LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

E. A. Glazener of Rosman was in town last Monday.

H. P. Clarke left early in the week for a visit to South Carolina.

B. T. Bringier of Lake Toxaway spent several days in Brevard this week.

Who was it said that all we needed was a good breeze to sweep the streets clean?

Frank Holliman and family of Seneca, S. C., is occupying the Wallis bungalow.

S. J. Tinsley, who recently sold his country place, has bought the Zeb Burrell property on Depot street.

E. H. Glover writes the News that he will be in Brevard and have his studio open for photograph work next week.

W. M. Bradley has resigned the office of night watchman and Bright Burrell, who held the position about a year ago, has again been employed.

The Methodist Sunday school is working to get a memorial window in memory of Fitch Taylor for the Sunday school room of the church. We hope and believe they will succeed.

A broken axle on Mr. H. P. Clarke's auto has kept that "animal" off the streets this week. Our people have become so accustomed to its daily visits that its absence causes remark.

Leroy Ball of Asheville has been in Brevard this week looking for business in the plumbing line. Tuesday he visited the Davidson river section, helping Thos. L. Gash to plan a private water supply for his residence.

It seems to us that in view of the recent warnings our people have had, that it would be an act of wisdom for all to keep their buildings covered with insurance. It doesn't cost so very much, but in case of fire would be worth a great deal.

If you have soothed but one throb of the old world's hurt and pain; If you've helped cover one blot of its sin and its stain With the heaven-wrought mantle of Love, ah! well then You and your heart—you may say: "We have not lived wholly in vain."
L. A. C.

Communion Services at Davidson River Presbyterian church have been postponed to the first Sunday in June. The pastor will be absent for about ten days including the fifth Sunday, having been called to a meeting of the trustees of Davidson college.

We learn that the Town of Brevard contemplates putting a filter at the intake of its water line so that the water we use will have to pass through layers of sand and charcoal before reaching the reservoir. This filter will give the town the best water on earth.

Some new ordinances suggested by the Improvements Committee and passed by the Board of Aldermen at a called meeting Wednesday evening, are published in this issue for the information of all interested. With the Aldermen, the business men and the ladies interested in a clean town, there is no reason why Brevard should not be an attractive summer home.

Mecklenburg Independence day was celebrated by the bank.

O. V. Summey and bride are in town visiting L. P. Summey.

Miss Edith Kilpatrick left on Wednesday for a visit to Lake Toxaway.

Mrs. C. R. Sharpe and son Sherrill of Calvert were in Brevard last Monday.

W. S. Price is again at his post after an absence of several days on account of sickness.

E. E. Lewis left town Thursday morning for a business trip of a few days to Hendersonville.

O. L. Erwin was away from business this week on a trip to Greensboro, Ala., and Knoxville, Tenn.

The long dry spell was broken up by a good rain beginning Monday night. Farmers have certainly had some fine weather on their young crops.

Rev. J. R. Owen returned Wednesday night from a visit to Louisville, Ky., where he attended the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Mrs. J. F. Henry and Miss Violet returned Wednesday from a four days stay in Asheville, during which time they attended the musical festival.

M. P. Holcombe of Bald Creek and his son S. F. Holcombe of Statesville, were visiting in Brevard Saturday and Sunday last, and stopping at the Henning Inn.

Otto V. Summey and Miss Florence Calhoun were married last Sunday at Lake Toxaway by Rev. R. G. Tuttle. The newly married couple will make their home in Brevard.

St. Philips church, Sunday after the ascension, May 23, 1909. Morning prayer, litany and sermon at 11. Subject, "The Ascension of the Risen Christ." Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.

The merchants on Main street are to be commended for the manner in which they have cleaned up the street. Several visitors as well as many citizens have spoken of the great improvement.

Capt. and Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Maj. and Mrs. F. L. DeVane, Col. and Mrs. John W. McMinn, Gen. Edwin Cooke and book, left town Wednesday for a three days fishing trip to the waters of Cathey's Creek and tributaries and we predict a fine catch of "speckled beauties" as all the party are first class fishermen.

Rev. Robert King, who has come to Brevard to fill the office of pastor to the Presbyterian church during the month of May, preached last Sunday morning and evening, and made a good impression on the congregations. Mr. King is a student of the Theological Seminary at Richmond.

A party of passenger agents of the Queen and Crescent route went up Wednesday evening to Lake Toxaway on a private car. They were met at this station by Mr. Heelan of The Franklin and invited to luncheon on Thursday, during a stop over at this place. Mr. Heelan, already in the past history of The Franklin has demonstrated his ability to entertain large parties on short notice.

Words to Freeze the Soul

"Your son has consumption. His case is hopeless." These appalling words were spoken to Goe. E. Blevens, a leading merchant of Springfield, N. C., by two expert doctors—shown the wonderful power of Dr. King's New Discovery. "After three weeks use," writes Mr. Blevens, "he was as well as ever, I would not take all the money in the world for what it did for my boy." Infalible for Coughs and Colds; it's the safest, surest cure of desperate Lung diseases on earth. 50c. and $1.00. Guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free.—Allison & Macfie.
