THE WASP

RULES

We don't start stinging till there's something doing wrong.

We don't stop stinging till things are running right.

Our sting is double-action, center-fire, sixteen-shot and we use steel-jacketed, explosive missiles.

Our range is unlimited—we can sting through the be-draggled ermine of a "rock quarry" judge just as easy as through the cotton shirt of a one-gallus hill-billy.

We will swarm just as quick on a silk beaver as on a wool hat.

When you hear us begin to hum you better get right with yourself, for that's a sign we are sharpening our stinger.

And our stinger is case-hardened, diamond-pointed, and runs with a twist. It will go through the thickest hide.

No wad of money is thick enough to keep us from stinging through it.

No veil of innocence is too thin to protect the just.

Our sting don't hurt or raise any welt unless your blood is full of filth and corruption.

If your moral and political system is clean and healthy our sting won't hurt you, but if it ain't, people can hear you cuss and holler for a mile or more.

NOTICE!

To the Chairman of the Transylvania County Republican Executive Committee:

Dear Sir: You are hereby tendered the use of a reasonable space in the Sylvan Valley News to publish any political announcements or cards. It will not therefore be necessary for you to get a Henderson county paper to publish any words of praise or defense for any of your candidates for office in Transylvania county, never mind whether they are Transylvania citizens or whether they are recent importations from Jackson county or elsewhere. Yours truly,

THE EDITOR.

"THE ENGLISH HOUSE OF LORDS."

Lawyer Len and Doctor Ed Held a convention, so they said. They put out a ticket with Len at the head. But Doctor Ed and Lawyer Len Said "Transylvania aint got any men." So they went to Jackson and got their "friend." Their friend from Jackson beat Jim Heath; He made Joe Pick to gnash his teeth; He beat the stuffing out of Lee; This Jackson man beat our home-raised three. Then Lawyer Len speaks big, says he, "My Jackson friend has beat you three, But still you all must vote for me, For here's your orders from Dr. E. S. E." But the old line Rads they said to Len, "You and your brother are pretty sharp men. Before you took our party in hand Transylvania men could fill the demand. Who was it you beat our home boys with? A Jackson flopdoodle, named Bill Smith. Now run along and tell Brother Ed That under your rule our party is dead; And listen, Len, you're surely beat; You will be Squire George's easy meat." G. CHAWISIR.

We wish there was a real good, old fashioned republican party in Transylvania. One composed of our own people, who could give and take hard licks struck above the belt. We could have a genuine old time campaign then, but this cosmopolitan aggregation of ringsters, composed of two bosses—that is the English House of Lords) the Jackson county nominee, the Pennsylvania postmasters and the Ohio delegates—get us confused. It is time, republican friends, that you were returning to fundamental principles and getting your party into the hands of Transylvania men. Now, when Lawyer Len (darn it, we can't remember that JUDGE LEON business.) and Brother Ed, read this they will go around to you old line republicans and tell you not to pay any attention to it as it is 'only democratic talk, but all we ask you to do is to think it over and you will find that it is like most other democratic talk, it is the truth. You men know that you have not had a fair show and that strangers have come in and gotten the best of everything. You native men are good enough to vote and work and spend your time and money for the republican party, but you ain't good enough to get any "pie." You don't even get on as a nominee so that you can say who will get the pie. You may have been born and raised in Transylvania county but you can't get anything unless you are an "Englishman" or a "Canadian," from Jackson county or from Ohio, or some other Northern state. And now, Uncle Caler, or Squire Heath or Luth, whichever of you—either Lawyer Len or Brother Ed—comes and talks this over to you, you just ask them who holds the best offices in this county and see if their names are familiar to you. If we have lied, then we will take it all back, but if we have told the truth, just remember it.

D. L. English, Attorney at Law, Brevard, N. C., has sent out a little two by four circular, which said circular we believe, was composed in Buncombe, printed in Henderson, paid for in Jackson and which will be laughed at in Transylvania; in which the said learned jurist says that you will have to be able to read, write and translate Latin in order to vote. Well, that may be English law, but it certainly isn't American law, and we want the learned Lawyer to show us the North Carolina law on that subject. We are not from Missouri but we have to be shown about this. We will discuss this circular more carefully later on. We are waiting to give the lawyer a chance to withdraw it before we make him sick of his attempt to fool the good people of Transylvania county.

Who was that who was telling around here about "Lawyer Len" (excuse us, we meant to say "JUDGE LEON") being as busy as a bee in a tar bucket getting a certain Englishman naturalized so that he could vote for one of the "House of Lords." Now what about that? He and Brother Ed are not satisfied with going to Jackson to get a man to beat some of our own home boys for the nomination, but they are sending "home" to England to get their voters. Well, that is about right; the way this English Parliament has managed the politics of the republican party in Transylvania county for the last four years, they will have to go to England or some place where they are not known to get men to vote for them.

They do say that Lawyer Len has said that the first bill he is going to have passed is to change the name of Transylvania and call this "Great Britian county." He says that it ought to be named that as it belongs to the "English." It seems as if he will either do that or have it annexed to Jackson county. "You see if we are annexed we would not have to go across the line to get candidates," says he.
