

The Bryson City Times.

State Librarian

VOL. 4.

BRYSON CITY, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 17 1896.

NO. 47

★ Professionals. ★

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

A. M. FRY,
Bryson City, N. C.
Collection of claims and the investigation of land titles a specialty.

L. L. BATHURST,

ATTORNEY AT LAW.
Office in the Court House,
Bryson City, - N. C.

T. D. BRYSON,

Attorney at Law,
Bryson City, N. C.

Dr. J. A. Cooper,

BRYSON CITY, N. C.

PRACTICING - PHYSICIAN.

Prompt attention to all calls,
Day or Night.

J. H. TEAGUE, M. D.

WHITTIER, N. C.
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Dr. W. A. Sprinkl,

Dentist.
Whittier, N. C.
Prompt attention to all calls in town or country.

Hotels.

EN-TEL-LA.

NEAR DEPOT.
Bryson City, N. C.
New management. Newly furnished. Accommodations for commercial men. Rates reasonable.

LOUIS L. LAKE, Proprietor.

Drummer's Home,

Bryson City, N. C.
Clean rooms and the best fare.
Rates, $1.50 per day.

WESTERN HOTEL.

Court Square,
ASHVILLE, N. C.
$1.00 a Day.

Bryson Place,

Andrews & Co.
S. E. CLARK, Proprietor.

Public attention to all.

HOME NEWS.

Don't let your subscription lapse. Your subscription expires with the date after your name is on the list.

Ask yourself this question: "Have I paid my newspaper subscription?"

Wood wanted on subscription at this office.

Mud it was; locust shavings and saw-dust it is.

Miss Minnie Moss is reported very sick at Prof Hughes.

Oats, Hay or Fodder taken on subscriptions, old or new.

L. DeMott has moved back in town and is occupying his residence on Main st.

Gail Fisher has moved into the Whitaker side and will proceed to keep house.

When you come to town don't wait for us to hunt you up, but come around and see us.

J. H. Evert has returned from New York and other Northern Cities where he went to purchase goods.

Mrs. Charles Keating and little daughter, Alpena, Mich has rented rooms at L. H. Barnhill's and will spend the winter here and may remain longer.

Christmas Goods at D. K. Collins this week. Candies, Toys and Albums, besides an enormous line of general merchandise, all very cheap.

Thin or gray hair and bald heads so displeasing to many people as marks of age, may be averted for a long time by using Hall's Hair Renewer.

Chas. J. Morrow has accepted a position with Nat. S. Rogers & Co. of Asheville and will look after the mills along the Murphy branch having lumber for sale along its line.

Timber owners and Loggers who want CASH for their timbers or logs can get it by seeing R. H. Pender Bryson City or Thos. Hastings, Euphrate of Mr. Vanderbilt, at Dillsboro.

Married Wednesday last, Joseph J. Eaboe of Oneco, La. to Miss Lula, daughter of A. H. Hayes, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, at the residence of her father's father.

There is a great deal of sympathy for the sufferers in the South who are suffering from the effects of the late war. The people who have been so long in the hands of the enemy, take Ayer's remedy as a sure cure and a relief from their sufferings.

The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

This splendid committee has not succeeded in their grand enterprise until they have secured the approval of the President of the United States, and that of the numerous states, have for what a mass of precedent which, if ever it is carried out, cannot fail of success.

It will be remembered that the generous and large-hearted doctor, Mr. Charles Broadway Buzard, who alone conceived this project for the perpetuation of the history and glory of his countrymen, proposed a plan for its consummation to the veterans of the Union and the South, and that they have been so long in the hands of the enemy, take Ayer's remedy as a sure cure and a relief from their sufferings.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

Country produce will pay a subscription to this paper.

Home & farm, Louisville Ky and THE TIMES, one year for 1.25.

Simple copies of papers offered in clubs with THE TIMES can be had by calling at this office.

The Thrice-a-week word published in New York City and THE TIMES will be sent to any address, one year for $1.50.

Cash Paid for poplar, Chestnut, Oak, Ash and Linn logs delivered any where on R. R. Doles Scale and cash. See the editor of the Times.

Delinquent subscribers, especially those that have been dropped will please remember the weather has been such that firewood was a comfort to have on hand.

The Washington weeky post and THE TIMES will be sent to any address one year for 1.25. Now is your time you want the Post this winter while Congress is in session.

Carlton Cornwell foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy, I can recommend to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough with the best results, 25 and 50 cent bottle for sale by E. Everett Bryson City and S. W. Cooper, Whittier.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzard, of West Monterey, Clarion Co., Pa., say: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by E. Everett Bryson City and S. W. Cooper, Whittier.

The true history of their deeds and triumphs has not yet been told. No historian has yet written the story, nor music sung the song, nor minstrel strung the lyre, which fitly celebrates their praise.

The straits to which they were reduced for food and clothing, the self-abnegation and hardships endured by them during those dark and gloomy days of war, finds no parallel in history; their patriotism and course will be written in golden letters upon the tablets of time, ineffaceable while memory lasts, and, as ministering angels, their names will live upon the pages of poetry and in romance as long as chivalry exists in the hearts and minds of mankind.

This "Battle Abbey" will not be dedicated long to the history and deeds of the civic and military heroes of the great civil wars; but the General Commanding will see, that within its sacred portals, sufficient and conspicuous space will be reserved for the names and fame of the "Heroines of the South".

As yet wandering troubadours, liuteers and bard of the middle ages, journeying from castle to castle, have very faintly sung their praise but the tender sacred memories which cluster with a halo of love and devotion around their names, and which have been so long in the hands of the enemy, take Ayer's remedy as a sure cure and a relief from their sufferings.

Headquarters United Confederate Veterans New Orleans, La., Dec. 7, 1895. General Orders No. 155.

The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

This splendid committee has not succeeded in their grand enterprise until they have secured the approval of the President of the United States, and that of the numerous states, have for what a mass of precedent which, if ever it is carried out, cannot fail of success.

It will be remembered that the generous and large-hearted doctor, Mr. Charles Broadway Buzard, who alone conceived this project for the perpetuation of the history and glory of his countrymen, proposed a plan for its consummation to the veterans of the Union and the South, and that they have been so long in the hands of the enemy, take Ayer's remedy as a sure cure and a relief from their sufferings.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

The committee suggests that the most feasible manner of reaching the desired object is to set apart a "Memorial Festival Day," and they ask that the General Commanding will designate the date, and issue a general order.

The General Commanding, therefore in compliance with the request of the committee, designates Friday May 1, 1896, as the most suitable for a "Memorial Festival Day," to be set apart for the use of the women of the South in raising funds for this great Memorial Hall.

All the details and exercises of this "Memorial Festival Day" are to be planned, conducted and carried out entirely under the orders, control, ideas and management of the women of the South in their respective localities.

For in whose hands could this sacred trust more properly be placed and with more certainly of success, than into those of the gentle women of the South, who have never yet faltered or failed in the performance of any duty, either in war or in peace, imposed upon them for the Southern cause.

Their spirit and determination animated the men of the South at the scene of the first conflict; they were the most constant and unremitting patriot and workers during their country's mighty struggle and the last to abandon the sacred cause after Southern hopes vanished behind the clouds at Appomattox.

The true history of their deeds and triumphs has not yet been told. No historian has yet written the story, nor music sung the song, nor minstrel strung the lyre, which fitly celebrates their praise.

The straits to which they were reduced for food and clothing, the self-abnegation and hardships endured by them during those dark and gloomy days of war, finds no parallel in history; their patriotism and course will be written in golden letters upon the tablets of time, ineffaceable while memory lasts, and, as ministering angels, their names will live upon the pages of poetry and in romance as long as chivalry exists in the hearts and minds of mankind.

This "Battle Abbey" will not be dedicated long to the history and deeds of the civic and military heroes of the great civil wars; but the General Commanding will see, that within its sacred portals, sufficient and conspicuous space will be reserved for the names and fame of the "Heroines of the South".

As yet wandering troubadours, liuteers and bard of the middle ages, journeying from castle to castle, have very faintly sung their praise but the tender sacred memories which cluster with a halo of love and devotion around their names, and which have been so long in the hands of the enemy, take Ayer's remedy as a sure cure and a relief from their sufferings.

Headquarters United Confederate Veterans New Orleans, La., Dec. 7, 1895. General Orders No. 155.

The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

This splendid committee has not succeeded in their grand enterprise until they have secured the approval of the President of the United States, and that of the numerous states, have for what a mass of precedent which, if ever it is carried out, cannot fail of success.

It will be remembered that the generous and large-hearted doctor, Mr. Charles Broadway Buzard, who alone conceived this project for the perpetuation of the history and glory of his countrymen, proposed a plan for its consummation to the veterans of the Union and the South, and that they have been so long in the hands of the enemy, take Ayer's remedy as a sure cure and a relief from their sufferings.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

It is a grand and noble project, and one which will be remembered for all time. The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.

for their country, and with the most feasible manner of reaching the desired object is to set apart a "Memorial Festival Day," and they ask that the General Commanding will designate the date, and issue a general order.

The General Commanding, therefore in compliance with the request of the committee, designates Friday May 1, 1896, as the most suitable for a "Memorial Festival Day," to be set apart for the use of the women of the South in raising funds for this great Memorial Hall.

All the details and exercises of this "Memorial Festival Day" are to be planned, conducted and carried out entirely under the orders, control, ideas and management of the women of the South in their respective localities.

For in whose hands could this sacred trust more properly be placed and with more certainly of success, than into those of the gentle women of the South, who have never yet faltered or failed in the performance of any duty, either in war or in peace, imposed upon them for the Southern cause.

Their spirit and determination animated the men of the South at the scene of the first conflict; they were the most constant and unremitting patriot and workers during their country's mighty struggle and the last to abandon the sacred cause after Southern hopes vanished behind the clouds at Appomattox.

The true history of their deeds and triumphs has not yet been told. No historian has yet written the story, nor music sung the song, nor minstrel strung the lyre, which fitly celebrates their praise.

The straits to which they were reduced for food and clothing, the self-abnegation and hardships endured by them during those dark and gloomy days of war, finds no parallel in history; their patriotism and course will be written in golden letters upon the tablets of time, ineffaceable while memory lasts, and, as ministering angels, their names will live upon the pages of poetry and in romance as long as chivalry exists in the hearts and minds of mankind.

This "Battle Abbey" will not be dedicated long to the history and deeds of the civic and military heroes of the great civil wars; but the General Commanding will see, that within its sacred portals, sufficient and conspicuous space will be reserved for the names and fame of the "Heroines of the South".

As yet wandering troubadours, liuteers and bard of the middle ages, journeying from castle to castle, have very faintly sung their praise but the tender sacred memories which cluster with a halo of love and devotion around their names, and which have been so long in the hands of the enemy, take Ayer's remedy as a sure cure and a relief from their sufferings.

Headquarters United Confederate Veterans New Orleans, La., Dec. 7, 1895. General Orders No. 155.

The progress made by the able and distinguished committee appointed in General Orders Nos 145 and 149 from these headquarters to examine into and report upon the plan submitted by the great philanthropist and benefactor, Charles Broadway Buzard, for the establishment of a grand Memorial where Confederate relics and mementoes are to be deposited for all time, and which is to be one the "Battle Abbey" of the South, must be very gratifying to the old veterans and to all who cherish the memories of the courage and heroism of her sons, and the unparallelled devotion of her noble and self-sacrificing women.