Cures Throat Trouble.

Asheville, N. C., Dec. 6, 1902.
To-lo-tan Company, Knoxville, Tenn.
Dear Sirs—I want to contribute my mite towards the upbuilding of your wonderful remedy, To-lo-tan. My wife has been a constant sufferer from throat trouble for several months and found no relief until I was induced to try a package of your To-lo-tan. It seems to work like magic. She has taken one bottle of the tonic and used the spray only a few times, and she feels so well she has discontinued its use almost entirely.
To-lo-tan is certainly a wonder, and I feel that too much cannot be said of its merits.
Very respectfully yours,
L. E. Low,
No. 24 Montford Ave.

More Benefit Than All Other Remedies.

Andrews, N. C., Nov. 27, 1902.
To-lo-tan Co., Knoxville, Tenn.
Gentlemen—Enclosed please find $1.00, for which please send me another bottle of To-lo-tan. I have suffered with catarrh for ten years, and have tried different remedies, but have received more benefit from one bottle of To-lo-tan than all the other remedies I have ever tried.
Yours very truly,
J. M. Robinson.

CORRESPONDENCE

Watt's Bill and Dispensary.

Editor Sylvan Valley News.
I wonder if Hon. E. A. Aiken is congratulating himself and Transylvania on his success in securing for her citizens exemption from the provisions of the Watts bill? Well, probably he has the right to congratulate himself, and no doubt will receive many a hearty hand-shake from his peers. He accomplished his purpose. But as for Transylvania I think he might withhold his congratulations until he is sure her citizens appreciate the work he has done. Then let him publish his blandishments to his co-laborers at a feast in honor of Beelzebub.

I did not know he had done so much for his people. But he is a man of remarkable influence and wonderful talent. If his powers were operating on the other side how much it might mean for the world! But after he has spent his life hedging in sin and vice, then the Lord must raise up other men to undo the mischief he has done. He is hindering, not hastening the Kingdom of God.

I cannot agree with "Comus" that the Watts bill "was pruned of all prohibition clauses" before it was passed. It is true that this bill is not what many good citizens hoped and prayed for, nor is it all they yet expect—the fight has not ended. We hear rumors of gathering forces of faithful soldiers of the cross in different parts of the state; and I feel that there is a the life of many a home? Are there not, I say, men enough of this type in Brevard to over-rule the corps of depraved of heart and daughters and those of their neighbors to Beelzebub for a moiety from his customers, or for the privilege of frequenting his foul dens and quaffing the poisonous draught?

There can be no good reason for establishing a dispensary in Brevard. All attempts to give a reason are only efforts to cover up the evils attending such an establishment. Ask those who favor it for the sake of lowering taxes if he thinks it right to rob their homes of peace and comfort and make insolvents of grogshop sots in order to give a dime each week to the business man on Main street to assist him in defraying his beer bill that he may round up his rotundity and give himself a respectable business-like bloot. The insolvent pays more tax to the dispensary clerk in seven days than his annual taxes would be without the dispensary reduction; and the business man's drink bill for so many days would pay the insolvent's taxes for as many years.

If an increase in the school fund is the argument presented, ask such a one how much he is interested in public education. And then ask him if there is any reason in paying the big salary of the dispensary clerk and all the other expenses connected with the business in order that a small percentage of the expenditures may come into the public
