Pink Bed News.

Editor Sylvan Valley News.

Dr. James Harris was a visitor in the Pink Beds last week.

C. T. Rankin and Miss Avvie Ownbey were married at the home of the bride last Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and immediately left for his home at Biltmore.

Mrs. James Case has been on the sick list for some time but is rapidly improving.

Dr. C. A. Schenck and students have gone to Biltmore for the winter.

Prof. E. C. Jenney is teaching a very successful school in the Pink Beds.

Arthur Case made a flying trip to Biltmore last week.

Mrs. Condry has returned home after an absence of about four weeks.

We expect the class from Haywood to sing in the old books next Sunday and all are cordially invited.

I guess "Birdie" has gone to a warmer country as she has not appeared for some time.

Success to the News.

PINK BED PETE.

Oak Hill News.

Editor Sylvan Valley News:

Rev. Hyder will preach at the chapel Sunday night.

The farmers are wearing pleasant faces and whistling merry tunes because the weather has been so favorable for foddering.

Tul. Glazener and his sister, Miss May, were pleasant visitors at the chapel the third Sunday.

W. C. Hamilton and C. C. Case went to the Pink Beds last Tuesday on business.

Some of the young folks spent last Sunday afternoon with Miss Bertha Orr and had a very enjoyable time.

Preaching every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Robert Orr is making molasses this week. Lookout girls, he'll be all O. K. for Sunday.

W. C. Hamilton has gone to Spartanburg, S. C., for a few days.

Misses Eula and Hattie Morris were welcome visitors on Lambs Creek last Sunday.

Hal Cagle has gone to Hendersonville to enter school for the winter. We wish him much success.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Patton called on Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Neill Sunday afternoon.

Misses Maggie Barnett and Pearl Neill visited the Misses Shufords of Penrose Saturday and Sunday.

J. C. Deaver, accompanied by his wife, went to the Pink Beds Friday to officiate at the marriage of Capt. G. T. Rankin and Miss Avie Ownbey.

Jack Frost has visited this vicinity for several mornings but has done no injury yet.

Best wishes to the News.
