Hogback Locals.

Editor Sylvan Valley News:

Several of the citizens of this section attended court at Brevard last week.

J. A. Alexander and S. L. Sanders made a business trip to Brevard the first of this week.

Miss Annie Alexander, of Salem, S. C., visited friends and relatives in this section last week.

The people of this section are, generally, taking more interest in schools this year than common.

Mrs. S. L. Sanders visited her daughter, Mrs. Sam McCall, of Gloucester, last Saturday and Sunday.

Jake Miller who has been in the far west for several years, is visiting his father, Henry Miller, of this section.

Work about Lake Toxaway is almost completed and hands have been leaving almost daily for the past two weeks.

We are glad to note the progress of Broad Valley Institute and hope that some may attend the school from this section.

Terrell Middleton who has charge of the public school at Hogback visited his home in the Broad Valley section last Saturday.

We hear that there is to be a series of meetings started at Union church next Sunday. We hope that much good may be accomplished.

The warm sunshine and showers of the past two weeks, have caused "Snowball" to bloom again. We hope it will stay in bloom till frost, at least.

Abe Low and his mother, who have been staying at the home of S. L. Sanders for the last while, moved to South Carolina last week, accompanied by Lensy Sanders, who will stay with them. Abe has been in "Uncle Sam's" army since 1894 until last year. He was one of the boys who stormed Santiago during the war with Spain.

Best wishes to Editors and readers.

Editor Sylvan Valley News:

Thomas Galloway was a visitor in this section last week.

Chas. Thomas visited friends in this section last Sunday.

We are glad to report that Dr. W. M. Lyday is improving fast.

Oliver Orr, of Lamb's Creek, was a visitor in this section last Sunday.

Hello! "Sunshine." Please tell us why Elzie Lyday visits the Reba section so often.

Quite a number of the young folks of this section attended the baptising at Pleasant Grove last Sunday.

Did any of you ever see a sweet potato that would tire you to carry one out of the patch? There has been some in this section. Beat that if you can.

Prof. J. N. Bradley made the highest mark of any who stood the civil service examination, which was held at Asheville last May. He stands at the head of the eligible list for a good position.
SNOWBALL.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law ever slight-pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in constipation, headache or liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Z. W. Nichols' drug store.
