Murphy Srout-Wade Haynes, of Whittier, is visiting his uncle H.S Hanyes.

J. L. Smathers, agent of the Sothern Railway at this place, has return d from a visit to his parents at Canton, N. C.

If Bryson City had sent over and got two or three more of Murphy's players they might have eachered Waynesville. As it was they only had R. L. Jennyss, who covered second base, and he couldn't win the game by himself.

Cherokee Dots.

The Fourth Regiment and Indian School Band of Cherokee has been engaged to furnish music at the Confederate Re-union at Asheville. As this band is the Lest in Western North Carolina, under the thorough instruction of its leader, Prof. Schanandore, the Confederates can be assured of having good music on that occasion.

Supt. Potter has received au thority to establish a United States Indian Police force at the agency, to protect the interests of Indians.

A new $250.00 cooking range has just arrived from Cincinnati, on which the food for 150 Indian pupils will be cooked.

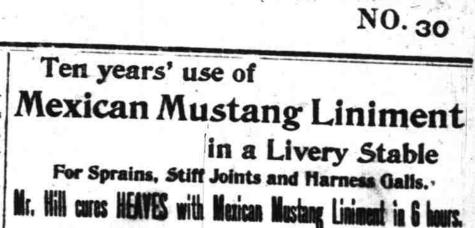

Ten thousand assorted fruit trees have been ordered by Supt. Potter from the Chilocco Indian School The newspapers are requested to nursery in Oklahoma, for free distribution among the Eastern Cherokees this fall.

> A fine, bouncing boy arrived at the Royal Mansion on Yellow Hill and gladdened the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. James Welch, the popular teachers of the Big Cove school.

> A farmer and Field Matron will soon be employed to teach the older Indians farming and the methods of civilized life, which will be of great benefit to many of the Indians.

Supt. Potter has recommended a greater increase of appropriations for 1896; viz : for 66 pupils at $167 each, and $12,000 for crection of new buildings.
