Holds His Record.

Rev G. H. Cnurch has closedhis second year with the Baptist church in Statesville and his titors have been crowden with success. The membership has been about doubled: the Sunday school and congregation have increased in number and interest. The work in south Statesville has been a succes: the contributions of church and Sunnay school have increased for all the different objects. The church is out of debt and the new year begins with a good outlook.

South Statesville will be made a nission station and regular services will be conducted two Sundays in the month, beginning next Sunday at 4 p. m. The open air meet ings on the streets will be continued Saturdays at half-past 4 p. m.
