Reba Readings.

Editors Sylvan Valley News:

J. N. Bagwell is gone to Jackson with a hunting party.

Fred Bagwell and Waymon Cassell of Toxaway visited home folks Sunday.

Mrs. W. P. Hogs d went to town last week to have some dental work done.

Miss Kate Love of Marietta, S. C., is visiting friends here. We are pleased to see her in our vicinity.

Come along correspondents and cheer the NEWS with your "dots." We miss your letters very much.

G. Lynch of Sunny Dale, S. C. passed through our vicinity last week with his son Leander whom he placed in school at Broad Valley Institute.

Three young men of our burg went to Rocky Hill Sunday night to preaching (as they thought) but were disappointed as there was no service.

Mrs. Marcus Bagwell is quite ill at her home, also Mrs. Cassell and Aunt Sallie Reece are numbered among the sick ones. We hope for them all a speedy recovery.

Miss Emma Bagwell left Saturday for Greenville, Anderson and other points in South Carolina where she will visit her relatives. We hope for her a pleasant time.

The fine weather continues and the farmers are smiling to see it for molasses making and 'odder pulling is in full swim. Wonder if some one won't make a candy stew for us.

A Sunday school picnic was given to the children here Sunday which we are sure was enjoyed by those present. Dinner was spread on the grass which was a good one, and after dinner we listened to an address by Mr. Lynch on Sunday school work, then sang for awhile and all left feeling that the day would live long in our memory.

SUNSHINE.

Upper Glade Creek.

Editors Sylvan Valley News.

Mrs. Gus Fowler spent Sunday with Miss Leva Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Poor are overjoyed with a little baby girl. John Wilson and Miss Kannie Orr went to the chapel Sunday night.

Miss Ida Fowler spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Hessie Cairnes.

M. H. Fowler began making molasses this week. He will be all O. K.

The Glade Creek men are whistling merry tunes because they are through with their fodder.

I saw one of the Broad Valley boys pass through our section the other day in the afternoon. I wonder who that was with him. Ta ta. ROSE BUD.

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time."
