

Saves Two From Death.
 "Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. J., "but when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage also used this wonderful medicine and to day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for coughs and colds. 50c. and $1 bottles guaranteed by Nichols, druggist. Trial bottles free.

ATTACK ON JAIL BY WOULD-BE LYNCHERS

Tennessee Mob After Alleged Negro Rapist.

SHERIFF FIRED ON THE MOB.
One Was Wounded, but His Resistance Did Not Prevent Them From Securing Prisoner, who Was Shot to Death.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 23.—A special from Lynchburg to The Banner says a negro was killed and a member of a mob wounded in an assault on the jail last night.

A crowd of about 15 men visited the jail shortly before midnight and surrounded the cell in which Allen Small was incarcerated. Sheriff G. R. Davison had no intimation of any contemplated violence and was alone at the time. He peremptorily refused to accede to the demand and opened fire on the would-be lynchers and succeeded in wounding one of them, who was taken off by his friends. His identity and the extent of his injuries cannot be learned.

At the same time the sheriff lustily called for assistance.

Two of the police and several citizens rushed to the jail, but before they arrived the mob had succeeded in battering down the wooden door at the foot of the stairs leading to the corridor. The sheriff and his posse made a stout resistance but were unable to prevent the mob from breaking in the iron door at the head of the stairs and entering the cell occupied by the negro, about whose name they placed a rope. As soon as the men emerged from the cell it became apparent that the negro could not be taken from the jail and hung, and he was shot and instantly killed.

The mob then made an effort to escape, but the sheriff and his guard succeeded in holding three of them, and they are now in jail on the charge of murder.

The men are Dusk Hilsey, his brother, and John Bean, and one of them has made a confession implicating 13 men in the raid.

Allen Small was arrested several weeks ago for an alleged attempt to assault Mrs. Eliza Engleton, and on the preliminary hearing the warrant against him was amended by the prosecution so as to charge a simple case of assault.

The negro waived examination, and was in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury.

A coroner's jury is investigating the case.

The citizens of the county are highly incensed over the outrage and determined to punish the lynchers, and it is reported that not a member of the lynching mob will understand to represent any of the mob, but on the contrary, has voluntarily tendered his services to the prosecution.

IN SHADOW OF GALLOWY.

Condemned Men Spent Last Hours in Rictuous Revelry.
 Lynch, Tenn., Sept. 23.—A special to The Mirror from Lander, Wyo., says: James Keller, who will be hanged at 10 a. m. today for the murder of A. A. Warren, spent his last evening on earth in riotous revelry.

Keller had been on the verge of collapse all day, but last evening he suddenly braced up and requested that Jim Dollard, another prisoner, charged with murder, be permitted to play a mouth harp that he might dance and sing to pass away the time. The request was granted, and for several hours Keller danced and sang to his heart's content.

Bill Passed Prohibiting Boycotting.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 23.—The senate today passed the house bill prohibiting boycotting, blacklists, bans or picketing in this state, and provides a punishment therefor. It now goes to the governor for approval. It is considered a very strict law, and was opposed by organized labor all over the country.

May Make Long Cruise.

Philadelphia, Sep. 23.—The battleship Maine today passed down the Delaware river from the League Island navy yard on her way to Culebra, in the West Indies. Upon her arrival at Culebra the battleship's guns are to be thoroughly tested, and if they are satisfactory, the Maine will start on a long cruise.

Fatal Family Quarrel.

Midlesboro, Ky., Sept. 23.—At Imlay, not far from the county seat of Harlan county, Kentucky, Martin Green shot and killed his wife after a quarrel and fled, but was arrested. The killing was of such a nature as to arouse the country people around Imlay and they may lynch Green.

FELL INTO A WELL.

Lad of Six Years Has Remarkable Escape from Death.

Carrollton, Ga., Sept. 23.—A close shave experienced by a lad of 6 years is just reported from Whitesburg.

Little Dave Duncan was playing around the ginery of Duncan & Stevens and stepped on the loose cover of the engine well, which had many feet of water in it.

The plank tilted, threw him in and the beam striking him went to the bottom of the well.

The boy's father was hurriedly let down, expecting that his little son had long since sunken under the water. When he reached the water he found him high and dry above the water, clinging to a cross bar of wood nailed in the well.

The boy was unharmed, except from a sprain or bruise supposed to have been caused by the plank that threw him in.

The iron pipe had served the boy a busy when he first rose, but finding it too hot to hold, he had managed to get to the piece of wood and was holding on for dear life.

DEATH TO SUNDAY BALL.

No More Playing on Diamond in Alabama on Sabbath.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 23.—The senate passed the house bill to prohibit the playing of baseball, football, golf or tennis on Sunday by a vote of 22 to 10.

It is now ready for the governor's signature. He will sign it.

This means no more Sunday baseball in Alabama.

The house anti-boyscott bill was reported favorably in the senate.

The house passed the bill to extend the terms of the present tax assessors and collectors six months.

The house voted down the bill to regulate the taxation of insurance companies.

The insurance companies had a strong lobby here against the bill.

TREASURE SHIP FOUND.

Loaded with Mexican Silver Ore Went Down in 1635.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 23.—Rumors of the finding of a treasure ship off Miami were confirmed today when Captain Jennings and three of the crew of the wrecking schooner Osage filed a libel suit against the cargo of a sunken ship in the United States court here.

With the assistance of a chart in his possession Captain Jennings has been searching for many years. It is supposed to have gone ashore in 1635, loaded with ore from the Mexican mines.

It was found in 5 feet of water near Miami. Its cargo, which has only been partly examined, has been found to consist of silver ore.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.

Woman Turning Over in Bed Estate Her Leg.

Warmony, Ga., Sept. 23.—Miss Corline Morgan, of this place, while turning over in bed broke her thigh midway between the knee and the hip.

No reasonable explanation can be given for the singular accident.

Miss Morgan is 72 years old and it is thought that she cannot recover.

Czar Appoints New Arbitrator.

The Hague, Sept. 23.—The czar has appointed M. DeMartens, professor of international law at the University of St. Petersburg, to be the third arbitrator in the claims of the allied powers against Venezuela for preferential treatment. In place of the Portuguese appointee, whose illness has precluded his serving. Professor DeMartens was one of the arbitrators in the Plus fund claim. In December last the professor was awarded the noble peace prize. The other arbitrators in the case of the Venezuelan claims are M. Mouravieff, the Russian minister of justice, and Professor Lanmasesch, of Austria.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed."
