WOMEN'S REMEDY FOR THROAT AND LUNGS.

Ashville, N. C., Dec. 9, 1902.

To-lo-tan Company, Knoxville, Tenn.
Gentlemen—Having been afflicted with a heavy cold on my lungs, and as I tried nearly all remedies known to medical science without the least benefit, I was induced by a friend of mine to try your To-lo-tan catarrh cure and found it as represented. It stopped my cough before I had taken half a bottle, and words cannot express my gratitude to your company for the relief this wonderful medicine has done for me.

Respectfully,
B. H. HILL.

Wit and Wisdom of The Late Senator Vance

A few years ago, when the writer was a mere boy, he wrote Senator Vance, requesting his autograph. In due course of time a letter came from Washington bearing this laconic admonition: "Fear the Lord, and vote the Democratic ticket! Z.
B. Vance."

His anecdote relating to the "blow up" at Petersburg is familiar to all. Some of the so-

Judge's arguments, and convulse his hearers with laughter.
The result was that the meetings were most enormously attended throughout the state. The people turned out not so much to hear the issues discussed as to listen to Vance's humor. Some of these are treasured up in the popular memory, and will be handed down through many generations.

Vance, learning of his misfortune and knowing him to be a clever fellow, interested himself in his behalf and obtained for him a pardon. Some two or three years later Senator Vance, having a string of appointments running through the western counties where he was scheduled to speak, was somewhat surprised to receive a very urgent letter from Lovin, asking him to come by a certain country mill on his way out to Frankum, as he had some very important business with him. Vance rode twenty miles out of his way, over some of the roughest roads, through some of the wildest country he had ever seen, in order not to disappoint his friend.
When at last the Senator arrived at the mill, Lovin, covered with meal, came out and greeted him very cordially. After the formalities were over Vance mentioned the circumstance of the letter, and inquired
