the position vacated by Mr. McKee.
As the Entella is now the recognized nitely known what function the old establishment will perform as a way side inn.

The Baptist Christmas tree at the court-house on Monday night was nothing if not a success. The long curving branches of the festive holly were filled with gifts, both substantial and novel. The reflections of the flickering glow of variegated lights combined to show a harmonious blending of beauty and elegance. The most prominent and really commendable feature of the event was the fact that the most valuable and helpful presents were distributed among the poorer children.

Figure on This.

A certain man was born on Sunday. His birthday comes only every four years.

1st. On what day of the month did his birth occur?

2d. How many days were there in the year in which he was born?

3d. How often does his birthday occur on Sunday?

The first day of May in any year comes on the same day of the week that the first day of the immediately following year comes in on.

Please show the reason for this, and why it never fails to be the case.
Is every year that is divisible by four a leap year? If not, what years are excepted, and why are they excepted?

L. W. KERR.

The Methodist Christmas Tree.

Christmas has come and gone, and we, by special request, notice a few things that transpired. The occasion will ever be remembered as quiet and enjoyable, and no doubt all the people enjoyed themselves.
The special feature was the Chris-mas tree at the Methodist church Monday night. It was the writer's pleasure to be there, and it indeed made us feel glad to behold the beautiful arrangements and see the children enjoy what had been prepared for them. The tree was a success—more so than ever was our opportunity to witness before.

The committee appointed for the purpose decorated the church from end to end in a tasty manner, and just back of the center of the church was located three beautiful holly tree laterally packed with valuable presents mostly for the poor children of the Sunday school. Was candles of various colors sparkled over the trees.

During the program Superintendent Newby introduced that pleasant gentleman, the Rev. Chalmers Moore who delivered a very appropriate address to the delight and enjoyment of all.

After the distribution of presents everybody went home rejoicing with the children in that which they had long been looking for and feeling that the occasion had been a success.
May the richest blessing rest upon us all this year.

E. V.

"The Rough Diamond."

This comedy was advertised for Christmas night, and promptly on time the curtain went up on the first scene, the pretty country home of Sir William Evergreen.

As before stated, it was produced by home folks, but the reader must not allow interest to wane because of it. Every character was selected because of individual fitness, and nothing was left undone that would enhance the appearance of the production or augment the ability of the players.

Limited space precludes the taking up of individual parts, but it is sufficient to observe that every act was liberally applauded.

The monotony of long intermissions was relieved by songs from good singers, the duet, "Cathline," by Mrs. O. K. Collins and Miss Mary Stedman, being among them.
The introduction of these names is a guarantee of good singing.

The success of the undertaking together with the expressed wishes of our people have induced the management to reproduce it. Next time it will be magnified and added to, making it much more enjoyable than even the first.

Hand-bills, local notices and other advertisements will notify you of its advent. Look out for them.

Indians Allowed to Work Out.

In the Washington correspondence of last Sunday's News & Observer the following paragraph appeared:

"Secretary Hoke Smith has Decided to extend the 'outing system,' so called, to all government Indian schools, both on and off reservation, where there are scholars old enough to profit by it. By this system a certain portion of the scholars, both boys and girls, are allowed to work for farmers in the neighborhood.
The Indians are found willing and efficient and the demand for them has become greater than the schools can supply. A circular has been prepared in the Indian Office to be sent out to agents and school superintendents asking that suitable families be sought out where the young Indians are wanted and can find good homes."

Card of Thanks.

A pleasant surprise came to the Presbyterian mausoleum on Christmas morning in the shape of a nice Christmas box. It was filled with valuable presents, and was sent to myself and mother by the good people of the Presbyterian church.
This thoughtfulness on the part of our people has touched our hearts, and we pray that in return God's richest blessings may rest upon them. We take this opportunity to return our sincere thanks.

CHALMERS MOORE.

"Here's the Last of Henry Clay."

A stranger was seen wandering around about two miles from Dillsboro on Wednesday. His appearance was said to indicate that the holidays had been spent in a debauch. He was seen next morning, after a night of exposure, in a half frozen condition, and carried to town, where the prompt administration of stimulants soon revived him.
After regaining consciousness, he was heard to remark: "I feel so bad, I have a great mind to down myself."

As he seemed to have no money, he attracted no further attention.

The next seen of the great Kentuckian's namesake was two hours later when four men walking the railroad about half a mile below town, noticed him standing on the river bank. Upon being approached by the pedestrians, the stranger faced them, pointed towards the swift current of the Tuckasee and said without a tremor: "Here's the last of Henry Clay!"

He then walked out into the water, and when it reached his waist, stumbled, toppled and fell.

Seeing that he did not come up, the dumbfounded spectators started to his rescue, but the rushing tide caused considerable delay in reaching him. When he was carried ashore he was unconscious. Dr. J.
M. Candler was immediately sent for, but found resuscitation impossible. In a few minutes he died.

In his pocket was a card bearing:
"Henry Clay, member N. 221 of the Biltmore Branch of the Journe-man Stone Cutters' Association."

Mr. Clay was a native of Sheffield, England, 39 years old and single.

The body was buried Thursday in Riverside cemetery, Asheville.

If you condense the year into paragraphs one of them would describe the wonderful success of the new remedy for biliousness known as Ramon's Tonic Liver Pills. It is a remarkable discovery in the science of therapeutics. There is no longer any necessity of suffering from sick or bilious headaches, disordered liver, sour stomach, dizziness, etc. The tiny pellets which accompany the pills are for building up the system. J. H. DeMore has a free sample for you.

"Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J.
His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies, but he says: 'I was sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope. I saw a paper to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now, and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and this is the last of it.' 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by E. Everett Bryson City and T. W. Cooper at Whittier.

$100 for a Bottle.

Mrs. S. B. Winslip, 112 Washington street, Providence, R. I., after using one bottle of Chamberlain's Lightning Remedy, wrote the Drummond saying that she would not take one hundred dollars for the benefit received. If you have any form of rheumatism, and wish to get rid of it, send 50 to the Drummond Medicine Co., and they will send to your express address two bottles of their remedy—enough for a month's treatment.

and miraculously that benefit is felt from the first dose. A treatment consists of two bottles, and lasts a month. Price, $5;

You have sick-headaches occasionally. They are not pleasant; why not get rid of them?
If you call in a physician it will cost you from $1 to $5. How can you Go to your druggist and ask for Ramon's Tonic Liver Pills. They will cost you (1 box

The Toledo weekly Blade

Of the now nearly twenty tho-sands regular publications in the U.S. there are but two or three weekly newspapers published for general circulation in every state and territory, and of these the Toledo Weekly Blade is the best and most popular of them all. It is the oldest, best known, and has the largest circulation. For more than twenty-five years it has been a regular visitor to every portion of the Union, and it is well known at every one of the six thousand odd post offices of the country. It is made especially for family reading. It gives the entire news of the world each week in such condensed form as will save reading scores of pages of daily papers to get less information. It is a paper in politics, Temperance in principle, always on the side of justice and right.
It is just the paper for the rising generation, and a great educator for the whole family. Serial stories, wit and humor, short stories, Household pep, meat, Question Bureau, Farm department, Camp Fires, Sunday School and Young Folks are a few of the many other prominent features of this great paper. A specimen copy will be mailed free to any address to whom they will mail sample copies. They would be glad to mail a couple of hundred specimens to readers of this county. The Weekly Blade is a very large paper, and the price is only one dollar a year.
