Miss Martha Boswell left Tuesday for Staunton, Virginia, where she will enter the Mary Baldwin Seminary for young ladies.

On Monday, before the board of county commissioners, the sheriff filed a bond as tax collector, and the tax list of 1908 was delivered to him for collection by the board.

Editor Breese has had his thoughts and emotions divided this week between fighting the political battle and welcoming the advent of a new son, who arrived Tuesday.

Tommy D. Clayton was in town Tuesday, still suffering from his lame foot and hobbling around on crutches. He says his trust is now in three things: "God, three B's and a low tariff."

Preaching at the Methodist church Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. It is probable that services will be continued through the entire week with music directed by a splendid singer and lessons in the life of Christ by the pastor.

The criminal docket of court was soon disposed of last week, and the rest of the time was taken up with litigation, which was finished last Monday. Judge Murphy proved himself fully equal to filling the position to which he was not elected.

A post card from R. H. Scadin, who desires to keep in touch with this county through the columns of the News, informs us that he has decided to locate in Amherst, Massachusetts. Mr. Scadin and family have our best wishes for success and happiness in their new home, and we hope that the Transylvania magnet will draw them again on visits in the future.

Hon. W. W. Kitchin, democratic candidate for governor, will be in Brevard on Thursday, Sept. 17th, and will address the citizens of the county. It behooves all voters, no matter of what party affiliations, and all interested in public affairs, to be present at the court house on that occasion, and get acquainted with the man who will in all probability be governor of the state for the next four years. Mr. Kitchin has a reputation as an orator as well as of a party leader.

At the last meeting of the board of county commissioners Graham's ford bridge was condemned by the board and the roads leading to it discontinued as public highways. This bridge is a short distance below Pisgah Forest, over the French Broad, and has been unsafe for a long time. About the only support the bridge has is one good locust sleeper. One road leads to it from Mrs. Rice's, between Pisgah Forest and Davidson River station, and the other from the main road just opposite the tannin plant. The timbers of the bridge will be sold to the highest bidder on the 19th of this month.

Henry W. Tinsley, a well known former resident of this county, but now living in Pelzer, S. C., was in town this week circulating amongst his friends.

Last Monday, Labor Day, was observed by the patriotic banks and no less patriotic postoffice. Laborers generally went about their work much as usual, hardly knowing they had a holiday.

At the court house last Sunday afternoon Rev. J. C. Owen made an address on the "Supreme question of Trade," in which he laid down some principles of right conduct in business and denounced the violation of those principles.

Wednesday's excursion train showed a considerable falling off in passengers. The resort season is drawing to a close, and the people are again seeking their winter quarters. It was a really chilling sight to see the other day a dray wagon moving toward the depot piled high with trunks.

Mrs. W. T. Bosse and children, Ernest and Karl, left Monday morning for a visit to Piedmont and other points in South Carolina. They were accompanied by C. L. Bosse, who returned to his home in Spartanburg, and by Mrs. Rowell and daughter, Miss Ione, who returned to Piedmont after a pleasant visit here.

A letter received from J. J. Miner written from Kansas City Mo., informs us that he has been taking treatment in a hospital at that place. As a result of treatment, he has been confined to his room, and therefore had little to say about the sights and doings in Kansas City. He expects to be there at least three weeks longer. The printing force misses its head, and will be glad to see him back safe and whole again.

MR. PICKELSIMER RESIGNS.

Chairman Executive Committee Republican Party, Transylvania Co., N. C.

Dear Sir—In as much as I will be compelled to be away this fall, not even being here to vote, I deem it is for the best interest of the Republican party in this county, that I withdraw my name from the list of candidates for County Commissioner, which I do at this time.

Please take due notice of this withdrawal and govern yourself accordingly. Very truly yours,
R. J. PICKELSIMER.

DEATH OF C. P. CLAYTON.

Charles P. Clayton of Penrose died Wednesday, Sept. 2, and was buried the following day at the Davidson River cemetery. The funeral services were conducted at the grave by Rev. Elijah Allison, who spoke effectively on the life and character of the deceased.

Mr. Clayton was nearly sixty years of age. He was a brother of William, Romulus, Overton and James Clayton and Mrs. Columbus Lyday. He is survived by his widow and four children, two sons two daughters. He was a man of exemplary character, and commanded the respect and esteem of his neighbors. In business relations he was straightforward, and as a farmer he was successful and substantial. As a citizen he was public spirited, taking especial interest in schools and education.

Mr. Clayton's death leaves a vacancy in the republican candidates for county commissioners which will have to be filled by the executive committee.

Magic and Poison Rings.

The ring when man thrust his finger through a hole in a pretty shell and later learned to make rings of jet. The ring is very magical. Lord Ruthven, who helped to kill Riccio, gave Queen Mary a ring which was sovrain against poison, and she generously repaid with the present of her father's wonderful jeweled dagger, of French work, no longer in existence. Whether Ruthven toiled with this magnificent weapon in the affair of Riccio or used a cheaper article is uncertain. At all events, Mary based on the ring that was an antidote to poison a charge of sorcery against Ruthven. The judges of Jeanne d'Arc regarded with much suspicion her little ring of base metal, a gift from her parents, inscribed with the sacred names Jesus Marie.

It was usual to touch the relics of saints with rings. Jeanne d'Arc said that her ring had touched the body of St. Catherine, whether she meant of the actual saint or a relic of the saint, brought from Sinia to Pierbois. The ring might contain a relic or later a miniature. I fear that I do not believe in the virtues or vices of poison rings. Our ancestors practically knew no poison but arsenic, and Carthaginian science can scarcely have enabled Hannibal to poison himself with a drug contained under the stone of a ring.—Andrew Lang.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
