INTERESTING BOY

Are not the times hard and the papers so thick that many of them are dying for want of a paying patronage who then add to their number Now as the celebrated John Wanamaker says We are the friends of all and enemies of none we will not reflect on any brother editor who is trying to make ends and for all time future do respectfully solicit a new deal in the job printing and book binding line in Asheville We are unprejudiced as to party and with a full line of type and a skilled force to run it we hope to please all who may favor us with their printing Give us a call

REGULATION CANALS ETC

The phenomenal success of the Suez canal coupled with the attention now given to irrigation are objections for students of physical progress in that through them we know projects for the future of the great world to be played within reach of the people and be like air as water, God's world-wide scattered gifts This will tend we think, to spread intelligence, improve morals and develop the energy of the coming race Already the tides rise, in spite of Cassandra forebodings This may not be the Gospel, but like temperance, patience and meekness may add to its force, and improve its practicability

After much hesitation I have concluded that it is necessary for us to
