We welcome to our advertising columns this week a former business man of this town, Arthur Kilpatrick, who is now in the mattress business in Hephersonville.

There was at least one Confederate flag in evidence last Saturday. It was the old southern cross and was carried by Tommie D. Clayton, who with flag, gun and a bandaged foot looked like a veteran fresh from the battlefield.

A postal card from Rev. E. Allison, written from Fairview, contains information concerning a meeting which he is holding at the Baptist church there. Mr. Allison is very much encouraged over the good work done. Many have professed conversion, and a large number are deeply interested in the meeting.

The County Board of Education met in the office of the County Superintendent last Monday. The question of establishing a public high school for the western division of Transylvania county was considered. The chairman being absent, action on this matter was deferred until 1:30 p. m. John McKelvey, a young man who lives across the river above Wilson's bridge, met last Saturday with an accident that came near being very serious. He was riding a mule at full speed, when the animal fell down, throwing John over his head. The full force of the fall was on his right shoulder, which suffered considerable injury.

The box supper at English chapel last Saturday night was highly enjoyed by the young people of that community and those who went down from Brevard. The inevitable cake raffle was carried on with spirit, and Miss Rankin of the school and Miss Ollie Perry of Brevard were close candidates. The Brevard boys were so strenuous in their efforts that the cake finally fell to Miss Perry.

Last Saturday the confederate survivors of the county met at the courthouse and had an interesting meeting. Owing to the busy occupations of the season, the attendance was not full. The old confederates indulged in the reminiscences usual on such occasions, shouldered their muskets, and fought over their old battles. Some of them looking forward through the thin veil that separated them from the future world, called on their comrades to answer the roll call together in heaven.

REVIVAL MEETING.

The protracted meeting, which is in progress at the Presbyterian church, is being well attended, and a good deal of interest is being manifested by the people generally. Beginning on Wednesday of last week, a series of preparatory services were held at night throughout the week, in which the pastors of the different churches took part Saturday night, Mr. Burr, the singing evangelist, arrived and took charge of the music, but owing to certain business hindrances, Mr. Black did not reach Brevard till Monday night.

The preaching at these services is characterized by simplicity, force and clear presentation of gospel truths. Mr. Black is a speaker of no ordinary ability, and holds the undivided attention of his audience from first to last. The evangelists brought with them a special lot of singing books, which are distributed among the congregation, and all are urged to take part in the singing. A special feature of the services is in the duet singing by Mr. Black and Mr. Burr at the close of each service. Every word of these songs can be distinctly heard, and their effect is equal to that of a fine sermon.

The business men of the town have so far entered into the spirit of the meeting as to agree upon closing their stores in the mornings from ten to eleven, the hour for morning services.

Legalized Theft.

We are told that the young Spartans were taught to steal by the authorities for the purpose, presumably, of making them good foragers in wartime. In Egypt professional thieves gave in their names to the chief of the robbers and agreed that he should be informed of everything they might steal. The owner of lost goods applied to the chief for their recovery, and on payment of one-quarter of their value they were restored in full. The chief robber was salaried by the government.

HOW A WOMAN IN N. C. STARTED IN BUSINESS WITH ONLY ONE DOLLAR

She is Now Independent and Cares Not How Bad Times Are—Can be Done by Others.

A woman in North Carolina started in business with only one dollar and now has an income of more than 200 dollars a week.

One day she saw an advertisement in a monthly story paper of "WICKE'S SWISS HERB TEA" stating that it was the BEST REMEDY ON THE MARKET for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Troubles, and while she had been troubled with all these complaints for more than 7 years, she wrote to the manufacturer for a 25-cent package, which she used carefully according to directions. After one week's use she found that all her complaints had left her and she told the people, who had known her as a very sick lady, what she had used. All who saw the wonderful change in her condition, asked her to get them a package, and she sent one dollar to the manufacturer of the Tea and asked him to send her as many packages as she could afford for the one dollar.

She got 8 packages which she sold at 25 cents each, which gave her a profit of one dollar on her investment, and 25 sample packages, which she distributed to other people and asked them to try this wonderful Herb Tea.

A week later she went to all these people again and asked them if they had tried the Tea and what they thought of it, and to her surprise she got an order for a package from every one of these, they all said "the Tea is wonderful." She at once sent for 100 packages and kept on distributing samples and sold them all in a week's time, then she sent for 500 packages, and now she has 50 other ladies and men working for her, selling "Wicke's Swiss Herb Tea" from house to house, and North Carolina has never been in so healthy condition as she is now; the call for a doctor is only in rare cases or accident. A druggist offered her the other day $10,000 for her agency, but she declined his offer.

Anyone who has a little push and energy can do as well as she, and while there are a few agencies still open, we advise all who want to build up an independent business to write to H. FELDSTEIN, 1375 Myrtle ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., and send him a money order for one or more dollars to secure the agency of their town. Write today if you want to build up your own business and be independent.
