CORRESPONDENCE.

Loftis Locals.

Editor Sylvan Valley News:

We had quite a severe hail storm in this section Monday afternoon.

Misses Carrie and Lillie Salts spent Sunday night with Reba and Leslie McGaha.

R. F. Whitmire and wife visited relatives on East Fork Saturday and Sunday.

J. L. Salts spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Flat Rock and reports a nice time.

J. A. McCrary and Leona Gidney visited Miss Roxie Moore Sunday and had a jolly good time.

Spann Duckworth passed through these parts Tuesday enroute to South Carolina after spending a few days with his father and family.

Rev. Kuykendall will preach at Rocky Hill next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. He is an able preacher and we hope to see a large congregation.

Mr. Patterson accompanied by Mr. Miller was circulating among the farmers here Tuesday selling mowing machines and other farming implements.

It seems that some of our boys and girls are having "sport" now-a-days picking strawberries and killing snakes. Robert Summey killed a large rattlesnake on the premises of A. L. Hardin which carried ten "rattles."

Wedding bells are ringing at Cedar Mountain. Charlie Lendermar and Miss Maggie Heath were quietly married at the home of the bride Wednesday May 26 inst. Rev. Asa Beck officiating. Our best wishes follow them to their future home. TORSY.

Reba Readings.

Editor Sylvan Valley News:

Felix Rabb, of Loftis spent Sunday with J. E. Bagwell.

Several of our farmers went to town Monday on business.

Miss Emma Bagwell spent Sunday with her friend Myrtle Hogsed.

Miss Katie Scruggs took dinner with Miss Maybelle Bagwell Sunday.

Mrs. L. D. Scruggs is somewhat indisposed. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Our Sunday school is still progressing nicely and we are having a good attendance.

Wm. Crain has been on the sick list for some time but we are glad to note his improvement.

B. M. Jones and wife, of Cedar Mountain passed through our vicinity Saturday on their way to East Fork.

We have had some refreshing showers recently which were much needed and all the crops and flowers are looking better since.

We hear several farmers murmuring about the moles taking their corn. Can't some one give a recipe for destroying them? They are certainly a great pest.

Wake up, all ye sleeping correspondents, and hear what our editors have to say regarding us. How much more interesting our paper would be if some one would give items from each section in the county. Now, try it; won't you. SUNSHINE.

Notice.

Sam L. Rogers, corporation commissioner, will meet the tax assessors at the court house on Friday, June 5th, for the purpose of explaining the revenue law and to instruct the assessors how to proceed with ascertaining the true value of property. This is an important meeting and all assessors should attend.

I sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of all similar preparations put together and it gives the best satisfaction of any medicine I ever sold. I guarantee every bottle of it.—F. C. JAQUITH, Inland, Mich.

Toxaway Locals.

Editor Sylvan Valley News:

After an absence from your valuable paper for some time I decided to come again.

We have had several rain and hail storms recently, and the farmers are getting behind with their work.

Tanbark has gone to $7.50 per cord, and the prospect is good for it to reach $8.00. Competition is the life of any country. Messrs. Fisher and Zachary are going to make the tanneries pay for their bark, which will be good for the people.

Our hustling merchant, W. C. Fisher, is lengthening out his store to give room for new goods that are arriving almost every day.

The darkies are laying off a day or two counting their money and eating potted ham on account of recent rains.

Jim Butler is up from Tryon on a visit. Jim is a good painter and used to teach school in this county. He is received with a welcome smile wherever he goes. He reports peaches getting ripe in Tryon.

Mrs. L. M. Glazener has been very sick for the past few days, but is better at this writing.

Hon. E. A. Aiken was in town last week. We guess he had been looking for an illicit distillery, and wish he would get 'em all.

The material has arrived for W. L. Carmichael's new store in Toxaway and will soon be put in place.

A. M. Paxton, our hustling tobacco drummer, made a flying trip to Brevard on last Saturday. Success to the News.

TOBE.

Wedding at Cedar Mountain.

Editor Sylvan Valley News.

On last Wednesday morning Rev. A. W. Beck and myself drove out to the cozy little home of J. S. Heath, near Cedar Mountain, and found everything in readiness for the union of a happy two—afterwards one.

Just at noon C. H. Lenderman and Miss Maggie Mae Heath were happily married at the home of the bride's father. The bride was beautifully attired in pure white, the groom in black, the two contrasting just enough to make an attractive picture. The waiters were W. F. Heath and Miss Ethel Burns, Jerry Burns and Miss Rosa Jones. Rev. A. W. Beck officiated with a short and appropriate but "hold fast" ceremony.

Dinner was immediately announced after the marriage, and such a good one it was! That was indeed an essential part of the program to one who had ridden so far, and we did a just part in helping to carry it out. What is better than a wedding dinner in the mountains? If any man in Transylvania county knows of anything to surpass it, will he please make it known by "standing on his head."

Respectfully, J. N. BRADLEY.

Card of Thanks.
