NEWS NOTES FROM THE MOUNTAIN METROPOLIS OF INTEREST TO NEWS READERS.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

G. C. Beal, a carpenter who was injured at Canton last week and later brought to this city and placed in the Mission Hospital, is reported to be on the road to recovery. The injured man was employed on a building being erected by the Champion pulp mill at Canton and in some manner fell a distance of about thirty feet alighting on his face on a hard cement floor. Nearly all the bones of his face were crushed, the bones of his nose and upper jaw being completely dislocated, the lower jaw bones were broken in the middle and in addition to the injuries of his face the man sustained a compound fracture of the left thigh. Another distressing accident befell two carpenters at the Canton works last week. The men, Terrell Flynn and Frank Chestman are both expected to die. It is stated that a brick wall which was erected temporarily fell without warning and they were caught and crushed beneath tons of brick and mortar. It is understood that both men had their skulls fractured and were hurt otherwise internally. Flynn's home is said to be in Old Fort but the home address of Chestman is not known at the present writing.

As stated in this correspondence the Asheville police force have been working up the case of the "Pressing Club Flim Flam Game." Here a small negro calls at a house and states that he is sent for clothing from one of the city pressing clubs and when he gets the clothes he and the clothes both disappear." The police through their untiring efforts think they have landed one of the suit stealing gang who is a small negro boy, namely, Sid Corpening who has been bound over by Police Judge Jones under a bond of $100 for larceny and will be tried at the next term of Superior court. The police say that the clothes stealing scheme has flourished in Asheville and that there is evidently an organized gang of young negroes who are profiting through the loss of clothing of some of the best citizens in Asheville. They hope that the arrest of Corpening will result in the capture and breaking up of the whole gang.

The case of Alvin Owens and Wise Williams, two Asheville youths, will be called for trial at this term of Henderson county court. The boys will be tried for burglarizing a dwelling house belonging to a man named Shepherd in Hendersonville some months ago. These are the same two boys who are said to have put up such a stiff fight when the officers tried to arrest them, and who afterward made an effort to break jail. The reading of "dime novels" and trashy lit-

A New Aid Fable.

This is not a George Ade fable, though it may sling some slang. It is a Home Aid fable.

Once there was a Geezer, who sat around and cut Kindling too small for Cook Stove purposes. He Whittled against Time and Flabbergasted against his Town. The town was No Good, he said—strictly on the Blink. Yes, it was N. G. Why, hadn't he lived Here since '84 and found that the Place was Punky? Sure, Mike!

Look at that town over in the next County. Grown like Jonah's Gourd. Must be a Jonah here. We've grown some, but I don't see that we're knocking any particularly Big Persimmons. That's the way this Gazaboo knocked his town.

One day a Sarcastic Stranger floated into the Town that was Knocked from the burg that had Blossomed like Jonah's Gourd. He Heard some of the Flabbergasting and Dropped to the situation.

"Look here, you," he remarked to the citizen who was Handing Out the Knocks. "What do you do for this town? Are you doing your part to put this Burg on the Upgrade? What's that hefty Bunch of literature sticking out of your Clothes?"

"That's a Mail Order Catalogue from Chicago—a town that is a town," replied the Geezer.

"So I thought," said the Impertinent Arrival. "Now let me hand you out a nice little Wad of common sense. For the past ten years you have been sending your money to the Chicago Mail Order houses instead of spending it among your home merchants. What would have happened to Chicago fifty years ago if all the First Settlers had shipped their Loose Coin to New York on catalogue inducements? Why, you'd have to use a sand dredger now to find the Original Site of Chicago. Now, in the Burg from which I have just Blown in we got over all this Bum Business years ago. We passed Resolutions that we would trade at home and help our own town to Spread out so that you could Sight it on the map without using Opera Glasses. But you and a Bunch of other folks in this town have wasted your Substance in Riotous Expenditures in Chicago by mail and let the sheriff hang out the 'Nothing Doing' sign in front of some of your own town's mercantile Emporiums. Look at our Town and then look at yours. What makes the Difference?"

Whereupon the Whittling Gazaboo threw a few well chosen Thoughts into his mental makeup and went down to the village store to Annex a linen collar in place of the Paper Circles which he had bought from Chicago at Two Bits a Box.

MORAL: If you want your town to grow, patronize home enterprises.

erature it is said was the cause of the boys going astray. R. S. McCall of this city will look after the interests of the defendants when the case comes to trial.

Frank Carter has been elected Substitute Judge of Police Court by the board of Aldermen and it is stated that Mr. Carter will accept the place. He was elected by a unanimous vote of the board.

Since the defeat of the Buncombe county Good Roads bond issue by the "stay-at-homes" in the rural districts, the "anti-ites" are now talking about increasing the direct taxation for the improvement of the roads. The bond issue was defeated because every one of the registered voters who did not vote was counted against the issue, and the result was greatly due to the fact that a good per cent of those who did not take the trouble to vote were in favor of the bonds, but their failure to vote resulted in casting their strength to the "anti-bondites."

The Asheville police force are again on a campaign of extermination against the notorious houses of ill fame in the "Red Light" district of this city and a number of drag net raids have been made recently with the result that the inmates of these "unsavory joints" and the patrons thereof have been tried in open court for their numerous unprintable offenses. All of those given a hearing before Police Judge Jones are out on bond ranging from $25 to $100 and their trial will come up at the next term of Superior court. The police raid these places from month to month and year to year but the fines usually imposed are paid with good grace and the inmates return to these houses and continue their nefarious traffic unmolested until the next raid, when they again appear before the bar and pay their fines. The result is that these places continue to exist and thrive right under the eyes of the law and leave open an inducement for the youths of this city to frequent houses of shame and degradation, where mingle together in drunken carousal those who can not resist the temptation to tread the wide but crooked path that leads to broken lives, broken health, broken homes, broken hearts and more often broken pocket-books and broken heads. A raid every night or two, jail sentences and heavy fines could be resorted to with good results, for there are more ways to keep a city clean than to flush the streets in the day time when the traffic is the heaviest.

A record run was made through the Asheville railway yards one day last week by a light engine with the result that said engine is now out of commission in the repair shop and Willie Brown, Frank McGhee and "Judge" McMahan, three small negro boys are under arrest on the charge of trespassing on the Southern's property. These three little imps of darkness visited the yards on a tour of investigation and seeing an engine standing on the track unattended, with steam up and everything in readiness for a trip, they clambered aboard, threw open the throttle and away they rushed, faster and faster, past strings of freight cars and puffing engines. Everything was running smoothly and the little darkies were in high spirits but they had not calculated that other engines ran sometimes on the same track and a very sudden stop was made when their speeding engine collided with another light engine. The boys were thrown from the open cab to the ground, the engine was smashed and the estimated damage to it is about one thousand dollars. There is at present three badly frightened little negroes in the city lock-up awaiting trial for trespassing.
