OBITUARY.

WELDON REID.

Jan. 1905—Nov. 1907.

Until brought to the stern reality of facing death how we shrink from the words:

"Life is but a day at most,
Sprung from night in darkness lost;
Hope not for sunshine every hour,
Fear not, clouds will always lower."

With perfect resignation and trust in Him who shapes our destinies, fond parents watched the ebb and flow of life in their little darling, watching for the faintest sign of hope in little Weldon, then finally bowing to His will who had decreed that the little sufferer should be numbered among the angels bright and fair around His throne.

With hearts trying to say "Thy will be done," Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Reid watched by the bedside of their little boy until God said, "come up higher I have need of thee." Was it not giving back to the Father in Heaven what was his own? Are we not all children of the Heavenly King given into fond keeping until He has need of us? We can say:

"Savior I follow on,
Guided by Thee;
Seeing not yet the hand,
That leadeth me.
Crushed be my heart and still,
For I fear no farther ill,
Only to meet Thy will
My will shall be."

And yet in the circle that was once complete, there is left a vacancy that can never be filled.

Little Weldon was just on the verge of emerging into childhood, babyhood being left behind, entwining his little life around the fond hearts of his parents when the summons came from above. For the past two years his life had been as a little rose-bud emitting tiny rays of love, light and fragrance into the home that was lighted by his presence just ready to emerge into a rose that would have carried volumes of love, sweetness and sunshine in its pathway.

His illness was of about a weeks duration, every attention was given the little one, all that medical aid could do was done, all that parents and loving friends could do was done in the sufferer's relief, yet none could arrest the death angel's hand. Dear bereaved:

"Weep not for him who dieth,
For he sleeps and is at rest;
And the couch whereon he lieth,
Is the green earth's quiet breast."

Can we not think of the word death as but another life? One that is free from care, toil and pain. Ever though cut down at the beginning of his sweet innocent childhood, think, even now he is singing with the angels "On that bright and beautiful shore, where all must meet to part no more"

"No parting or sorrow,
To day or to-morrow,
Where all is singing,
And melodies are ringing;
That is the land for which the weary are sighing,
The land for all eternity."

Our hearts go out in love and sympathy to the bereaved parents, sisters and brothers. In parting we leave these words as a comforter:

"Sweet to the soul the whispering,
Of hope and promise when soft voices sing;
We part to meet again."

A FRIEND.

Cherryfield Items.

Editor Sylvan Valley News.

Many bird hunters in our burg this week.

Prof. C. R. Sharp has moved to Calvert preparatory to taking charge of O. L. Erwin's store at that place. We wish him great success in his undertaking.

We notice that a number are still gathering corn, although the principal part of the crops are already stored. If the "money" is a failure our people will not realize it as there are abundant farm products to carry us for another year.

Charlie Morgon, Gladstone and Gaston Whitmire, Lincoln M. Hamilton and others attended a quilting party at John C. Whitmire's Thanksgiving Day. They report a nice time. True, I presume as there were a number of young ladies present among whom was our teacher Miss Davis.

Capt. Gleason passed through our burg last week on his way to inspect the famous gold mine recently discovered near Selica. He claims that it will yield 99 9-10 per cent pure gold. We hope that, with such a rich mine right at our door, the money question will soon show a brighter side. Captain is sure it will.

Whitmire & Hamilton are doing quite a lot of business at their new store. They certainly have an up-to-date, new line of merchandise. It is reported that they have closed negotiations with the Railway Co. to put them in 2,000 feet of side-track. We certainly long to see the day when this will be the center of business and enterprise, and our judgment is that it is not far distant.

The school at Mount Moriah, under the supervision of Miss Florence Davis, is progressing nicely. Every patron seems well pleased with her work, and every pupil speaks in the highest terms of their teacher. We congratulate her most heartily in being able to win the friendship and adoration of both patron and pupil, so soon, especially. It is not the case with every teacher. Ask Furman.

AMERICAN CITIZEN.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. Kings New Discovery, the great medicine that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by T. B. Allison, drug. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Lets see! It was about ten months ago that J. P. Morgan permanently retired from financial activity, was it not?
