MISS HINTS WEDDING.

There are many of the women in this city who are just like the girl who was mentioned in the first paragraph of the article on page 10 of the 27th issue of the Gleaner. They are just like the girl who was mentioned in the first paragraph of the article on page 10 of the 27th issue of the Gleaner. Another one goes and I am left. As to the matter of honor, I cannot tell who were there near the best man and the ushers walk through I did wish to be one of these, but no, I was left out and only credit of being there I cannot say more, but had the pleasure of being at the church wedding and when I came out, sad.

nate them two by their States only, it is not fit that an effort should be made to confine them to localities. As for the other two contestants, they are not in the competition at all. This is the best that Fuller can do, according to the confession of his own autograts.

Of all who dance at Battery Park, I'd rather dance with him. None like that dancing spark as he is.

What is the meaning of the fact that the girl who was mentioned in the first paragraph of the article on page 10 of the 27th issue of the Gleaner is just like the girl who was mentioned in the first paragraph of the article on page 10 of the 27th issue of the Gleaner.

papers in town, that we have seen. Yet, due credit is done for the interest in which the late Mr. Nye took in the GLEANER in his life time and no doubt did his best to get our young Hero into notice, for if there were any two men more alike it was these two editors, Mr. Nye and Mr. Fuller. The only difference was, that Mr. Fuller had a soap suds and Nye did not, but in all else they were identical.

As a letter writer, Bill Nye, whose writings have reached the hearts of New England houses through the columns of the Gleaner, has a very interesting and delightful history of his own life, as a newspaper editor.

and thus refresh my memory. Then the large red headed boy, who had not formed the knot hole habit, went to the head of the class and remained there. After I grew larger my parents sent me to a military school. This is where I got the fine military bearing and stately carriage that I still wear.

My room was on the second floor and it was very difficult for me to look out at night because the window looked up at 90 degrees. I used to get out on a scaffold and water around the street light. Late one night I was in bed, and I was thinking of why I had it. I was thinking of why I had it. I was thinking of why I had it.

After that I was called the great somnambulist and men who had watermelon conservatories shunned me. But it cured me of my somnambulism. I have never had to somnambulate any more since that time.

There are other little incidents of my life that come flooding into my memory at times, but they are too trivial to mention. Let me say, again, that I owe a great virtue to man, that I owe to admire by all womanhood is courage.

I have noticed in the last assembly boys with grey beards on which the best of bronze was made out of canvas, captured from the enemy. I stand assured of your physical courage.

More courage and your intelligence at the ballot box be equal to your still sturdy right arm, this republic will be perpetuated and honored by the same Grand Army, by its noble remnants at least, that saved the cause of liberty twenty-five years ago.

part of the speaking, Mr. or Mrs. Caudel? Were I a man I should have public speaking by women as a business, in disgust. When Volcanus is in a state of eruption Achaia is quiet, but if a tradition be correct, women are not lacking in influence. Tradition be correct women then would be lacking in fluency of distinction indeed, it has been seriously questioned whether women partake of a time there were science in Heaven for the space of half an hour, then it depended on the required, women can trace back their Arabical further than men, for Eve was the original creator.

It is to persuade after dinner prodding for it was, you remember after the apples that we and all of my surprise as regards sex, I took to the men. God bless them said I to your commander, at five minutes speech at your camp fire. No repeat, no speech should be longer than five minutes. Good gracious, do you think you can do justice to men in five minutes? A good may worship the stars and yet be able to select one bright, peculiar planet for future abode, while an ardent fisherman can break those who seek the best rod and he can live in emergency of the turtle's side, a single mountain is much better than the prevalence of green mountains, in providing a safe harbor to the eye of a man as he approaches a dark sea shore. Let me say, again, that I owe a great virtue to man, that I owe to admire by all womanhood is courage.

Snow In San Francisco.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—There was a fall of snow here for the first time in ten years. The fall was quite heavy, while it continued, but the snow melted as fast as it fell, and at the end of 10 minutes turned to a cold rain. The last snowstorm here occurred in 1880-7, when the ground was covered to a depth of several inches.

LOWELL, Mass., March 3.—Governor Greenhalge passed a comfortable night under operation. The doctors feel more hopeful.
