations. The Federal Executive, aggrandizement, would drag the South through to make it more easy to capture and destroy easily seduced violds a willing shall be a fine thing to be In the matter of Washington Broyles, Bankt. to make it more easy to capture and destroy easily seduced, yields a willing obedience to the slippery paths of Politics—these are our bis old masters. Added by his old masters. Added by his old masters. Added by his old masters. NOTICE is hereby given that on the twentysixth day of February, A. D., 1868, a Warrant of the United was issued out of the District Court of the Care Fear District of North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of

North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of
North Carolina against the estate and of the Care Fear District of North Carolina against the estate and the care of the sum of the states and busy hands are the sum of the sum gress, simply because it recognizes the loyal er, they now defiantly enter the lists in the song of politicians, and are satisfied with a by the Legislature, and by a loyal magistramajority, and refuses to perpetrate the traitor loyal North, and seek to wring from freemen gradual acquisition of wealth, they will reap gradual acquisition of wealth, they will reap an endorsement of their wicked designs. That in every State south of Mason and Every foul agency is at work to accomplish Let them trust to their own instincts and not to devise measures, and to promote a conditional conditions are the most satisfactory rewards in future time. Let them trust to their own instincts and not to devise measures, and to promote a conditional conditions. Dixon's line his "policy" has wrought the this result. Falsely professing to assent to the demagogues who live to the advice of the demagogues who live most deplorable consequences, social, moral, and political.

It is equally honorable.

It is equally honorable. in the Union. Yet a little while, and bread Good Apvice .- An editor with at eye to at least can be had from the gathered crops, payment for what he sells, indulges in this West Virginia, and Tennessee, unless the patriots who saved and sealed these States to the particle of philosophy: Every man ought the old flag surrender before their arrogant revolutionary drame. Processis time and the same that the same that the same the same that t the old flag surrender before their arrogant demands.

The old flag surrender before their arrogant revolutionary drama. Proscriptive public sion to relate an ancedote of the little girl come out—immigrants will come in—confidence in business will revive—labor will be ought to work to suit his customers, if her It has corrupted high State officials, elected by the example of the Presidential pilgrim, giving a Testament to a boy who had ill-treat- gin to receive some living reward, and we can. Every wife should hold her tengue, if mand a living. This is the secret, after all, of success in life; and thus it is that labor can command capital as capital does labor. Let no one say that we have advised scription either socially or in business ters, save in self-defence. But we do not it in self-defence. We have been driven We deplore it, but we accept it as dier does the musket on the field of b

The Rebel Spirit

From all sections of the State is told the same tale of persecution, intimidation, bribery, threats and frauds, resorted to by the rebels for the purpose of carrying the late election. Social ostracism was carried to the last extremity. Rebel physicians were not to attend the sick bed of a Republican. No good "Southern man" was to buy a cent's worth of anything from a "scallawag." Colored men were to be bundled into the streets i they voted the Republican ticket, and wer to be paid extra if they kept away from if polls. The Ku-Klux Klans exhausted all polls, and they have intimidated white voters in neighborhoods where there were few Re publicans, by placing coffins before their doors, and threatening them with death if they should dare to vote their sentiments prowlers. They must be brought to fustice. The voice of mercy and forgiveness has been heard long enough. It is high time for justice to speak. Should the election come off One good thing has resulted from all the rebel bitterness and violence in the late cam-exacting and merciless in its character. Their paign. There are now no Conservative Reminds are clearly and finally made up to this publicans. Feeble knees have been made course. . We regret it, but it is so. If we strong, and weak back-bones have become could alter it, we would. If we thought any iron. The fierce fires through which the Reappeal from us would move them we would publicans have passed during the last few months have burnt out the generosity and What then? All political power in this magnanimity which characterized their action State will soon pass into Republican hands, in the late Convention. The mildest men We shall soon have all the prestige, all the amongst us no longer counsel liberal measures. patronage, and all the power of the national but are now standing on the highest ground and State governments on our side. We of Radicalism, We are all Radicals now Conciliating rebels belongs to the past, [Raleigh Standard.

Horticultural and Agricultural Maxims.

. J. H. Craighton sands the following max 1. When fruit trees occupy the ground nothing else should-except very short grass. 2. Fruitfulness and growth of the true can-

3. There is no plum that the curculio wil not take, though any kind may sometimes 4. Peach borers will not do much duringe when stiff clay is heaped up round the tree a

5. Pear blight still puzzles the greatest men. The best remedy known is to plant unproductive, on the mineral, manufacturing, been her great foe. It has paralyzed her end and lumber localities—comprising two-thirds ergies and made Labor degrading. It has every industrial, every political interest must hire a man from the other side of the sea > you are a renter, and don't care what becomes 8. A tree with the limbs coming out near

10. Shorten in, not lengthen up.

became her conqueror and now dictates terms in every conceivable way that is just and be hired. Such a man can make more than honorable, Republicans will be protected and you can afford to give him, and if he has sense

The stomach of the swine resembles the human; therefore his need for warm, cooked

Concerr.-We call the following from Dr. appin's lecture on the "Nobility of Labor:" Hardly anything is more contemptible than the conceit which rests merely upon social position-the conceit of those who imagine that they thus are divorced from the clay of common men, of those who shrink with horror from the idea of work, as something which degrades by its very contact, and yet who, world than they do, and was not ashamed of the fact that manual drudgery may be per-formed in the same spirit as that which char-

drew Johnson stends com-