third trial of ex-Secreta of State even 9 pounds." Caleb Newers for complicity in the murder of Governor William Goebel in anuary, 1900, closed shortly before noon today with the extreme penalty of hanging for the distinguished prisoner who has been in the penitentiary for three years on life sentonces. The verdict of the jury, "guilty and the punishment of death," was reported into court at 11:20 o'clock today. Several hundred people crowdwas read and the most intense silence prevailed. The jury was polled and to be his finding. Powers sat unmov. of the Chattahoochee river. ed while his attorneys asked for time to make a motion for a new trial.

Arthur Goebel broke down from the strain on hearing the verdict of guilty. The jurors decline to state what occurred in the jury room, son's persistent work, is the largest to George Wyatt was foreman.

Arthur Goebel, brother of the victim, is a prominent merchant at Cincinnati and has spent his time and fortune for over three years in the prosecution of those accused of being In a conspiracy to kill his brother.

Powers has been convicted twice before, this being the third trial in which the jury brought in a verdict of guilty against himself. At the previous trials he escaped with a sentence to life imprisonment, as the evidence was not sufficiently strong against him to lead the jury to inflict the extreme penalty.

All three of the trials were conducted at Georgetown, and each of them he had the assistance of the most able laweyrs who could be procured. Subscription lists were circulated in his interest by friends, and a sum of money was secured to defray the cost of his repeated trials and the investigation of the circumstances which preceded the killing of Governor Goebel, in the interest of the defense.

The latest trial was distinguished by the fact that Powers addressed the jury in his own behalf, and in a long astounded those who had watched him fisheries. Let there be no relaxations nor compromise. Keep up the figh: unceasingly.

Former President Enjoys Himself With Old Colony Club Guests.

New York, August 29 .- Former 'Pres ident Grover Cleveland has been making merry with the members and guests of the Old Colony club at a clam bake on Marshall's island, says a Times special from Bourne, Mass. The feature of the day was a short, humorous address he made.

"Within the past few years," he said, "I have been widely jeered and derided for spending so much of my time at fishing. For those who jeer and deride me I have only a quiet and unqualified contempt. I go fishing be cause I like it, and I nope that I will continue to go fishing until as near the end of the chapter as possible.
