The editor can always write more cheerfully of the business interests of a town when his columns are liberally filled with the advertisements of its business houses. No editor can advocate the doctrine of buying from home merchants un less home merchants show they are interested in catering to the home trade by advertising in the columns of the local paper. It is depressing to the editor to find business men patronizing every advertising fake that comes along, and at the same time the names of those business men are rarely ever
