Meeting Number One.

In response to a call for a meeting of the qualified voters of Bryson City, a convention for the purpose of nominating munuicipal candidates was held in the court house Friday night. Everything went on smoothly until, in the opinion of a few, the wrong men would be nominated. Then dissentions arose and the dissatisfied handful left.

Mr. J. R. Snow placed Capt, E Everett in nomination for permanent chairman, and he was elected by acclamation, and W. W. Haywood was made secratary.

Three aldermen were next in order, and these were nominated: T. S. Simpson by F. M. Macdonad, James Meadows by B. A. Chew, Broyles and Meadows Capt. Fry, and J. A Brown by Jack Franklin.

The balloting showed Meadows They came from Cherokee county 12; Simpson, 11, Brown, 10; Broyles and Georgia and have settled in the 6. Meadows, Simpson and Brown were declared the nominees.

W. A. Blackburn nominated A H. Elmore for Marshal, and without an opposing vote he was declared chosen. On motion Capt. Fry an executive committee for Bryson City was chosen. These are its members: E. Everett chairman; B. B. Lake, F. M. Macdonald, W. A. Blackburn and T. D. Bryson.

It was then moved that the convention offer a rising vote of thanks to the retiring mayor and the board efficiency. Every man in the house sion of the meeting having been discharged, adjournment was move seconded and carried. As was stated above the dissatisfied element had gone out in the early part of the meeting, and promised that another ticket would be put out. The result of this promise is shown by the article below.

Meeting Number Two.

Pursuant to call the voters of Bryson City assembled in massmeeting at the court house on the evening April 29th 1895.

The object of the meeting was explained by J. R. Snow who said it was a convention called to nominate municipal officers for insuing two years who would respect the distinctive wish of the poor people of the extension for their term of office, of the present privilege of turning the bounds of the corporation.

The Modern Woman.

The woman of to-day, as we hear of her, belongs to a class for each day in the week, and has every afterternoon and evening filled up with gay functions. She is eager to know all about politics, to understand the great poets and writers of the day, especially those that are counted the most difficult to comprehend; she will make the world better and that which she was born. Speak to her suddenly and see her start. That plans and see how she flushes, notice ths unnatural brilliancy of her eyes, the verge of nervous prostration. And why?
