

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

North Carolina—Transylvania County.
By virtue of the power vested in the undersigned, W. W. Zachary, a Trustee, in a certain deed of trust bearing date the 17th day of April, 1907, executed by William Whitmire and wife, Lorena Whitmire, to the said Trustee, to secure the sum of $5,000 to W. H. Faulstich, which amount is due and unpaid, and having been re-assessed to sell the land described in the said deed of trust for the purpose of collecting the said indebtedness, with the following description, to-wit: at 12 o'clock m., at the court house door, 1907, at the town of Brevard, sell to the highest bidder for cash, the following described tract of land: lying and being in Hogback Township and county of Transylvania, adjoining the lands and county of Whitmire, Ramsey Whitmire, Mark of Merriam and other, being the same land assessed by C. J. Henderson and wife to William Whitmire and wife, by deed dated Feb. 18th, 1888, and recorded in Book 8, p. 376, in the office of the Register of Deeds of Transylvania county, reference to which deed is hereby made for a full description of the said land.
The proceeds of the said sale will be applied: first, to the cost and expenses of the said sale; second, to the discharge of the said indebtedness; and the remainder, if any, to be paid to the said William Whitmire.
W. W. ZACHARY, Trustee.

Calhoun Jottings.

Editor Sylvan Valley News:
Farmers in this locality are busy gathering and husking corn.

Mark Osborne is teaching near Cedar Mountain. Is getting on nicely and is well pleased with his work.

William McCrary has bought the Calhoun property and is occupying the house. He is running his saw-mill on the premises.

Miss Norah Ashworth is teaching at Grange in a cottage near her home and has an interesting school. She seems to have the good will of all her pupils.

Miss Birdie McCall, of Calhoun, and Thomas Curry, of South Carolina, were recently married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. M. Jordan. May their life be happy and prosperous.

Rev. F. M. Jordan recently held a series of meetings at little River church continuing two weeks, which was very well attended. He did fine preaching and accomplished a great work. The church has unanimously elected Rev. Briggs as pastor. He is an earnest and faithful worker and an able preacher. He preached some fine sermons during the series of meetings.
