If your cough is still harging on it is evident that you have not taken our Comp. Syr. White Pine and Tar. When a cough has run along for several weeks without being stopped it becomes chronic. Then it takes a true cough remedy to cure it. No sugar and water mixed in the night when you can't sleep will do. The

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Prof. Briggs from Buncombe county is conducting a singing school at Selica this week.

We are glad to note that aunt Martha Wilson who has been quite sick with gripe for several weeks is much better.

Mrs. M. A. Brice and Mr. Harvey Brice are at the home of R. R. Deaver at Selica to spend a few weeks in our delightful winter climate.

The three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Galloway on Depot street has been critically ill with pneumonia but is improving.

Dr. J. H. McLean was one of the lucky purchasers at the Whitmire & Verdery store last month. His rebate was $1.60—the amount of his purchase on the lucky day was $3.20.

We note that residents on Whitmire street extension beyond the railroad have christened it "Maple" street. It remains to be seen whether they can make the name "stick."

W. E. Carmichael, for a long time a Brevard merchant, was in town Friday and Saturday of last week, advertising a special sale to begin in Hendersonville in a few days.

J. W. Fermet of Waynesville has been in the Selica section several days buying white oak timber. We learn that he contemplates cutting and shipping his purchases in the near future.

The masquerade party at the Mc-Minn House last Thursday night was a very enjoyable function for those who participated. Miss Hattie Maxwell of Henderson county won the cake as her identity was not discovered.

Eelie Cox came in from Seattle, Washington, last Saturday to spend a few weeks with his home folks. He says the west is the place for him. Since leaving Brevard he has worked at a number of places in California and Washington and says he left an eight hour five dollar a day job to visit home.

The residence of Ed Poor of Davidson river was destroyed by fire last Sunday evening. It is supposed the fire was caused by a defect in the chimney, and started in the roof of the building. Practically all the household goods were saved and we understand that a few of the doors and windows in the building were taken out. The house was about an 8-room building, a nice 2-story structure, and while we have not learned what the loss was, it must have been a good deal.

H. C. Gillespie has staked off a boundary surrounding the Gillespie grave yard located on the hill just beyond his home and proposes organizing a company to buy said boundary and to whom he will make a deed showing that the place is to be used as, and only for, a public burying place. Just what Mr. Gillespie's plans are and how he would make the deed we do not know but his idea, seeing the need of a public burying place for the town, is to put the property in a shape that it will always be used and kept up for that purpose. It would be expected of course, that parties burying there would pay a small sum for their plots, which would go to the company who pays for the property.

Jim Zachary of Lake Toxaway was in Brevard Wednesday.

Pastor Elsom will fill his regular appointments at the Baptist church next Sunday.

Ferdinand Nicholson is putting down the foundation for his cottage near the Industrial school.

Miss Flora Newton has gone to the Mission Hospital where she will spend 3 years in learning to be a trained nurse.

Miss E. H. Egerton of Warrenton, N. C., and Mrs. Dr. Tom Egerton of Hendersonville, are visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Egerton on Maple street.

Read the new road law on 1st and 8th pages. Every man in the county is interested in this law, and it is not just what you want let the framers know before the legislature acts.

Dess Young has, for the present, a run-as mail clerk from Asheville to Murphy. The schedule of his run is such that he can run up to Brevard and spend every other night with his family.

Miss Osie Miner will give a Valentine Social Thursday night Feb. 14, after our paper is printed. It may be worth mentioning next week. She has "set the pace" by having her invitations printed.

For some time the court house tower has been leaking and on examination it was found that the timber in the tower was decayed and that the roof was beyond patching. The commissioners are preparing to make the necessary repairs.

Last Sunday morning Miss Belle Burrell, one of Brevard's best known young ladies, and Mr. Vernon Johnson, of Greenville, S. C., who came to Brevard last week, took the train for Hendersonville, where they were united in marriage. After the ceremony they started for Greenville where they will make their future home. The best wishes of many friends go with them.

The following has been received from Rev. P. G. Elsom, who is at present holding a meeting at Ridge-land, S. C.: "Please announce that I will be home this week to preach next Sunday. My subject at night will be the 'Model Children' in the series on the 'Model Home.' Ask parents to come and bring their children. You can say we have a fine meeting here—crowds coming and many professions. Stores close for day services."

While the graveyard question is being talked, would it not be a wise thing for the Town of Brevard to look into the matter and consider the advisability of buying a plot of ground in some suitable place and opening a public cemetery? This is one thing that we most surely need, and the town is the only authority to own and control same. The day is coming, and is not far distant, when the town will be compelled to do this, and it looks to us as if now was the proper time. Such a thing would be in the end a good investment for the town financially, and a public cemetery is equal in interest to her citizens to a public park. It gives them a desirable place to bury their dead where they can feel assured that the time will never come when they will have to be removed or be under some man's barn or chicken house.
