Nonsense! That's a doctor's excuse.
Justice Lowe, of Ridgeway, Mich., was a Rheumatic sufferer over 78 years old—"too old to expect a cure," so they said. He took Remarkable case, you say. All cases where this remedy is used are remarkable. It's a remarkable medicine. It cleanses the blood of acid—makes a torpid liver active.

Testimonial below:
Having tried Dr. C. C. Roc's Liver, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Cure in my practice, I find it an excellent remedy in habitual constipation, indigestion and dyspepsia.

Bill Hamiltons Letter.

In this article I shall dwell largely on me early school days when I was but a chunk of a kuntry lad, jist in me teens, but every body said I was as big as me dad in me own imagination and what every body says is mitv apt ter be true. Well when I speak of those loving school days. Hit kindles with in me breast a spark of gladness and too, hit makes me mitv sad at times. Fur a heap of me old school mates are done crossed over and are dwellers in the great unknown. But I'm giten too sentimental, and I will turn to my story on the out set I will say that when I was 12 years old. But was goin with the gals and a cut'en a big figer among the ladies of the neighborhood.

My father seen that I needed some schoolen, started me ter school, my first time in life so, a week or so before hit was ter commence my good old mother, who was taken, hit seamed a relearn in amount of interest in her "dear sun" learned me the A. B. C.'s and by good management and occasional use of the rod of correction succeeded in learnin me the alfabet, so on the mornin school commenced. She fixed me dinner, consisten of a corn dodger, a piece of meat, and a quart bottle full of Butter milk and off I put ter the school house four miles distant. In due time I arrived on the spot, quely deposited me dinner under the door steps of the old log school house, and in I went, thinking I was a lucky boy, and one god had endowed with extra ordinary mental ability as soon as matters of that kind are ever done I took a seat and the teacher told me to "off with hat" which I did with rapidity, and flutter bation of mind. Then turning to me lesson (The Alfabet) and axed me what the first letter was. I studied a little looking first at teacher then the letter, and ter save me from Halifax I couldnt announce it for him Now said he "You get this letter in your mind so you can tell me what it is 'er dinner time," and left me ter work out me own education with fear en trimlen, so I ruminated and spelt, quirked, twisted and choked and spelt at the ternel old letter and never did make hit out. For I had clean forgotten the name of hit, when dinner was announced I was one of the fust ter leave my seat. Fur I was a gitten tarnation hungry, and made fur me dinner basket under the door steps, where I had placed hit that mornin, and lo and behold the tarnation free goer Hogs, had done wound that matter up. Havin cleaned up every speck of dinner septen that big bottle of milk, which was found atur some sarchin. Durin "play time" I axed a boy what the name of the fust letter was, and I kept sayin it over til the teacher hollered "Books" and in we all went, me with the ballance, still sayin over that letter. Dreckly the "teacher" cum ter me me, says "Bill ye got that letter yet." And I looked and every body in the house was looking right at me, I got excited, could feel me heart a beaten in me years, occasionally turnin blind, last I made out to git me mouth off and say "A," very well said the teacher what is the next. Here I stalled again. Last he said "what is it that stings boys sometimes" "Yellow Jackets," said I "Oh you num skul you Bees," don't you know, so that is "B." Now it is of no use ter say, that I said no more lessons that afternoon, and went home that evenin, proud ter say that I had at least gone to school one day in life, and still a youngsters day is his happiest days, here below.
