LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Isn't Broad street entitled to a sidewalk?

E. W. Blythe returned last week from a collecting tour in Georgia.

A. K. Orr of Asheville was in Brevard during the week.

John Newton of Canton is visiting friends and relatives in Brevard.

Roscoe Nicholson is acting as assistant postmaster in the absence of Carl Case.

The big bottom fields are being stripped of the ears of corn by the busy farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. LeRoy, accompanied by Miss Letha Heath, left Wednesday for a few months' visit to Florida.

We are glad to see L. N. Townsend on the streets again after a long confinement from an attack of rheumatism.

There will be preaching at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning as usual by the pastor. You are invited to be present.

Wonder if that million dollars which was to be spent in Transylvania enterprises "if Taft was elected," will now materialize—or was it a bluff?

Wouldn't it be a good thing for the Brevard Board of Trade to get options on the river valley farms around our town—at least to learn what they can be bought for if prospective buyers should wish to know?

We believe that there are several enterprises which are looking towards Brevard for a location, but they are not yet ready for publicity. The great lake project in Hendersonville was killed by premature publicity.

W. T. Bosse returned last Friday from Spartanburg where he had been summoned to the bedside of his father, C. L. Bosse. He received the message too late to see his father alive, as the latter died early on the previous Wednesday morning.

The first real winter day was Thursday, November 5th. Up to that time we had a mixture of spring, summer and fall with frosty indications that winter was nigh at hand. But there was a something in the air of Thursday morning different from all the mornings that had gone before it.

The 22d Sunday after Trinity, November 15, 1908, St. Philips church. Morning prayer, holy communion and sermon at 11. Subject, "Religious Well Pleasing or a Life of Well Pleasing to God."—Isaiah 2:5. The Junior Auxiliary will hold their regular monthly missionary meeting at 4. Litany with address on Friday at 4:45. The lesson for the week: The brotherhood of man. The gospel: The inhuman fellow servant. The epistle: Fellowship in the gospel shown by doing good. The collect: The church, God's household.

The third monthly meeting of the county teachers' association was held at the graded school building last Saturday morning, Superintendent Henderson presiding. The program was short, but well discussed. The schools were pretty well represented, though some of the teachers were absent. Prof. Estes of the graded school led in a discussion of the subject, "Method in Teaching." His remarks were suggestive and practically helpful to teachers. The subject "The Teacher as a Factor in Civil Government," was opened by Prof. J. B. Thorne of the Broad Valley high school in a very thoughtful address. Both subjects were further discussed by different members of the association.

Eugene Loftis of Toccoa Ga. came in this week on a visit to his parents.

Mrs. H. C. Jenkins of Asheville is on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jenkins.

Miss Orin Godfrey left last Sunday morning for a short visit to Washington D. C.

F. L. Wilson left this community Tuesday for Spartanburg S. C. on matters of business.

Chester Tinsley, who has been for some time in business at Salisbury, came to Brevard last week.

Ellen Allison, daughter of H. L. Allison who lives at the Clough place, has been dangerously ill with pneumonia, but is now improving.

Mrs. M. J. Orr is absent from Brevard in attendance on her father, Wm. Kinzey of Horseshoe, who is slowly passing away with creeping paralysis. The last news from his bedside is that his death may be expected at any moment.

Wouldn't it be great if Brevard was situated on the banks of Lake Toxaway? And what is to hinder its being so situated? It wouldn't cost so very much more to build a lake here by damming French Broad than it did to dam Toxaway river.

King John's lake is once more an accomplished fact, and numerous specimens of the "bream" family are to be turned loose to stock it. There will be a boat on the lake so that summer visitors who enjoy fishing and boating will find an opportunity to enjoy themselves.

Ike Bailey, a well known colored citizen of this community, died at his home in the west suburbs last Sunday and was buried on the knoll nearby which contains the family burying ground. Rev. Wilson, colored, conducted the funeral services. Ike was a son-in-law of Ned White, and it was at his home that the old negro spent his last days.

A party of hunters from Brevard and other points spent Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week tramping over the hills and through the thickets of the Sapphire region in quest of deer. The Brevard hunters were A. K. King, Kay King, J. E. Clayton, J. L. Aiken, T. L. Snelson, J. S. Bromfield and W. L. Wiley. They were the real Nimrods, as all the deer killed were brought down by their guns. Eight fine animals were brought back as trophies of the hunt.

The colored people of Western North Carolina are warned that unless the "Western North Carolina Baptist Convention" and "Mid Creek Baptist Educational Union and Sunday School Convention" take away from this office and pay for their last year's minutes, printed by the News, we shall institute legal proceedings against the two organizations. Placing the money to pay for the printing in the hands of dishonest and irresponsible agents does not release these societies from their obligations. Be warned and save costs.

Prof. N. W. Walker of Chapel Hill, state inspector of high schools, was in this section the latter part of last week. In company with Supt. Henderson he visited the high school at Broad Valley, and went to Selma and Rosman, where he made a personal inspection of the claims of the two districts to the location of a high school. After looking over the ground Prof. Walker returned to Chapel Hill where he will make out a report and submit it to the state board of education at Raleigh. On this report as a basis the board will decide the place for locating the high school.

Hendrick Witmer left Brevard Wednesday for Bessemer, Ala., where he will be engaged in business.

Mrs. H. L. Steele of Asheville spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jenkins, last week.

It is announced that Senator Tillman has been converted to beer as the solution of the whiskey problem in South Carolina. During the recent financial stringency and industrial depression the identical solution was forced upon a large number of thirst investigators.

Seven Years of Proof

"I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs," says W. V. Henry, of Panama, Mo. The world has had thirty-eight years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hemorrhage of the lungs, and the early stages of consumption. It's timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at T. B. Allison's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A Texas woman has named her recently arrived triplets William, Jennings and Bryan. We suspect she is a good house keeper and knows how to make a good thing go a long way.

Mind Your Business!

If you don't nobody will. It is your business to keep out of all the trouble you can and you can and will keep out of liver and bowel trouble if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They keep billiousness, malaria and jaundice out of your system. 25c. at T. B. Allison's drug store.

Election predictors can now take a long rest—and give the rest of us one.

Colds and Croup in Children.

"My little girl is subject to colds," says Mrs. Wm. H. Serig, No. 41 Fifth St., Wheeling, W. Va. "Last winter she had a severe spell and a terrible cough, but I cured her with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the aid of a doctor, and my little boy has been prevented many times from having the croup by the timely use of this syrup. This remedy is for sale by O. L. Erwin, Rosman, N. C."

Postal savings banks would guarantee their deposits, but it would be perfectly ridiculous for other banks to do the same thing.
