

In the Wrong Places.
 'Tis a problem to me very puzzling—I'm wondering if a syone knows Why for happiness I e're ever searching In the spots where unhappiness grows.
 —Judge.

TRULY A FINE SHOT.

Keeper (with suppressed excitement and evident relief—to Fitzoodle)— That's a fine shot, sir!
 Fitzoodle—How so? I didn't hit anything!
 Keeper—That's just it, sir. An' th' dawg right in range, too!—Punch.

Do not wait until you or some of your family are sick nigh unto death and then send for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, but buy it now and be prepared for an emergency. It can always be depended upon even in the most severe and dangerous cases.
 For sale by Z. W. Nichols, Brevard, and O. L. Erwin, Cherryfield.

Pessimism.
 They say this world of ours is round,
 And though reformers dare To agitate with zeal profound,
 'Twill never be quite square.
 —Washington Star.

What He Said.
 "I asked a farmer for a pumpkin when I was out in the country."
 "What did he say?"
 "He said: 'Help yourself; I planted them to feed to cattle, anyway.'"—Chicago Record.

A Tangled Affair.
 Sandy Pikes—Yes, lady; 20 years ago I parted—Lady—And from the looks of your head I'd say you haven't parted since.
 —Chicago Daily News.

Alfred Thorne, aged 22 son of Rev. J. B. Thorne, at Forest City, shot himself, dying instantly, in the store of George McDaniel, last Saturday. The latter had asked him to stay in the store till he went to the postoffice. No one was present and no cause is assigned for the suicide.

Narragansett Pier has the prospect of an out-of-door performance of "As You Like It" early in August. The Point Judith Country club has offered to loan its splendid polo field for the affair, and professionals will be engaged for the production.

One of the most novel exhibits at the Paris exposition is the complete set of bed hangings from Madagascar, manufactured from the silk of the halabe. The halabe is an enormous and ferocious female spider.

Why should a cricket team be made up of just 11 players? One authority says that it came about through the even dozen being at first regarded as the proper number; but out of this dozen each side was expected to furnish an umpire. Consequently only 11 men really played for each side, and this the custom came about.

HAVE YOU NOTICED?

That fastidious dressers invariably wear a wash tie with a neglige shirt.
 That it is no longer de rigueur to have a string tie tied in a straight line across; the butterfly fashion is the thing now.

That the particular woman never shows a line of demarcation across her back, as she uses two corset strings to give the necessary smooth, flat effect.

That women and men have a distinctive style of lacing the shoes. The women lace diagonally crossing in the center with both strings, while the lace straight across.—Leisure

Let the Law Stand As It is.

Editor Sylvan Valley News:

In the discussion of the matter of the legalized sale of liquor versus the Blind Tiger, I wish to call our people's attention to some facts as I see them. In the first place, then, whether sold by a licensed vendor or by the town itself in dispensary, liquor sold by a moral man is as bad as liquor sold by an immoral man. The trouble is that either must sell immoral liquor. The liquor traffic outlawed is debased and on the defensive; legalize it and you give it standing and place it on the aggressive. And, further, Blind Tigers are not as dangerous as tigers that can see, and a wild beast in the woods is not as dangerous as one turned loose in town.

In this matter of license the town must have men and boys to drink some $1250.00 worth of liquor per saloons to pay the tax on the saloon before the keeper can make any profit or even a living for himself, license fee being placed at $1000 per year.

Can our town afford such a sacrifice? In order that "street paving instie, saloons or make them profitable. Parents in Brevard having boys may think well of this matter before voting or advocating either, always remembering that the man who assists in placing a bar room or dispensary in Brevard is responsible for the results, be he saint or devil.

The scratch of a pin may cause the loss of a limb or even death when blood poisoning results from the injury. All danger of this may be avoided, however, by promptly applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It is an antiseptic and unequalled as a quick healing liniment for cuts, bruises and burns.

By the Footlights.
 The funny man appears on the stage with a huge red handkerchief before his face.

"What's the trouble, Percy?" inquires the orchestra professor.
 "It's that awful hay-fever, Gussie.
 Pays me right, too."

"How does it pay you right, Percy?"
 "Why, I went and married a grass widow."
 Then the thunder of the gallery gods vibrates through the house.—Chicago Daily News.
