DISTRICT MEETING.

A Red Letter Day for Odd Fellows in Spite of a Wet Night.

In spite of a wet night (Monday, Dec. 9) Conestee hall was crowded to its full seating capacity. More than thirty delegates representing the lodges in the 18th district joined with Conestee Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 237, in organizing the district conference.

On the arrival of the train the visiting brothers were escorted to the hall and the local lodge was duly opened in regular session, C. M. Doyle, Noble Grand, presiding, and the initiatory degree conferred in a manner and form to be remembered by all. After the labors of the degree were over, refreshments were served in the lobby. The district conference was then organized with J. A. Forsythe, president; LeRoy Ball, vice president; S. Qeeves, secretary; T. M. Duckert, treasurer; G. G. Hyder, marshal; C. D. Ledford, guardian. Reports from the lodges in this jurisdiction were then received, after which other important business relative to the good of the order was transacted.

A vote of thanks was extended the Brevard Light and Power Co.

for their courtesy in extending the time of shutting off the lights to 1 o'clock to confer the second degree on a candidate. The candidate and brothers will never forget the way this degree was conferred.

Many flattering remarks were heard at the station Tuesday morning when the delegates took their departure, alluding to the signs of prosperity and progress so manifest in our mountain town.

Next! Switch at crossing, crosses ready.

Captain, who has the oldest right? Pass on.

By the way? Wonder if Furman is going to Pickens sure enough?

Frank Morgan has returned to his home, from Cullowhee Institute, to spend Christmas vacation with his mother.

Gaston Whitmire was seen going down the road Sunday evening singing "I'll be all smiles to-night Love." Wonder if he was smiling when he returned. It was pretty dark and muddy down the creek wasn't it?

L. M. Hamilton, general manager of Whitmire & Hamilton's store at Cherryfield, called on his best girl Sunday. We see now why he is preparing to build that ten room house near Cherryfield. Go ahead young man!

The rumor circulated last week that a petition was being gotten up to discontinue Calvert post office is without foundation, and is a false report. It is unreasonable to think that the people of Calvert section would sign any petition that would be to their own disadvantage, as such a move would certainly be.

AMERICAN CITIZEN.

The greatness of George Corlyou seems to leave some people with hardly any breath to speak of.

JAMES GLAZENER.

Resolutions adopted by the High School Department of the Brevard Institute.

Resolved, In the death of James Glazener, his fellow students of the High School feel that they have sustained a great loss. He has been a faithful student and a hard worker among us during the past term of our school, and his quiet and retiring disposition endeared him to his immediate friends, though limiting the number of those who knew him well.

We extend to the members of his family in their time of sorrow our sincere sympathy and recommend that these words of sympathy and appreciation be read aloud to the school and a copy be sent to the members of his family and that the Sylvan Valley News be requested to print the same.

EUGENIA BRUNOT, Chm.

Resolutions adopted by the Belle Bennett Literary Society of the Brevard Institute.

We, the members of the Belle Bennett Literary Society, do hereby resolve that we have lost a valuable member and officer of our society in the death of James Glazener.

Mr. Glazener, by his quiet unassuming way, endeared himself to teachers and pupils and was held in high esteem by all who knew him here.

"None knew him but to love him, none named him but to praise him" We wish to extend our sympathy to the members of his family in their great loss.

TRANSYLVANIA UNION.

The above Union Meeting will convene with Rock Hill church Dec. 27-29, 1907.

(An interesting program has been sent us for publication, but is crowded out of this issue—Ed.)

All the churches are urged to send delegates to represent them at this meeting. We are anxious for a revival in our Union Meeting work.

For Committee.

Reba Locals.

Editor Sylvan Valley News:

Henry Garren left last Thursday for California.

Our boys are about done opossum hunting this season.

W. O. Garren went to Asheville this week on business, I guess.

Hershell Garren took supper with his friend Tom Jordan last Friday night.

Hershell Garren made a flying trip to Gloucester last week on business.

Candy Breaking at Waddie Tinsley's last Saturday night. Jolly time I guess.

They are getting a hustle on the moonshiners in Doutherd's Cove, South Carolina.

What is the matter? We don't hear much of the new railroad. Is it dead, you recon?

M. G. and G. F. Garren and E. D. Cassel, from South Carolina, were in this section this week on business.
