LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Allison leave this morning for a holiday visit to Charleston.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson of Charlotte are visiting her parents here, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Hunt.

Mrs. J. J. Miner is spending Christmas among friends and relatives in Cherryfield and Rosman.

Mitchell and Cox will give away a gold watch to the most popular young lady. See their ad on page 7.

Miss May Brooks, who has been visiting for some time in Piedmont, S. C., has returned to her home in Rosman.

We learn that E. F. Moffit has the contract for building Jim Forsyth's house on Caldwell street near Main.

F. L. DeVane and family returned by the Wednesday evening train from an extended visit in the eastern part of the state.

Miss Ella Wright of Hendersonville was the guest of honor at a social given by Osie Miner Wednesday night to a party of her friends.

J. C. King has installed an old-fashioned 4-foot buhr stone at his mill, and will hereafter produce old-fashioned water-ground corn meal.

A clay pigeon shooting match on Cooper's Hill will be given Christmas afternoon. We learn that a rifle and shotgun will be offered as premiums.

Leroy Ball closed his steam-heating contract with the Aethelwold hotel Wednesday and returned to Asheville with his force of hands yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Woodbridge of Central America are visiting his mother, Mrs. M. A. E. Woodbridge and other friends at his old home in Brevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bromfield and family have located permanently in Brevard. For the present they are boarding at the Mrs. Carson cottage on Whitmore street.

We are striving to get Christmas day as a holiday for the News force. Everybody else closes their shops, so don't come to town expecting to do business, especially after dinner.

We have been too busy in the job department this week to look after local news items. If there is an apparent shortage charge it to the book agents and medicine men who have been rushing us.

The News office will be handicapped for a few days by a holiday knock-out of its devil. A cannon cracker was the cause and "didn't know it was loaded," the excuse. So the holiday festivities leave us short a press-feeder.

Dr. Burch Allison of the Brevard Drug Co., contemplates a holiday outing and has secured the assistance of Mr. Harris Chewning of Hendersonville as assistant during his absence. Mr. Chewning will, we hope, be welcomed and nicely treated by our people.

Dr. Robert Kirksey, formerly of Piekens, was in the city one day last week. The Doctor has been located in the new state of Oklahoma for the past few years. His home at present is in Cache, Okla. He is visiting relatives in the county at present.—Easley Progress.

W. E. Bishop is laying down lumber to build another small cottage on Whitmore street and we learn that he has it rented as soon as completed. We believe it would pay some one to erect a few cottages for rent. There isn't a vacant house in town except the mill cottages and they will be filled as soon as the mill starts up.

John Waldrop is at home from Mars Hill College.

E. E. Lewis has left the depot and is assisting in Erwin's store.

Miss Leona Allen, who has been on a visit to her home, returned last week.

Miss Georgia Bell and Miss Julia Deaver, of the Selica school, are at home for the holidays.

P. B. Jones, one of the firm of a Nashville publishing house, has been in Brevard for several days.

Rev. Z. I. Henderson, with his family, has removed to Rosman, where he will pursue his studies in the Rosman High School.

Edmond and Robert Breese, one from Washington City, the other from Greensboro, are at home in Brevard for the holidays.

Misses Burneett and Fain, teachers in the graded school at Andrews, were on a visit this week to Miss Eliza Glazener at Rosman.

Miss Nora Ashworth, who has been engaged in the millinery business in Andrews, is on a visit to the home of her father W. S. Ashworth.

Messrs Bowles and Jule Glazener arrived last Tuesday night from Texas. Mr. Glazener is visiting relatives at his old home near Rosman.

The Miriam Society, which is composed of the young girls in the Presbyterian church held a Christmas sale at Mrs. J. F. Henry's, on the afternoon of December 23. There was a display of many useful and beautiful articles and a nice sum was realized.

North Carolina Day Exercises were held in the Selica school on Wednesday, December 23. The following pupils read essays, Memory Moll, Harkless Barton, Emma Tinsley, Fred Grogan, Laura Lance, Grady Scraggs. A Christmas piece was read by Katie Dunn. The school work will be resumed after new year.

The Sunday school of the Baptist church gave a Christmas tree entertainment on Wednesday night. The programme consisted of recitations and songs and the distribution of holiday presents. There were two trees near the pulpit—a large cedar for the regular Christmas tree, and a beauty, on which the children hung stockings containing offerings for building a church in China. The attendance was large and the occasion was much enjoyed.

St. Philips Church, Christmas Day, Dec. 25, 1908. Early Communion at 7:30 a. m. Morning prayer, communion and sermon at 11. Subject: "Christmas Lessons." Offering for the widows and orphans of deceased clergymen. The Lesson for the week: "The Incarnation," "God with us and we in Christ," "The divinity of Jesus Christ." The Gospel, "The Incarnation of the Word." The Epistle: "The divine Sonship of Christ." The Collect: "Our Sonship through regeneration in Christ." Children's Christmas tree service at the Rectory on Saturday at 4:00. Dec. 26, St. Stephen's day. Dec. 27, St. John's, the Evangelist's day. The Sunday after Christmas: Morning prayer, communion and sermon at 11:00. Sunday school at 4:00. Monday, Dec. 28, Holy Innocent's day.

Rest Rooms for Ladies.

The Young Women's Christian Association, occupying "The Henrietta," South Main street, Asheville, extend a cordial invitation to all ladies shopping in Asheville, to make our Association their headquarters. Being very near the shopping center of Asheville, our rooms afford a convenient and comfortable place for rest and refreshment.

BREVARD HIGH SCHOOL.

Closing Exercises Friday Evening, December 18, 1908.

The entertainment given by the High School last Friday evening gave pleasure to many. The first part of the program was devoted to the exercises of "North Carolina Day."

Four essays were read, showing good work done by the pupils. First, "The Battle of Ramsauer's Mill," by Nathalie Forsythe; "A German pioneer," Fanny Hunt; "John Henry Bonar," Marguerite Galloway; "Settlers from Germany," Kathleen Erwin. Patriotic songs were sung, and it was good to hear the little ones joining loyally in the "Hurrall!" of the chorus of "Old North State."

Patriotism, hero worship, cannot be too early instilled. Not only are the dead honored by the recounting of their deeds, but better still the receptive heart of the child is awakened to courage and fidelity.

The Christmas part of the program was principally the work of the glee club, and it is needless to say that it was well rendered and greatly enjoyed.

School work will be resumed after New Year.

BOX SUPPER AT ROSMAN.

The Rosman School closed for the holidays on Wednesday with a celebration of North Carolina day in the afternoon and a box supper at night. The North Carolina Day exercises consisted of recitations, readings, essays and patriotic songs. Supt. Henderson was present and made a short address appropriate to the occasion. Prof. Cunningham, who is teaching a singing school at Calvert, was on hand with a number of his class and they favored the audience with two beautiful songs.

The Box Supper was quite successful, considering the nearness of Christmas and the boarding of nickels for other pleasures. There were about 15 boxes and they brought over 18 dollars. One cake was sold by votes for the most popular young lady. The voting was spirited, and the cake was awarded to Miss Norma Glazener. As a side line coffee, cake and custard were sold. The whole proceeds amounted to $42.50, which is to be used for school furniture. Fiem Glazener and Leo Hogsed, and Miss Norma Glazener furnished music for the occasion.

That Dull Feeling After Eating.

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—DAVID FREEMAN, Kempt, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at O. L. Erwin's store, Rosman, N. C., and see what a splendid medicine it is.
